The Weekly Yeh County Signal.

Progress of Catholicism.

The Pittsburg Catholic reviews the march of Catholicism and finds the result highly satisfactory. That paper as will appear upon the following, is able to give a glowing picture of the local progress of its favorite Church and of the respect paid her votaries as compared with the treatment accorded them but a few years since. The Catholic says:

Then the change in public opinion. Many of us remember the day when a Papist was a curiosity, and an object of dread to many of our countrymen, and a Priest was regarded as a being nearly related to the Evil One in spirit and in body, every ridiculous, every monstrous, and every infamous calumny was eagerly swallowed by thousands of innocents, who thus learned to hate and abhor a religion of which they knew nothing but from liars and deceivers. The smoke darkened ruins still point out the natural result of such a course, just as in these days, the foul mouthed street preacher leads his brutal hearers to deeds of violence and of shame. Even in times within the recollection of the young, our city was often disgraced by the applause given to a drunken, vulgar sot, who was paid to utter all kinds of calumny, and cast filth on men whose learning, piety, and distinguished character, won for them a tardy, but at length cordial appreciation from our fellow-citizens.—What was the result of these weekly showers of obscenity, and blasphemy, and of the dark scowled hatred of the malignant ones that hired him to do the dirty work? Within Allegheny county we have at least thirty churches, and nearly twice that number of clergymen; two hospitals, two orphan asylums, one of which is an ornament to our city, and a credit to the zealous Prelate, clergy and laity who have put it up. Slow at first was the progress, but of late our Bishop and his faithful, hard-working Priests, are busy in providing church accommodation for the Catholic community. We have a Seminary that is every year sending forth to the Mission zealous and learned young Priests; a Monastery as well a pride as a consolation to us; and a number of Convents, from which are drawn the devoted ladies whose delightful task it is to teach the poor, as did their loving Father.

The same can be said of every other part of the country. In spite of slanderous tongues, in spite of deeply rooted bigotry, in spite of gross misrepresentation, in spite of open denunciation, and threats, thanks to the grace of God, the zeal of His servants, and the good sense of the people, Catholicity is moving onwards here as elsewhere, that is, wherever, as in Russia, freedom of thought is not restrained, or in Italy, and wherever else Revolutionary impiety and its legions of oath bound, secret societies, have not so upturned and convulsed society as to prevent men from calmly seeking, and steadily pursuing the truth.

The Catholic continues:

After three hundred years of the most galling persecution, and systematic extermination how bright are the prospects of the Church in Great Britain? In every rank, and in every profession, does she win over noble sons. Her long suffering is now being rewarded, a rift in the dark cloud is widening, and ere long the Island of Saints and the Sister Isle will be gladdened by the beauties of an undimmed sky whence from will shine in ever increasing splendor, the glorious light of Truth. That which was to supplant the Church is now tottering to an unhonored grave after three centuries' enjoyment of a precarious existence, while she is again coming forth from this struggle, as from every other, with renewed strength and beauty.

What a consolation it would have been to Elizabeth or Cromwell to know that all their efforts to crush out the faith in Ireland would eventuate in 1868 in the existence in that land of a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Catholic Church, and of twenty eight Bishops, two thousand nine hundred Priests, two thousand three hundred churches and chapels, and three hundred and fifty houses of religious worship?

SENATOR SUMNER ON COLORED CONGRESSMEN.—Senator Sumner has written a letter to a citizen of Norfolk, in which he gives his opinion in favor of the eligibility of colored men to Congress, in which he says: "I know of no ground on which he could be excluded from his seat duly elected, and I should welcome the election of a competent representative of the colored race to either house of Congress as the final triumph of the cause of equal rights. Until this step is taken our success is incomplete."

A pretty conceit,—"It was a pretty conceit of a romantic father whose name was "Rose," and who named his daughter "Wild," so that she grew up under the appellation of "Wild Rose." But the romance of the thing was sadly spoiled when she married a man by the name of "Bull."

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM—1868.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Convention assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do with the return of peace demand:

1st. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

2d. Amnesty for all political offences, regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

3d. Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4th. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

5th. One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officer holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6th. Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and the discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting the Internal Revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the Internal Revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7th. Reform of abuses in the administration; the expulsion of the corrupt from office; the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority and independence to the Executive and Judiciary; the subordination of the military to the civil rule, to the end that the usurpation of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8th. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the due respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the obsolete doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was raised that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted a military seizures, and arrests, and military trials, and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph office, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and military espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. His corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the debt created by the war—it has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjugated and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution.

And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled, exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co equal States.

And that we regard the Reconstruction Acts (so called) of Congress, as such, as usurpations and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, or sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the People, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this Platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary!

ESTABLISHED IN 1854, 616 Kearney Street corner Commercial, San Francisco

For the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases' such as gonorrhœa, gleet, tricture, syphilis in all its forms, seminal weakness, impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing,) and Ulcerated legs successfully treated

HORRIBLE DISEASES.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of horrible, like destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be aware of the many pretended Doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Syphilis is syphilis the world over; so is small pox, consumption and other diseases, to the contrary of what quacks may say.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Seminal weakness is the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, dimness, intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, mock mania, and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by this new and scientific mode of treating this complaint, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give $100 to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Dr. Gibbon is responsible, and will give each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for ten dollars sent in a registered letter through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON.
