The Weekly Polk County Signal.

Seymour Campaign Song.

AIR—"Coal Oil Tommy."

All have received the glorious news
That Seymour is the man
Whom we have for our candidate,
And beat him no one can.
We'll carry him in triumph through
In spite of all the cant
Of these who seek for plunder new
And howl for Hiram Grant.

CHORUS.

For Horatio Seymour is the man!
Horatio Seymour is the man
Who is to lead us on, my boys!
Who is to lead us on, my boys!
Horatio Seymour is the man!
Horatio Seymour is the man!
Horatio Seymour is the man, my boys
To knock Ulysses cold!

He's faithful, pure, and able, too,
A statesman of renown,
And just the very one to make
The radicals come down,
And leave the proud positions high
They have disgraced so long,
And cause that lying, thievish crew
To sing a doleful song.

To heavy taxes bid adieu;
For when he takes his seat,
Beast Butler and those patriots
Can no more steal and cheat;
Our revenues will be applied
Then, to the country's good,
And the pap-hunters and red-tape men,
Must earn their daily food.

Then give three cheers, with a hip hurrah
For gallant old Seymour,
And proud and happy be the day
He enters the White House door;
Our country will be free once more,
With the dear old flag on high,
Without one star erased from it,
And all its stripes to fly.

A LUDICROUS SCENE.—A ludicrous scene occurred within a thousand miles of Indianapolis, not a great while ago, at least not long enough to be forgotten. We suppress names and give the story as it is told by one of the Indianapolis newspapers. Two young ladies were visiting an other young lady, their cousin The three were fond of jokes, and continually played them off on each other. On the night in question two of the young ladies attended a party, from which they returned at 12 o'clock.—The third one remained at home, and to avoid disturbing her, for the three slept in the same bed—and others in the house, they entered through a window. Here a difficulty occurred caused by the fact that after they had left home a young minister arrived on a visit. He was given the room occupied by the young ladies, and the one who had remained at home sat up to inform the others that different appartments had been assigned to them. She waited in the parlor for that purpose but unluckily fell asleep, and as the two others did not come in by the door, but stepped into their own room by the window, she slept on. When the two entered they saw Fanny's figure as they supposed, in bed, but were puzzled also, to see a pair of boots by the bedside. The truth flashed upon them both at once. They saw it all. Fanny had set the boots into the room to give them a good scare. They put their heads together and determined to turn the tables on her.—Silently they disrobed, and as stealthily as cats they took their position on each side of the bed. At a given signal they both jumped into bed, one on each side of the unconscious parson, laughing and screaming "Oh, what a man! Oh, what a man!" and gave the poor bewildered parson such a promiscuous hugging and tousling as few persons are able to brag of during their life time. The noise of this proceeding awoke the old lady, who was sleeping in an adjoining room.—She comprehended the situation in a minute and rushing to the room, she opened and exclaimed, "My Lord, gals, it is a man, it's a man, sure enough!" There was a prolonged and consolidated scream, a flash of muslin through the door, and all was over. The best of the joke is that the minister took the whole thing in earnest. He would listen to no apologies the old lady could make for the girls, he would hear no excuse, but he solemnly folded his clerical robes around him and took his departure.

TO THE LADIES—HOW TO ACT WHEN HAVING A PICTURE TAKEN.—When a lady sitting for a picture, would compose her mouth to a bland and serene character she should, just before entering the room, say "Bosom," and keep the expression into which the mouth subsides until the desired effect upon the company is evident. If, on the other hand, she wishes to assume a distinguished and somewhat noble bearing not suggestive of sweetness, she should say "Brush," the result of which is infallible. If she would make her mouth look small she must say "Flip," but if the mouth be already too small and needs enlarging, she must say "Cabbage." If she wishes to look mournful, she must say "Ketchunk," if resigned she must forcibly ejaculate "Scat." Ladies when having their photographs taken may observe these rules with some advantage to their appearance.

There is a dispute whether General Grant drinks. There is a dispute whether he smokes. There is a dispute whether he swears. There is a dispute as to his principles. There is a dispute as to his name. What is there about him that is indisputable except his defeat in November.—Palmyra (Mo.) Spectator.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM—1868.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Convention assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do with the return of peace demand:

1st. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

2d. Amnesty for all political offences, regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

3d. Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4th. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

5th. One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6th. Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and the discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting the Internal Revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the Internal Revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7th. Reform of abuses in the administration; the expulsion of the corrupt from office; the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority and independence to the Executive and Judiciary; the subordination of the military to the civil rule, to the end that the usurpation of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8th. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the due respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the obsolete doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted a military seizures, and arrests, and military trials, and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph office, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war.—It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution.

And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled, exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of coequal States.

And that we regard the Reconstruction Acts (so called) of Congress, as such, as usurpations and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, or sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the People, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this Platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brethren.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary!

ESTABLISHED IN 1854, 616 Kearney Street corner Commercial, San Francisco

For the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases' such as gonorrhoea, gleet, triture, syphilis in all its forms, seminal weakness, impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing,) and Ulcerated legs successfully treated

HORRIBLE DISEASES.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of horrible, life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended Doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Syphilis is syphilis the world over; so is small pox, consumption and other diseases, to be contrary of what quacks may say.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Seminal weakness is the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunt intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania, and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by this new and scientific mode of treating this complaint, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give $100 to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Dr. Gibbon is responsible, and will give each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for ten dollars sent in a registered letter through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON.
