ALL TO SMASH—Last Wednesday evening George Morehead, with two women, came over from Salem to see about bailing the prisoner, Charles Sutton, out of jail.

The animal reared, plunged forward and struck him down, leaving him insensible. They dashed down the street, and tore the fence down as they turned the corner towards Mr. Baldwin's. As they turned up Mill street at the next corner, the buggy upset, and with the woman entangled in the broken top, was dragged nearly the length of a square, when the horses were headed against the fence by the crowd, and stopped. The woman and team were not much injured, while Morehead and the buggy were pretty badly smashed up.

Next morning all damages had been sufficiently repaired to enable the parties to return to Salem. Morehead says that he lost about $1,500, in the melee! sed quere?

ERRATA.—A few mistakes crept into "Agricola's" article "on the State fair," which may as well be corrected here as elsewhere. In line 29th from bottom of 1st column, of that article as printed, the word "one" should be none. In line 8th from top of 2nd column, "give" should be crave. In line 57 from top of 2nd column, is should be supplied between "man" and "on nipresent." In line 16th from top of 3rd column, "and" should be omitted. In line 21st from top of 3rd column, "operations" should be observations.

Barman Bros. are undaunted by the late election news—in fact they have added new attractions to their fashionable clothing establishment on Commercial st. Salem.

J. H. Lewis has gone below for new goods. Be ready to purchase on his return, for he will have just what everybody needs, to sell low.

At Brown's brick we saw new goods being discharged from wagons the other day.

Buy drugs, medicines, paints, oils, &c. &c. from Frank Nichols.

Hon. L. F. Grover will speak in Dallas, on next Friday, at one o'clock. Hon. Jas. H. Slater, candidate for elector, will be here on that day and speak. We would urge upon Democrats and all others who desire to hear the truth, the importance of being here promptly on that day. Mr. Grover is a splendid speaker, while it is said that Mr. Slater has few equals on the coast. Turn out.

Hon. John Stiles, brother of Messrs. S. C. and G. B. Stiles, of Dallas, was, on Tuesday last, elected to Congress from the Leahi District of Pennsylvania. Like his brothers here, Mr. Stiles is a simon-pure Democrat.

The dispatches give an account of a republican procession four miles long and composed of four thousand loillists being late y frido into and dispersed in Nashville Tenn, by a few Democrats. A brave set of scoundrels, these Tennessee rads.

How often do we hear the complaint from mother and father that their son or daughter is not well; they have no appetite; they feel languid; their head aches; they are growing thin and feeble and they have no life or energy left. That they are low-spirited, and perfectly incapacitated to participate in any pleasures, or perform any mental or physical duty. And the question is often asked, what shall I do for them? or what shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try PLANTATION BITTERS three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.—Gazette.
