[From our Extra of Tuesday.]

YESTERDAY MORNING at about the hour of seven o'clock, Sheriff J. W. Smith had a wagon driven to the front of the jail for the purpose of taking Charles Sutton on board preparatory to starting to Salem to deliver him into the custody of the State Prison authorities in pursuance of his sentence pronounced by Judge Boise on Saturday preceeding. Mr. Berry Riggs was seated in the vehicle as the driver. A shot gun, heavily charged with buck-shot, lay on the bottom of the wagon, muzzle pointing to the rear. Thos. Smith, brother of the Sheriff, and William E. Glaze had been summoned to assist in removing the prisoner to Salem. The prisoner was brought out by the Sheriff while Messrs. Smith and Glaze stood behind the wagon. At the moment the prisoner approached the wagon and made a pass toward mounting the same, the shot gun aforesaid was accidentally discharged—the whole charge—24 buck-shot—passing through the tail gate of the wagon, and numerous shot taking effect in the bodies and limbs of Messrs. Smith and Glaze.

Mr. Glaze is wounded in the shoulder, thigh and abdomen. Mr. Smith was hit in various places about the body, head and arms. None of his wounds however are deemed serious. A shot passed through his right arm fracturing the bone and lodging in the opposite side. Drs. Sites and Jessup were immediately called, who came promptly and did all in their power to assuage the sufferings of the victims of the sad accident. Young Glaze's wounds being deemed of a very serious character, Dr. J. W. McAfee of Salem was sent for and arrived in Dallas sometime in the afternoon. Upon careful examination of the wound in the abdomen the condition of young Glaze was pronounced critical.

Dr. McAfee will return to-morrow, when, assisted by Dr. Sites, an effort will be made to extract the ball from the abdominal wound as also the one lodged in the shoulder.

PLANTATION BITTERS combine rare medicinal virtues with a delicious aroma, and a flavor grateful to the palate. It is purely vegetable and in its composition all the requisites of science have been complied with. It is suitable for all ages and sexes. It gentle, stimulating and soothing. All dyspeptic disorders are cured by it, and it repairs and restores nature's wasted powers. Plantation Bitters are increasing daily with all classes. It relievs suffering renders life a luxury, brightens the present and throws hopeful light on the future.

From Tuesday's Extra.

DECEASED.—Mrs. Hubbard, who has lingered in great agony for near three weeks from the effects of the burns she received from her clothes taking fire, and who was brought to this place soon after the occurrence of the accident for the greater convenience of medical treatment, expired last night between eight and nine oclock. The body will be removed to Bridgeport today for interment.

Deceased indured her protracted and intense suffering with great fortitude throughout. The location and nature of her injuries made it necessary for her to lie on her face during the trying period of her illness, which must have contributed materially to the aggravation of her distress. Her trials are over now. Her soul mingles in the Spirit Land, while her body—only clay—lies cold and calm in death. A babe, less than four months old, is left, probably never, in its childhood days, to know a mother's kindness.

IN LIMBO.—The man Greenwood, who swore so positively that he was with Charles Sutton in Corvallis, indulging in sundry potations, at about the hour when the attempt was being made to rob Messrs. Vanduyn & Sommerville's store at Independence, fell into the meshes of the law yesterday morning at Salem charged with shooting at policeman Coffey during the night previous.

A Protracted meeting under the auspices of the M. E. Church South is in progress in Dallas. Numerous Reverend celebrities are here from abroad.

The wounded young men, Messrs Glaze and Smith, are recovering.
