Mr. C. W. Von Peper was in town Saturday.

Uncle Tom Norris paid us a pleasant visit Wednesday.

We refer our readers to Legum's interesting letter on our first page.

The inaugural ball at Marshfield was well attended and immensely enjoyed.

S. M. Dement gives notice that he will soon have a lot of Short-horn calves for sale.

Messrs. Jas. Aiken and Dr. G. D. Elgin spent several days in town last week.

J. W. Curman has a number of thoroughbred Merino sheep for sale, at Denmark.

Our thanks are due our Dora correspondent. Send us some items again.

R. C. Dement is offering his splendid stock ranches on South Coquille for sale.

Levi Snyder will, the coming week, assume command of the steamer Little Annie, a position from which he retired some months ago.

The new road to Fairview needs some bridges. It is said that women have to walk and lead their horses in two or three places. This should be attended to.

The law compelling a lot to register before exercising the elective franchise will do little, or no good, in this part of the state; but in many parts it will have a good effect.

A Gromi paid us a pleasant visit Wednesday. He informs us that he will assume charge of the Golden Beach hotel at Bandon. Mr. G. is a rustler and we wish him great success.

Hereafter, it is likely that the borrower of money in this state will have to pay the taxes on the same. The legislature has declared it legal, and lenders will doubtless demand it.

Each of our hotels has a barber shop attached. Mr. Edmunds, late of Iowa, at the Robinson house; and Mr. Wright, of Kiddle station, at the Olive hotel. They are both spoken of as excellent artists.

Dr. Angell and Mr. B. Vowel have built a good, substantial walk from Front to Second street on the line of the county road—a much needed improvement. Since the cost must have been considerable, they are specially deserving.

The inaugural ball here was a pleasant affair, though not as largely attended as was expected. Among the number present, and who have grown from gray to white in the service of their cause we noticed Messrs Capt. Harris, Thos. Norris, sr., and Wm. Mast.

Our subscribers who are in arrears for the HERALD must pay up. We hate to be at the necessity of asking this, but we are owing and must pay. Give this your earliest attention. Economy has been our motto, thinking we could get along without calling on you; and you should remember our leniency in the past, and send us some money, now that we are in urgent need.

Remember the band's entertainment here Saturday night.

Charley Phillips was in town Sunday.

Mr. T. R. Willard during the past week has put up a nice little dwelling for James Luddy near this office.

The Recorder pays Mr. A. Wirth the highest compliment, and says he gave all gospel measure in delivering fruit trees.

It is time to begin efforts to raise products for exhibition at our coming fair. We understand that liberal premiums will be given.

Mr. Carother's dwelling which is nearing completion, is a model of neatness and for comfort the arrangement cannot be excelled.

The new provision in the school law allowing $50 to each district before proceeding to apportion according to population, is good and will help out the sparsely settled districts; but some of the populous ones will squeal.

Anyone in possession of knowledge of beet culture will please let us hear from them. An effort will be made here the coming season to give this a fair test. Information as to best variety, etc., will be very thankfully received.

Dora Dottings.

Ed: HERALD:—Thinking the many readers of the Herald would like to hear from the district of Dora, I send the following: Everybody seems happy and farmers have been brightening up their plows preparatory to putting in a crop of which we are sure since we never have a failure.

J. H. Mimard's sawmill is running on full time, turning out some good lumber, several rafts of which have been floated down East fork with good success.

Mr. Young recently drove over the road here 115 head of young cattle which he had gathered up on the Coquille and its tributaries, and which he takes to Oakland.

J. P. Stember has the finest crop of fall-sown wheat in the county.

J. Asbery and J. Humbert with their families are soon to settle on what is known as Elk creek. All tillable lands are being settled, here as elsewhere in our splendid climate.

P. Coke has bought J. D. Weekly's land on Elk creek.

Two of Elder Edmund's sons passed here a few days ago en route to Fishtrap to see their father. They seemed favorably impressed with this country. They report 18 inches of snow in Iowa.

Taylor Weekly is building a fine house on his place 5 miles southwest of Dora.

Our roads are very bad, but we hope for a grand change for the better, as we have a robust man at the helm this year.

Be Ready.

Dora, Feb. 26.

D. M. Ferry & Co.

D. M. Ferry & Co., seedsmen, of Detroit, Mich., have kindly sent us their Seed Annual for 1885. It is one of the most artistic publications ever issued by any seed house. It has been very carefully revised, and is more valuable than ever before. The flower seed department is especially valuable, as they have taken the utmost care to insure correctness as regards names, classifications, descriptions and cultural directions. Their facilities for filling promptly and satisfactorily all orders entrusted to them are unsurpassed by any house in the country; and their long established reputation is an absolute guarantee as to the quality of seed used. Their Seed Annual is sent free on application.

Norway Notes.

Ed HERALD: Having a little leisure I shall jot you a few items.

It is beautiful weather and farmers are plowing and putting in their crops. I learn that Mr. Franklin is through seeding. Mr. Sam'l Barklow is picketing in his entire farm, and Mr. Haughton is grubbing and ridding his place of stumps. Mr. Halter is getting along splendidly with his tramway. Mr. Bartell is doing more labor than usual which is accounted for by the arrival of a 13 pound boy. Mr. Hodson has near 20 pannels of fence staked, and only for a visit to Coos river would probably have had as much more by this time.

A social dance was had at this place a few evenings since, and all enjoyed themselves immensely. Father Anline took a dance with mother while Willis held the baby. No weddings have occurred here lately, though Jason was up lately trying to raise a dust.

Johnny and Mark have begun monkeying with Cupid, notwithstanding they are afflicted with roasted cotton behind the ears.

Mr. Jas. Russell and the "Red Fox" of Ohio have gone to the Siuselaw river.

Ned Nugens.

The Steamer Hume is expected to arrive at this place in about a week.

There is $121, already subscribed for the purpose of building the bridge across Hunters creek. Let the good work go on.

May-Day Races.—There is in prospect a half mile race to be run at Bandon beach on the first of May which promises to be interesting. J. P. Tupper's "Scottish Maid" and T. W. Crook's three year old are entered and it is expected that Asa Carman's "Maud M" and J. L. Nay's "Hebron" will take part in the exercises.

Capt. Cliff Campbell is again master of the steamer Comet.

The stave mill at this place is turning out 1000 nail kegs per day.
