Healthy Sleep.

I think we may safely say that every one requires six hours' sleep in the twenty-four, and very many men and women, not to mention fools, require even more.

A very important factor in securing healthy sleep is the kind of bed we lie upon. Feather beds I cannot commend; indeed, luxuries—and this is an undoubted one—are not to be sought by him whose aim is perfect health and strength.

If, then, you have taken care that your bed is very warm and comfortable, without either being oppressively warm or too soft, and your room be fully ventilated, and you can't sleep, what must be done?

turns up and down your room may assist you if you fail to discover any chilliness, pain, or discomfort as causing insomnia. For myself, I persistently think of nothing when I can not fall asleep.

The unusually large wheat crop of the current year and the consequent low and unsatisfactory prices obtained for it have caused many farmers of the North west to consider the advisability of diversifying their crops in order to secure more profitable returns.

On the 20th ult in the United States senate, on motion of Senator Plumb of Kansas, the appropriation for the cultivation of sorghum was increased from $20,000 to $50,000.

Professor Wiley of the United States Board of Agriculture stated on his recent visit to California that this State was capable of producing 700,000 tons of beetroot sugar per annum.

grants to the Sandwich island planters, there can hardly be a doubt. In 1830-31 the total production of beetroot sugar in Europe was 1,749,545 tons, and large importations of cane sugar were required to meet the consumption.

Generous John Kelly. If John Kelly has faults, he covers a multitude of them by his liberality, says a writer in the New York Mail and Express.

"I can't give you work, and I have no money," he said, as he stopped and shook hands with the man. "Oh, I'm sorry, boss," he replied.

Professor—"Does my question embarrass you?" "Not at all, sir," replied the student, "it is quite clear. It is the answer that both of us mo."
