LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Nelson of Bandon, was in town Friday.

J. B. Tichenor spent Wednesday in this place.

Will Lucas has moved to Mr. Joe Dame's place.

Mr. A. Peterson, of Halls creek, went to the beach Friday.

Our latest is that war will be immediately declared between England and Russia.

A disastrous flood has recently visited Fulton, Arkansas, destroying crops and other property.

Mr. Noah W. Leneve who has been on the bay for some time came over on a visit last week.

W. Sinclair, Harry Kribs and others from this place had a season of recreation on the beach last week.

Joshua Wright, says the Grants Pass Argus, is interested in a saw mill on Wagoner creek. Good for Joshua.

Mr. J. Walser, of Randolph, was in town Friday to see Dr. Angell, for his little boy, who has a healing in his head.

C. H. Volkmar, Esq., and his brother, Dr. J. M., and a host of other Pointers were passengers down on the Ceres Friday, en route to Bandon beach.

By an order the engineers on locomotives in the East have to be examined as to their qualifications of distinguishing colors. They threaten to strike.

Ho for Coos bay!—Our old friend, Fred Jarvis, has started up his stage running from this place to Utter City twice a day. See his ad in this paper.

Mr. G. R. Wickham who has been at work at Parker's mill returned home Thursday with a sore hand, the result of too close contact with a saw.

The May day dance at Bandon was a pleasant affair, and many from this place will long remember it. There were but few bees, but the fun was immense all the same.

Charley Elliott was in town yesterday and, we are pleased to state, has recovered the use of his arm which has been giving him a great deal of trouble for some time, the result of a fall.

A Melford, Jackson county man challenges Mr. Hume, owner of Maplewood, for a race, and is not particular about the price, so it is $1000 or upwards. It may be possible that Jackson county has as good a horse as Maplewood, but it will find no walk over to beat him, rest assured.

The new administration is making it warm for the pension agent, who has been disbursing pension money to the friends of pensioners deceased many years. Women who have been remarried many years, have been drawing their regular money, thus making their deceased husbands support live ones.

Our old friend Samuel Gillman called on us Friday and presented us with a jar of splendid wild honey. He found the quarters of two large hives of bees in a tree at his place below Beaver slough, from which he obtained 10 gallons of fine honey. Bees are hard up for homes when two hives have to occupy one tree.

On going home from the dance at Bandon the other night Mr. Tupper's hack which was going at very great speed collided with a stump which demolished things generally and bruised the occupants of the vehicle. Mr. Tupper was picked up for dead, but soon gave vent to the expression that he could whip any man in the crowd except a certain gentleman from Canada, this being the first intimation that life was not extinct.

R. Houghton, of Norway, was in town yesterday.

J. B. Hunt and family went to Bandon Sunday.

Mr. J. Hubbard, of this place, is suffering severely from neuralgia.

Dick Hayter was in town Sunday. He has our thanks for favors.

The Editor's excursion from Iowa will leave Council Bluffs June 9th, and will arrive at Portland about the 13th.

Mr. C. Lehnher and wife are again with their old Oregon friends, not having remained East as long as they anticipated.

Master Johnny Cartwright, a former typo in this office, returned from the beach Sunday, loaded down with fine clams.

Uncle Billy Benhan came in by the Fairview hack Saturday, and had a good time Sunday hobnobbing with his old friends here.

Our old friend Sam Belieu was in town Sunday. Sam is considerably under the weather this spring being laid up with a lame back.

A goodly number of persons arrive in this place daily by the steamers and stages. Travel has increased in the past few weeks wonderfully.

It is known that a Russian under pretence of buying furs at Victoria a month ago was a spy, and has returned home via San Francisco with drawings of fortifications, etc.

Public school opened here yesterday morning by Mr. W. Welsh and Miss Emma Clements. The chime of the school bell and the patter of youthful feet are pleasant sounds.

Miss Annie Clements who has been attending school in San Francisco for a long time, returned yesterday, and is visiting her sister Miss Emma, one of the teachers in our public school.

Sam Smith while visiting the beach with his family last Friday, had the misfortune to fall on the rocks and bruise both ankles very badly. He was scarcely able to stand on his feet when he passed up home.

Wm. Rowan, a brother of the Rowan boys on Fishtrap creek, arrived by steamer Coos Bay last Saturday, from the Lone Star state. The Herald boys, of whom he is an old acquaintance, acknowledge a pleasant call.

Eld. J. P. Easter will preach on the subject of the 4th commandment, or 7th day sabbath, next Sunday at half past 10 o'clock, and show why we are not to observe it. Eld. J. C. Bunch will review his sermon at 3 o'clock p. m.

James Barklow who has for several years been attending college at Eugene City, passed through town Sunday en route to Bear creek where he is to have charge of the public school this season. He was accompanied by our friend, Jasen Randleman.

Work has been commenced on the new mill of A. Pershbaker, below Randolph. We understand that it is to be pushed forward as fast as possible in order to get off considerable lumber on the first of the lumber boom, which is expected to follow the past year's depression.

Indications are good for another long dry spell of weather—an unusual thing for our dry season to set in as early as the 20th of February. All were sure that April would bring us plenty of rain, but the amount was small and May seems to be going to prove equally as dry. Any other part of the world would dry up with as little rain as we have here during the spring, summer and fall season.

OUR NEIGHBORS.
 [Coos Bay News.]

The young fruit is being devoured in the Coos river orchards by large flocks of pigeons.

Great Uneasiness Felt.

Berlin, April 27.—The National Zeitung mentions a rumor to the effect that the Czar has written to Emperor William that the chances for peace have diminished. Several German papers have rumors that another conflict has taken place in Afghanistan. There is much public uneasiness in the absence of further news from General Komaroff.

Crawford & Wilbur, a new and energetic firm, at Port Orford seem to be a present salvation for Curry county.

Everything that they can possibly turn their hands to that will give employment to the people, is put into active operation. Cutting cordwood and matchwood are two of the industries they have started up. A few firms like theirs would help out Coos county wonderfully.
