Empire people talk of leveling the street on the hill for a race course for the 4th of July.

N. W. Leneve's oldest child has been very sick for several days, but is now getting well.

Mr. T. J. Perkins who carries the boss electric appliances leaves for the bay this morning.

Mr. J. H. Minard has received his grist mill at the East fork mills and is preparing to make flour.

The land contest between J. Quick and W. J. Barr has been decided in favor of the former.

A railroad section boss was shot in the legs by a discharged Chinaman at La Grande on the 16th inst.

Charley Moon has returned to his home on North fork, after a two-years absence on Puget Sound.

The Roseburg Plaindealer gives a novel way of enlarging a house, which consists in taking out "petitions."

Cunningham and Burton, two alleged dynamiters, were sentenced to penal seriotude for life by Judge Hawkins, in London, on the 18th inst.

Ho for Coos bay!—Our old friend, Fred Jarvis, has started up his stage running from this place to Utter City twice a day. See his ad in this paper. n37tf

The Hubbard creek mills, near Port Orford, are about ready to start up. Louie Knapp and Fred Olsen are the new managers, which insures its being pushed.

James Laird the proprietor of the Coos bay and Roseburg stage line, and P. Drane of the Fairview and Coquille route, have the thanks of the local board of immigration for franking their circulars over their routes.

The Coos Bay and Roseburg road is in better condition this spring than usual, Mr. Laird having done a great deal of work on the road. When you wish to visit the interior of Oregon, you can save time by going with him.

Master Guy Drew, who is making his home with Mr. Paxson on Cunningham creek, came near dying last Saturday night from eating what he thought to be water-cress. He was insensible to taste and feeling when Dr. Easter arrived, and the least thing would throw him into convulsions. The Dr. was just in time. At last accounts the boy was about well.

Mr. Lease Mast, an aged gentleman living near Fairview, was found dead in his bed last Saturday morning, having died, it is supposed, from asthma. He had a severe cold and had been afflicted with that disease and it is safe to say that was the cause of his death. He was heard coughing about midnight, and when found it was evident that he had raised up, and failing to get relief, fell over and expired.

Mrs. D. W. Wagoner was in town yesterday.

Frank Ross and son George were in town yesterday.

F. M. Jackson, of Randolph, was in town Thursday.

M. P. Whitington, a model farmer of South Coquille, was in town last week en route to the bay.

Mr. W. L. Laird accompanied by his brother J. C. Laird and W. Norris made this office a pleasant call Saturday.

Miss Annie Chlemens, a practical Dress maker, will ply her vocation at her rooms at the Olive Hotel. Give her your orders.

See Dr. Thompson's card in another column. He comes well recommended as a first class dentist. Give him your order.

James Cartwright returned Sunday from Salem where he had been as a delegate to the grand lodge of I. O. O. F. of Oregon.

A strawberry husking was held at Charley Sutton's, on Cherry creek some days ago. A badly "chawed" neck is reported.

The excursion and ball at the beach by the band was the grandest affair of the season. It was a success in every particular.

Several delegates from the Baptist association visited Eld. Canterbury of this place yesterday, having come this way to get a look at the country.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Anderson have been in town several days lately visiting their daughter Mrs. J. W. Nosler who is sorely afflicted with inflamatory rheumatism.

M. L. Randleman and wife, J. Quick, Jasen Randleman, and J. L. Offield, from the lower river, attended the Baptist association at Sumner; and J. C. Cannerbury and family, Mrs. John Offield and Mr. Cawlfield's folks from Cunningham creek.

We have been requested to ask those who remonstrated against the road up the river bank connecting at H. Clemens' place with Banbon road and leading to Green Point and Coquille City, to take the lead in securing the desired rood, on the foot-hills. The former petitioners promise their assistance.

Three of the Cawlfield boys from Pueblo, Col., arrived here last week accompanied by Master Stonewall Cawlfield of Roseburg. The former are sons of the two Mr. Cawlfields who visited their father Uncle Owen Cawlfield on Cunningham creek, last Summer. The boys are looking at this part of the country with a view to settling, and are receiving due courtesy from their uncle, G. T. Cawlfield and cousin Lewis Siminons. It is to be hoped that they will find suitable locations, for they seem to be jolly good boys.

J. M.—called on us last Saturday eve
Just from busy care and strife;
A long brown hair hung on his new coat sleeve,
But please don't tell his wife.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

[Gold Beach Gazette.]

There has been some improvement in the run of fish, but not enough to blow about.

Will and Frank Batley last Thursday, drove forty-five head of cattle down the coast, having sold them to Mr. Tryon, owner of the old Creswell ranch.

A race has been made up by the Chetco and Smith Riverites, to take place at Smith River on the Fourth of July, free for all three-year-old Woodbury colts, so we learn. Entrance fee $50. Four entries have already been made.

The schooner Laura is sealing off the Curry county coast.

[Southwestern Oregon Recorder.]

A. M. Gillespie has gone to San Francisco. He will bring up a vessel loaded with goods for the Association and will give her a return cargo of cord wood.

Joe Nay and Mr. Crook had an impromptu horse race here Saturday. Maud M., Mr. Nay's mare, beat the horse a little. They are both Woodbury's and are both darlings too. A race for coin will probably grow out of it.

Mr. Frank Wyland, who lives up in Clark & Dwyer's country, last week killed four bears which had been getting wool in their teeth too frequently to be pleasant or profitable to flockowners. It is to be regretted that the county court did not adopt the bounty law at its last session as it would stimulate effort in the direction of the extermination of this and every other class of varmints. In the absence of a county bounty, somebody should give Frank a medal.

That Rarest of Combinations.

True delicacy of flavor with true efficacy of action has been attained in the famous California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects have rendered it immensely popular. Sample bottles free sale by W. L. Dixon Myrtle Point J. H. Nosler Coquille City, H. Sengstacken Marshfield & Empire.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co. San Francisco Cal. Nature's Own True Laxative. This pleasant liquid fruit remedy may be had of Mr. W. L. Dixon agent Myrtle Point, J. H. Nosler, agent Coquille City, Henry Sengstacken agent for Marshfield & Empire, Sample bottles free, and large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar. It is the most pleasant, prompt and effective remedy known, to cleanse the system; to act on the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels gently yet thoroughly, to dispel Headaches, Colds and Fevers; to cure Constipation, Indigestion and kindred ills.

Self-Preservation is the First Law of Nature.

There are two sides to the picture presented above, and there is a mean level, also—a neutral zone, far better defined and more conducive to harmony than the Russian and Afghan imbroglio, upon which we may meet and take counsel together. If merchants do not settle their bills promptly, their credit is impaired and their standing reported throughout the district in which they transact business. Result—High interest or high prices to offset risk, or no goods without cash in advance. The consequence inseparable from a loose system in relation to debtor and creditor is that the merchant becomes crippled, and is unable to remonstrate with those from whom he buys, should they overcharge him. He cannot sell to his customers at bottom prices and cannot compete with merchants who pay their bills promptly. Now, I am willing to give my friends and customers all the time possible, but, I must pay my bills to enable me to compete successfully with moneyed opposition, and give my customers the advantage of low prices; consequently, I am OBLIGED to collect, and all accounts over due will be placed in the hands of an attorney for settlement.

Geo. McEwan.

Coquille City May 26.

Harry Bettys of Fairview, had the misfortune to chop his thumb off one day last week. A particle of skin was still holding and the thumb was splintered by Dr. Leneve last Saturday with the hopes of saving that member.

While Mr. Palaska was visiting the beach last week, some one entered his house and took a lot of bed clothes, etc. The premises were in charge of Messrs. Hite and Norris, and while they have no direct evidence pointing to the perpetrator, suspicion rests on a certain individual who was seen in that vicinity about that time, and he is being watched and will be sent up first opportunity.

Snow Storm.

Vienna, May 17.—A terrible snow storm is prevailing throughout Austria and Hungary. Numbers of persons have been frozen to death, and the crops generally have been destroyed.
