Remember the Parkesburg's freight rates, and that she will be back here in a short time.

The Parkersburg and Truckee sailed from this river on the 16th and the Ruby on the 11th.

The engineer's report recommends $160,000 for Coos bay, and $75,000 for the Coquille river.

Johnny Nelson, T. J. Patty's step-son arrived from Utah a few days ago. He is immensely pleased with this part.

Those having congress memorials asking for an appropriation for the mouth of the Coquille will please return them to this office at once.

Uncle Sam Dement, whose death is announced in another column, will be brought home for burial. His wife failed to reach him before he died.

Lloyd Spires, of North fork, was in town last week and made us a pleasant call. He is from Sonoma county, Cal., and has come to stay.

Senator Siglin is working like a beaver to secure the passage of a bill regulating the sale of and suppression of smoking of opium—a worthy measure.

Jas. A. Belieu, who moved to Myrtle Point a few days ago from his stock ranch near Enchanted prairie, had the misfortune to have his house and its contents burned the other day.

The Truckee, Capt. Baker, will return immediately to this place from the city. The Capt. sends word that he will carry freight as cheap as any vessel, and requests that orders be in on time.

The Olive hotel has been put in apple-pie order. The sleeping apartments are second to that of no other house in the county, and the table is supplied with the best of everything to be found in the market. When in town call on the new landlord.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla thoroughly cleanses the blood, stimulates the vital functions, and restores health and strength. No one whose blood is impure can feel well. When you are discouraged and despondent take Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify and vitalize the blood.

We take pleasure in recommending Hall's Hair Renewer to our readers. It restores gray hair to its youthful color, prevents baldness, makes the hair soft and glossy, does not stain the skin, and is the best known remedy for hair and scalp diseases.

Mr. Dennis Bayan organized a lodge of the order of the Red Cross at this place last Thursday, with a charter membership of 32. This is the first lodge of this kind in the state, and the order being a good one, a good lodge will be had. Officers given next week.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Observances of the Manabout town

NO ICE.—Thus far this season we have seen but three very slight frosts, and no ice.

WELL DONE.—We had the pleasure of sampling a new sidewalk in front of Mr. T. A. Walker's place, on Second street, and as the walk "justifies" with the rest of the walk along that block, we are sure that more than one will give inward utterance to the scriptural passage "well done good and faithful (public) servant." Could a few street crossings now be put down at near points, there would be less danger from miring when navigating that part town.

A PUFF.—The wind on last Tuesday gave our lovely little burg an airing, that made old tin cans and loose boards rattle all sorts, and the flagstaff sunk to rest across the street. But we heard of no serious damage.

TOO MUCH.—That unbridged quagmire at the lower crossing of Main street would do no discredit to a Florida everglade, and as the man about town is obliged to wade it every time he goes from the hotel to the saloon, or do without his regular appetizer, he hopes the city fathers will either make a boat or put in a crossing, before we become desperate and join the temperance society.

BE CAREFUL.—As we were attempting to cross that lagoon known as Second street, we missed the fragment of old fence board which the editor of the HERALD had probably stolen from somebody's woodpile and laid on the worst place he could find in front of his office, as a kind of signal where to make the attempt. Though we succeeded in getting out, and finally entirely across to the office, the habitual sunshine was gone from our heart, the high toned squeak to our boots as well as the ten cent polish we had just put on. We were at a loss to guess how the editor and his help got there as they live on another slough, but seeing a lot of long legged gum boots in the room the mystery was solved. Persons who are obliged to cross the foot of Taylor street are notified that those pieces of old fence board that are thrown in between the sidewalk, mark the safest place to make the crossing. Of course we are not so foolish as to suppose that any attempt at putting in street crossings will be made, till some of the city fathers get mired and have to lay in the mud all night.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—The Olive House has again changed hands, and Mr. James Cartwright becomes the landlord till further notice. Mr. Aiken who has catered to the public so long and well, removes to his fine house on Hall street. As Mrs. Cartwright will superintend the culinary department in person, and as Mrs C. is no green hand in this department, the public can rest assured that the reputation of this first-class house will not be allowed to fall below par, as this house has been lately refitted and furnished. Its appointments are all first class in every respect. The public will find this to be in the future what it has always been in the past, a favorite resort.

Roseburg Correspondence.

ED. HERALD:—Yesterday, Wednesday, at 1 o'clock P. M. the glad tiding was received in this city that Hon. J. H. Mitchell, the people's candidate, had been elected U. S. Senator by a majority of 9 on joint ballot. He received 31 republican and 17 democratic votes. The democrats who voted for Mitchell were—Senate, Burch from Yamhill and Siglin from Coos and Curry—House, Beale, Black, Chandler, Craven, Cyrus, Hayes, Leinenweber, Lewis, Miller, Montayne, Morrow, Perry, Porter, Shelton and Watts. God bless those seventeen noble manly men. Any sensible person can tell what they have done for their party—the future will tell. Last evening was one of rejoicing in Roseburg. All political parties joined in the ratification. Firing anvils, bands playing and speeches at the court-house. The following gentlemen spoke: Hon. Binger Hermann, Judge Mosher, W. F. Benjamin and D. S. K. Buick.

Oregon is well represented with J. H. Mitchell in the senate and Binger Hermann in the lower house. I don't know how Portland will make it with Dolph.

3.09 inches of rain fell here on the 7th. The river was two feet higher on the 8th, than it was at any time last winter. 7.16 inches of rain has fallen since the first of the month, and it has the appearance of more rain in the near future.

There is but one feeling here: Hurrah for Mitchell and d. d. d. down with Scott.

Hon. Binger Hermann will leave for Washington accompanied by his family Saturday, the 21st. He will be absent until next August. His family will return in about two months.

The "Reform Club" is in good sailing trim; a good and worthy master at the wheel, and surrounded by a true and jolly crew. Prof. Horner and J. B. Tichenor addressed the society last Tuesday evening.

The "Roseburg Review" appears every Friday morning chuck full of good reading matter. It is a large eight column paper ably edited and well printed. Mr. Bell has a complete office, and prints all of his paper in his own establishment. Success to the "Review!"

Legislative Work.

Salem, Nov. 17, '85.

ED. HERALD:—I know that it will be a satisfaction to many of my constituents to know that a strong effort is now being made to have certain swamp and overflowed lands forfeited to this state. The following is the substance of the bill:

All swamp and overflowed lands upon which the filings do not strictly comply with the provisions of the acts of the legislative assembly, approved, respectively, Oct. 26th, 1870 and Oct. 18th, 1878; and all swamp and overflowed lands which have not been paid for or reclaimed in accordance with the provisions of the above mentioned acts, whether the filings upon the same have been regularly made or not, shall be forfeited. The bill also provides that the lands thus forfeited, shall be sold in the quantities and upon the terms provided in the act of Oct. 18, 1878, and that actual settlers upon any of such lands shall have the first and exclusive right to purchase the same, one year's time being given such settlers to make their application for the same. It also provides that the district attorneys of the several judicial districts of this state where lands forfeited by this act are situated, to proceed in the name of the state to recover to the state the possession of such lands, and to report their proceedings under this act to the board of commissioners for the sale of school and university lands. Believing that the people in many parts of the state, and more particularly that part, I have the honor to represent, will be greatly benefited by the enactment of such a law, makes it a pleasant duty for me to do all in my power to secure the same to them. But there are those among us that will use their money and influence to defeat the bill. I refer to the swamp land sharks and their pliant tools. We may not be able to get this measure though at this short session, but it will and must win eventually, if the people properly guard their interest in this and other important legislative matters in the future. The clerical errors of the regular session have been corrected. The Keady bill regulating the sale of spiritous liquors, can be relied on now as having a penalty. Senator Siglin introduced a bill admitting women to the law practice in this state. It has passed both houses, and only lacks the governor's signature, to become a law. The contest for senatorial honors have narrowed down to Mitchell and G. H. Williams with the chances large in favor of Mitchell. Southern Oregon is solid for John H. Mitchell and his friends in the legislature, expect to speak of him as U. S. Senator for the great and growing state of Oregon before the present week closes.

Yours Truly,

J. H. Roberts.

SAMMY TILDEN HEARD FROM!

His Owner and Friends Accept the Challenge of Grey Dan.

ED. HERALD:—I see in your paper published to-day, a challenge from Mr. McKeney, to run Grey Dan against Sammy Tilden for one thousand dollars a side. My self and some of the friends of Sammy Tilden accept the challenge provided that Tilden is entirely recovered from the distemper of which he is now having a very severe spell. We will name the distance to be run, one mile; the place, Halls prairie, Coos county, Oregon, on S. W. O. A. society's track, and the time, April first, 1886. If Mr. McKeney means business, we require him to deposit five hundred dollars with T. R. Sheridan at Roseburg on or before Dec. 25, or with J. H. Schroeder at Halls prairie on or before Jan. 1st; and we will deposit the same amount with Fred Schetter at Empire City, or with J. H. Schroeder on the same dates; the above amount to be considered as forfeit. The race to be run according to rule.

Jas. Aiken, owner & proprietor Sammy Tilden.

Jesse Norton,
J. D. Garfield,
Fred Jarvis,
And many friends of Tilden.

MARRIED.

At Fairview, November 16, by J. S. Masters, J. P., H. J. Blake to Miss Sara Stienon.

BORN.

At Port Orford, November 5, to the wife of H. McBride, a daughter.

In Marshfield, November 16, to the wife of Dr. C. W. Tower, a son.

At Newport, November 16, to the wife of John T. Davis, a son.

DIED.

In Coquille City November 17, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Rose, of Randolph.

This was a sweet little bud of 7 months, and the parents have the sympathy of the whole community.

At Civil Bend, Douglas county, November 10, Charley Arrington, aged 21 years.

Charley was the son of Uncle J. M. Arrington, one of Douglas' best citizens, and was a noble young man.

At his home at the mouth of Sixes river, Nov. 9, Edward Wilson, aged seventy-five years.

At Fall Brook, San Diego county, California, November 15, Mr. S. M. Dement, of South Coquille.

Mr. Dement was an early pioneer to this river, and was one of this earth's noblemen. He was known and his sterling worth appreciated by the whole county. Progressive, and liberal, even to a fault. We can all truly say that we are better for having lived within the bounds of this good man's influence. He will be sadly missed in the county, and especially in the vicinity of Cliff Ranch, his magnificent country home.
