

CHURCH DIRECTORY.
Methodist services, by Rev. T. P. Haynes are held as follows:
First Sabbath at North Fork 11 A. M.
2nd " " Lampy creek " "
3rd " " Fish Trap " "
4th " " Coquille City " "

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. Hughes moved into town last week.

J. J. Lamb, wife and daughter came over from the bay Friday.

Mr. G. W. Stevenson of Fairview spent Saturday night in town.

Mr. J. Walser and family, of Randolph, were in town Wednesday.

Joseph Laird, of Myrtle Point, made this office a pleasant call one day last week.

Mr. H. W. Holverstott of Fairview, made us a pleasant call Wednesday evening.

We notice commendable efforts in cleaning up the streets in this place. Let the good work go on.

Our city laws, given in Saturday's HERALD extra, are in full force. Govern yourself accordingly.

Mr. Brown will not pay the license fixed by our city dads. This leaves Coquille City without a saloon.

Chas. A. Metlin is carrying the mail between this place and Fairview, he having bought W. Rose's contract.

Miss Annie Clemens arrived in town Saturday evening from Marshfield, and is visiting her many friends.

Canada wants the state of Maine. In case of annexation, some miscreant wants to know if it would include Blaine.

Hon. J. H. Roberts returned from the state capital Friday, and enjoyed our town on Saturday by his presence.

A collision of two trains on the Northern Pacific near Missoula on the 27th ult. resulted in the death of seven persons.

The gardens in this town remind one of early summer. Bean, tomato, pea, and potato vines are knee high and in full bloom.

Elbert Dyer returned to his home on the bay Saturday. Elbert is an exemplary young man, and we hope he may soon return to our town and make it his home.

Mrs. O. Nelson, Mr. Edward Fahy and sister, and others whose names we did not learn, came up from Bandon Friday, to attend the funeral of Charley Barrows. They returned yesterday.

Tone up the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Thousands have found health and relief from suffering by the use of this great blood purifier, when all other means failed.

Mr. Hughes, late of Ten Mile, Douglas county, is having a blacksmith shop erected in this place on J. A. Collier's land west of Whitney & O'Connell's store. Mr. Hughes formerly worked for the big mill company at Empire and is said to be a good workman.

Mr. McEwan, Wells Fargo's express agent at this place, has received some fine posters announcing that the company will soon establish a money order system in their business. It will be similar to that of the postoffice, but the charges will be a trifle smaller.

J. A. Simon, our justice of the peace, has our thanks for a fine lot of new potatoes; some that had grown from seed left in the ground after digging in the early fall. The tubers were about the size of hen's eggs, and were very tender and sappy, but would in all probability have been more than double the size, and of better flavor in the course of a month.

The wreck of a schooner was seen off the mouth of the New river last week, by the mail carrier. She was about three miles offshore and still carried one mast. The steamer Oregon on her down trip last week, from Portland, discovered a wreck off Humboldt bay, seemingly that of a schooner up side down. This might be the same, only lying in a different position.

Mr. O. L. Leneve, of Bandon is visiting friends here. He is accompanied by Mr. Mars.

See Mrs. Erickson's new ad. She offers one of the best places of its size in Coos county at a bargain.

Wm. Briggs shot Newt Yoakum in the neck, at Canyonville. The latter will survive and the former has been acquitted.

John Epperson came over from Sumner on Sunday for Dr. Downing for some sick person, but just who we did not learn.

G. McEwan is expecting a large and fine lot of lamps direct from the makers in the East. Glass Lamps and Hanging Lamps.

An attache of this office found a pair of long handled kid gloves the other day which the owner can have by proving property and doing the osculatory.

The Olive hotel, Coquille City, is daily gaining in popularity. It is the verdict of commercial men that it is the best hotel in Southern Oregon. When visiting Coquille City, give this popular house a trial.

Jas. Cartwright, Prop.

J. F. Noyes has a splendid lot of choice fruit trees of all kinds at his nursery near Myrtle Point. He is a reliable man; his trees will be true to name and they comprise all the choice varieties. See his ad.

The republicans have decided it will be best to let a democrat succeed Hendricks, and have issued a circular to all members to that effect. Lagon is favorable to it. The motives given, show that a political party may yet possess magnanimity.

Forty years' experience, in every clime, has proved Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to be the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs, and lung diseases. Colds should not be neglected. The Pectoral will prevent their becoming deep-seated in the system.

Chas. Barrows, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barrows, died at his home on Iowa slough, last Thursday night. Charley was nearly twenty years of age, and was a bright and pleasant young man. His funeral took place here on Saturday, a host of friends from different parts attesting their warm friendship by their attendance.

Billy Rose, since he sold out his mail contract has formed a co-partnership with Joseph Johnson in the butchering and market business. Both being industrious, and deserving young men, it is to be hoped they will succeed beyond their more sanguine expectations. Their shop is between Lyon's store and the postoffice, and they keep constantly a fine assortment of fresh and choice meats.

Mr. E. F. Cook, of Marshfield, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday getting a sketch of our young city which is to appear in the immigration hand book if sufficient means can be raised to have it lithographed. The picture, taken from the belfry of our splendid school building, is grand. If there is a building in town this side of the school house which does not show up, we were unable to discover it. It shows the hills from Fishtrap to Strang's place, and the river bottom opposite town. Mr. Cook is an excellent artist and if you should see the picture you would have it at any cost.

Mr. Charles Shackelford for the government, and Mr. Frank Abernathy for the state arrived in town yesterday evening, for the purpose of inspecting the so-called swamp land on this river. It is too bad that they should arrive just on the heels of a freshet. The land that is claimed as swamp here is dry for seven or eight months in the year and is capable of producing enormous crops of most any farm products, and cattle graze on it all the year except times of freshets. At the present time there is water standing on a great deal of the land which produced wheat last summer. The mountain road over which the agents came, and some streets in this place are swamp if we have any.

Items and Correspondence from Saturday's Extra.

SHOT, ACCIDENTALLY.—Frank Hunt while on one of the steamers up the river the other day had the misfortune to have his great toe shot centrally through. He set the muzzle of a rifle on his boot and holding the other end under his arm while examining another gun, and one of his brothers in passing him caught the hammer of the rifle in his sleeve. Thus the gun was discharged and the ball passed through his boot and foot, and went into the deck of the steamer. He is getting along nicely, but has a very sore foot.

LYONS ON THE WAR PATH.—Mr. Lyons' new store at the old Carothers stand has cut the prices of goods to a very alarming extent. Call and get his prices. He has a new and a choice lot of goods coming which will be here next week.

New and beautiful toys arrived on the steamer Coos Bay for Nosler's daughter, and more are en route. Call and purchase something for your little ones for the holidays.

Town Slough Items.

Lots of rain; Hiu skookum chuck!

All out door amusements busted. Too wet for croquet; too soft for croquet; too soft for tennis; good time to make mashes.

The Barrows family have located on the slough. The boys make a valuable addition to our string band (they are about all of it in fact). They also play a loud harmony in the shot-gun band.

Some of our neighbors have expanded their wings in their annual migratory flight to Coquille City. We didn't cry at the separation. We did that for 14 years, but it got kinder old, finally.

The Noslers have moved into their new house. The house is storm proof. It has a stern stay-sail, jib-booms, lighting rods, anchors, mairtain gails and spanners, and a good deal of other rigging that no body knows the nature of.

Brother Barker has moved into the settlement and brought children with him to help our school amazingly.

Mr. Charles Peterson will soon begin the erection of a fine residence. That is right Charley; nothing helps the appearance of a farm so much as a good dwelling. We will probably have a school started soon in our settlement.

A literary next week if the old guards don't hang fire.

A young man was telling us last summer, at Pershaker's store, that if a clock failed to keep time or do good work that it might be thoroughly renovated by boiling. On the road home we thought the matter over, but as we did not have any clock that needed boiling, we concluded to boil the cross-cut saw, but when we took it out into the woods and sat and watched it for 6 hours we came to the conclusion that there was a mistake some where. We boiled the jack-screw and ax with no better effect.

More anon, Lodi.

Roseburg Does Him Honor.
Ed. HERALD:—The citizens of Roseburg learning that J. M. Siglin was on the south-bound train by way of Roseburg on his return home to Marshfield, Coos county, prepared to give him a grand reception and serenade, (the band being in attendance) and were very much disappointed when the train arrived, at not meeting him, he having stopped at Drain. The citizens of Roseburg, irrespective of party, were desirous of expressing their high appreciation of Mr. Siglin's course in the legislature. They recognize in Mr. Siglin a man who has sunk the partisan in the patriot; that for the interest of the state at large in voting for an honorable an efficient man for U. S. Senator, the Hon. J. H. Mitchell, Mr. Siglin forgot party when his duty as a statesman bid him choose between them. Though we acknowledge him as an uncompromising democrat, he has proved himself no less a patriotic statesman.

Many Democrats & Republicans.

The moon has sunk beneath the sea;
The cat sits by the stove;
My studies bring no joy to me,
Because my hands are clove.
The moon, the cat and hands combined,
Seem but to raise my ire;
I'll hit the cat and knock him blind;
I will, or I'm a liar.

If you can appreciate the feelings of one whose hands are continually splitting open and preventing him from pursuing his daily task—the pick and shovel, you will excuse the doggerel above as the lamentable effort of a semi-barbarian.

Le Garcon.

We heard some of Sammy Tilden's backers discussing in language more forcible than polite, the acceptance of the challenge to run that horse against Gray Dan, as published in the HERALD last week. They wanted the acceptance to be unconditional, no proviso in regard to distemper as this will probably afford a loop hole for Gray Dan to back out. One enthusiastic individual asserted that if the distemper got away with Tilden, so that there would be nothing left of him but his head and hind legs, that Jesse Norton could take charge of the remains and bring them out ahead. Tilden's backers mean business, you bet.—Coos Bay News.

The people need not fret; Sammy will get to run. The friends of Gray Dan are not the men to give a challenge, and then hunt for a hole through which to crawl out.

Asa Carey captured two bears one night recently near his home in Curry, one of them being a large brown bear.

The steamer Arago arrived at the bay on Friday, and the Coos Bay on Saturday.

The big tide of Tuesday a week ago upset things promiscuously at the mouth of Rogue river.

Remember that you can get a good square meal at the Olive hotel, Coquille City, for two bits, twenty-five cents or a quarter of a dollar.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the shareholders of the Myrtle Point racing association, held in Myrtle Point, on Saturday, December, 23, 1885, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing, and electing directors for said association.

By Order of Stock-holder.

Take Hints Again.

New York, Nov. 27.—Rufus Hatch is again trying to get control of the Yellowstone park. He alleges in a circular to the stockholders for proxies that the hotel alone this year made $12,000 clear a gain on the whole property enough to pay five per cent. Unless they are wary the franchise will pass from their hands.
