Brewster Valley Scraps.

Crops doing well. Tramps are still on the move. Mr. H. Batts of Fairview made us a visit last Sabbath—the first for a year.

S. F. Wilson, W. P. Granger and Jas. Young, passed here Thursday. Wilson and Granger en route for Coos bay; Mr. Y. to look after cattle in different parts of Coos county.

Mr. Williams and Will Lughorn of Sumner in company with another gentleman, passed through Brewster Friday, on their return from Wasco county. Mr. W. was called home on account of his daughter's illness, and says the others came back because "they's been there." Their report is not very favorable.

Travel has begun and already the quiet of the valley is disturbed by hunters, who seem to be very successful. Mr. Smith, Bill and Ben Shields of Ten-Mile killed two bear, two elk and other game this week.

Warning to hunters.—There is a pet deer at Laird's and the one who hunts it had better make for home and not pass the house.

Mr. Laird has made two trips to Roseburg with a wagon this week. There is a young man in our vicinity who has fell in love with the jersey jacket and has purchased one. We think he will look well in it.

After the April showers the week ends with a nice day. Yours for news, Cricket.

Brewster Valley, April 3.

Fairview Items.

Ed. Herald.—As I have seen nothing recently in your valuable paper from this part of Coos county, perhaps a few items from here would be of interest to some of your numerous readers.

Our farmers are taking advantage of this good weather and are plowing, sowing and doing farm work in general.

J. W. Clinton, our enterprising North fork logger, has just finished running his file lot of logs to the Coquille City mill. John is a go-a-head kind of a fellow, and deserves success. He will log here yet about two weeks and then move to Bear creek, so we are informed.

Mr. R. H. Mast has been on the sick list a few days, but is around again.

P. Laswell is very low with consumption. No hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The citizens of this school district (No. 38) have levied a ten mill tax to build a school house in said district. A move in the right direction.

Messrs. A. J. Sherwood and E. A. Golden are both spoken of for county school superintendent. Both are practical teachers, well qualified, and either of them would make a good officer.

Cleveland dinners and weddings are the order of the day about Gravel Ford.

Married: At the residence of the bride's parents, near Gravel Ford, Sunday, March 28, 1886, by L. L. Harman, J. P., Mr. K. H. Hansen and Miss Ida Jackson. The happy couple leave in about a week for Douglas county, where Mr. Hansen is engaged to teach. May the bright morning of their married life grow into a perfect day of happiness and peace, and may all their lives pass with only enough clouds to make them appreciate the sunlight of each other's love.

Nomrah Nosael, Fairview, Or., March 30, 1886.

A lady while stooping down to get a drink out of a small stream near State creek, Josephine county, found a nugget of gold weighing upwards of $5.

Natural History No. 4—Hoodlums.

This term is an American word and refers to a certain class of the genus homo. This certain class is found in all lands, and their general character is thus all the same. They flourish to the best advantage in large cities and towns, and in some cases become so numerous that sharp and stringent measures have to be adopted to get rid of them. Although they are always a nuisance, it has always puzzled the wisest heads how to abate them, and in fact they are not yet abated to any considerable extent, that any one knows of. A bonanza awaits the inventor of a plan for abating them. The hoodlum grows to perfection in our large cities, as the proper element for their growth and development is found there in great abundance. As the society of cities is usually divided into different grades each grade takes on a distinctive name, and the lowest down, or the offal of all the rest, become the class under consideration.

The hoodlum is a compound of tobacco smoke, indecent language, profanity, vulgarity, bad habits, and a vicious, wicked delight in making himself obnoxious to the human race generally. One of their chief delights, aside from smoking cigarettes, is to make themselves particularly obnoxious at public gatherings—whistling, throwing peanut shells, and imitating the calls or cries of other kinds of animals, such as dogs, cats, etc. And the different kinds of sounds that each produce, shows to which particular variety he claims kinship.

The filling for jails, state prisons and other penal institutions is usually furnished by this class. Although the individuals of this class are often born of good and well bred parents, they reach their appropriate level quite young, and such ones sometimes become quite noted, as the advantage of wealth helps to make them more audacious, brave and reckless. This vagabond class receives new members as the old ones are killed off by the hangman or the revolvers of drunken chums in the low down rumholes which are their special delight. The prospect for the extinction of this pestiferous nuisance, is not very flattering and will not be till a city ordinance is passed, making it lawful for any one to kill them at sight, the same as other vermin such as snakes, coyotes, etc.

Grecian War.

Athens, April 2.—The season is becoming favorable for army operations on the frontier, where the pickets of the Turks and Greeks confront each other much as the Confederates and Federals did on the line of the Potomac. Torpedo apparatus are held ready to be used against the combined fleet. The situation can not be prolonged without definite action by the powers. Some think that the calling of the chamber may mean the resignation of the ministry and sub- mission.

Herman's Harbor Bills.

Washington, April 2.—Since the allowance of $35,000 for Coos bay, Congressman Herman has succeeded in providing for a full survey, and plans for improvement of Siuslaw bay and bar, with a view to a jetty. An appropriation will be made from the $180,000 contingent fund. There will also be a survey, examination and estimates for snagging and dredging Coquille, between Coquille City and Myrtle Point; also surveys for Tillamock and Nehalem.

The mines of Jackson and Josephine counties have of late assumed very great importance, quartz mills being established every where. Coos and Curry will doubtless rival the counties named in a very few years, as they possess numerous rich deposits of both silver and gold.

In Luck.

Charleston, April 2.—W. E. Mitchell recently found a stone in his lot which he thought was a valuable gem. The state geologist has pronounced it a diamond of unusual size and brilliancy, worth $100,000.

The Bybee Homicide.

On Tuesday last William Bybee of Jacksonville was arraigned before Justice Kellogg at Kerbyville, charged with the murder of Thomas Bybee near Waldo on the evening of the 24th of March. It is not our purpose at this time to enter into the details of the horrible affair further than to say the evidence was such as to justify Judge Kellogg to commit William Bybee to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the April term of court, which meets on the 12th inst. The state was represented by District Attorney Kent of Jacksonville, and S. U. Mitchell, Esq., of this place, while Judge H. K. Hanna of Jacksonville, appeared for the prisoner. The case was ably conducted on both sides, and the evidence shows the murder to be one of the most cold-blooded crimes of the kind that could possibly be committed. The person who did the shooting stood unsuspectingly within about six feet of his victim and poured 16 buckshot into his neck from the right side. After which the evidence leads to the conclusion the murderer placed a "Bulldog" revolver in the left hand of the dead man—and in the side of that awful night hour, closed his inanimate finger upon it, probably to produce the opinion that the shooting was done in self-defense. But like all means adopted by evil disposed persons to cover up or find excuses for such dastardly crimes, this murderer left every evidence that he placed the "Bulldog" there after deceased was killed.

After the examination, the prisoner was left in charge of Deputy Sheriff Wilson, who took him to Jacksonville yesterday.

With the above narration of this horrible deed, we leave it and await the further action of the courts.—Grants Pass Courier.
