

LOCAL ITEMS.

Missouri precinct went democratic by about 20.

Robert Ward, of Katchen creek, made us pleasant call on Thursday.

Mr. T. V. Nichols, of Bandon, came up Saturday on a visit to friends.

Rev. Lund, of Marshfield, held divine services in this place one night last week.

Our esteemed friend, G. W. Majory, Sr., of Myrtle Point, was in town a couple of days last week, and called on us.

John Johnson, of this place, has been doing a land office business shearing sheep the past few days. He is an excellent hand.

The schooner Parkersburg, and the sloop Spy, sailed from this river on Friday night. The bar is good and vessels go when they please.

I. A. Hall, democratic candidate for surveyor of this county, spent Thursday and Friday in this place. Alex. is one of the good boys of Coos county.

Mr. E. A. Anderson came over from the bay on Thursday in one of the gayest livery rigs we have seen. The vehicle bore the brand of H. Haden.

Rev. W. H. Nosler's son and H. H. and Ed. Nichols left yesterday for San Diego, Cal., where they will remain this summer. H. Nichols's family will remain here.

Young people should show better raising than to disturb a meeting of any kind. If they cannot act properly, they should not disgrace their parents by their presence at public meetings.

The stage route from Empire City to Drain's, is now in fine condition. Passengers put through to the railroad the same day, without extra charge, when requested. Fare to Portland by this route, only $14.10.

Frank Tennison has started a stage between this place and Utter City and will remain over night here, and start early each morning for Utter City carrying freight and passengers. Look out for posters and ad.

A whisker dye must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance, and cheap in price. Buckingham's Dye for the whiskers unites in itself all these merits. Try it.

Mrs. Flora Shelly living two miles up the river is sorely afflicted with a felon on her hand. In addition her baby is quite sick, and her little boy has not recovered from the breaking of his arm a short time ago.

Jack A. Barris, David and Robert Hutchinson went up to Sixes mines on a prospecting layout last week. They had a horse packed with giant powder and dynamite, and we are liable to hear from them any time.

The mail from Fairview is coming in late in the evening so as to catch the morning's mail from Roseburg. By this arrangement we got the San Francisco papers of June 3rd on the 5th, and the Portland papers a day earlier.

The schooner Coquille sailed from the river last Wednesday afternoon. She made the best time on record on her last trip up, being only nine days from the time she left San Francisco till she was loaded and at sea again.

Ed. Boyrie, head sawyer in the mill at this place, received a terrible blow on the head one day last week while at work, which rendered him insensible for a time. It is a mystery what struck him. An ugly gash was cut in his head.

The much-needed bridge south of town is a fixed fact and will be hurried to completion. Another bridge crossing the hollow north of the school house is being talked of, and liberal subscriptions given. This one is also much needed, and we hope to see it completed soon.

Our esteemed friend, Fred Jarvis, has our thanks for a fine big cake of maple sugar which he brought from Battle Creek, Mich., on his return from his recent visit east. He writes us that he did not know his mother and sisters when he met them, he having been away 23 years.

Hon. J. W. Hamilton, district attorney, called on us Thursday.

Coquille City went democratic by seven, and Halls Prairie by 1 republican.

C. E. Edwards returned from the city on the Coos Bay which arrived Sunday.

Harry Roberts has seven thousand brick which he is offering for $8 per M.

Uncle Joseph Lett moved down the river last week and will locate near Parkersburg.

Mr. J. W. Mullen, of Myrtle Point, made this office a pleasant call on Thursday.

Alex Smith moved his family up to Halls creek last week, where he is running a logging camp.

New potatoes and green peas are scarce in the market. Farmers have small amounts, but none to sell.

The Coquille City brass band will give an entertainment at Coquille City during the Halls Prairie fair.

Capt. Dick, master of the Lizzie Prien, had a good word and smile for every one as usual on his recent trip here.

See ad for Garfield & Jarvis' stage line. They will from this on make two trips per day from Utter City and run a freight wagon besides.

We have the returns for this and Halls prairie precinct, but cannot give them in this issue, but will try and get out an extra this evening or to-morrow.

Geo. T. Moulton has a new and choice lot of fresh groceries at the old Moulton stand. Geo. is selling at bottom prices, and don't you cease to remember it.

The sure effects of Ayer's Sarsaparilla are thorough and permanent. If there is a lurking taint of scrofula about you, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will dislodge it, and expel it from your system.

We had expected a lot of excursionists to come around from the bay on the steamer Coos, but none except Capt. Dunham, Joe Fox and Andrew Hall, all connected with the boat, ventured to take the trip.

Water was put in the Olive hotel one day last week from the Occident Water company's mains, and we noticed Mr. Olive throwing water on the roof of that and adjoining buildings. Coquille City is best supplied with water of any town in the county.

Uncle A. J. Andrews arrived here yesterday from El Cajon, San Diego county, Cal. He will likely spend this winter here. He informs us that his son-in-law, Mr. Mathews who formerly lived at Enchanted prairie died on April 5th.

The schooner Lizzie Prien, which loaded lumber at Lyon's mill in this place Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was taken in tow by the Katie Cook on Sunday morning and taken to the lower river ready to sail. She carried 152,000 feet of the finest lumber we have seen, without exception, in the county.

The side wheel steamer Coos of Coos bay, arrived in this river on Saturday at 1 o'clock, having left the bay at 10 1/2 o'clock. This steamer has come here to run regular between this place and Bandon, laying over here nights. She came up here on Sunday, and from Capt. Dunham we learn that she made the trip around by sea in good shape, the only mishap being the breaking in of the cabin door by a breaker in crossing the Coquille bar.

NUPTIALS.—Our worthy young friends, Mr. A. W. Thresher and Miss Alice Dewey, were married at the Robinson hotel in this place last Friday evening. Notwithstanding the fact that they have only been here eight months, and neither has a relative in the state, they have a host of friends on the river who join us in extending the warmest congratulations. They resumed work in their schools yesterday morning. We acknowledge a bountiful supply of cake.

The mail route from this place to Fairview was supplied with a hack yesterday, Chas. Metlin, agent. For the best meals and at any hour go to the Olive hotel.

DECORATION DAY.

The services on decoration day here in Coquille City were a surprise to many of our citizens. The ceremonies being much more impressive and appropriate than those who had never seen the day kept with appropriate ceremonies expected. This was the first time the day has been kept as a holiday here. The procession with A. H. Wright as marshal formed at one o'clock, headed by the Coquille City Brass band, next came the firing squad, then the city council; next Gen. Lytle post, G. A. R., then the school children, the woman's relief corps, the Moring Star lodge, I. O. G. T., with their banner and regalia. The procession marched to the Odd Fellows' hall where the impressive services of the G. A. R. were rendered, and Dr. J. P. Easter gave a very appropriate lecture. Although as a general thing the public are best pleased with brevity on the part of speakers on such occasions, the only regret was that the Dr. did not considerably extend his remarks. After the services at the hall, the procession reformed and marched to the Odd Fellows' cemetery, where the graves were decorated and the usual salute fired. The friends of those who were buried there decorated the graves of all, without exception, and a marked tribute of respect was paid to the memory of Uncle T. B. Wilhard, who is buried there, and also to the memory of R. Schweers, the only grave of a veteran soldier known to be there. The poems read by Miss Lehman at the hall and one by Miss Beyers at the cemetery were appropriate and well rendered and deserving of special mention. The procession then took up the line of march to the Masonic cemetery, where, from the profusion of flowers, one would have been led to believe that it was the first visited. Taken all together, the day will be one to be remembered, and we venture the prediction that although we have been late in commencing to observe the day, that it will be many years before another will pass without a public and general observance by our citizens.

The attendance was much larger than anticipated and each one seemed to provide flowers and wreaths, as if he feared there would not be enough.

The Happy Couple.

Deer Park, June 3.—President Cleveland and his bride arrived here at 4 o'clock this morning and were domiciled in the cottage near the hotel. But few persons were here, as there was no knowledge that the bridal party intended to come here. The president and Mrs. Cleveland are sojourning quietly. A large influx of visitors is looked for as soon as it is known the newly wedded couple are here.

Defiant Polygamists.

Salt Lake, June 3.—Jeps Hansen and Geo. Wood were sentenced yesterday to six months each and $300 fine and costs for unlawful cohabitation. Hansen evaded the question whether he would obey the law in the future, and Wood defiantly thundered out: "No, sir; it is my intention to obey the law of God, though imprisoned for life. I know I'm right I will never obey a law of man, prison or no prison, life or death." He has a very handsome seventeen-year-old plural wife.

Dakota's Admission.

Fargo, D. T. June 3.—There is a rapidly developing feeling in both South and North Dakota, in favor of the acceptance of the Springer bill for the admission of the entire Territory as one state. This fact is so evident that the localities and factions that have interests identified with division capital schemes and office under the state machine in the South, are putting fourth their most vigorous effort to prevent the passage of this measure in congress.

The mail route from this place to Fairview was supplied with a hack yesterday, Chas. Metlin, agent.

For the best meals and at any hour go to the Olive hotel.

Dora Items.

Ed. HERALD.—Spring rains and warm sunshine have brought to light our crop of radishes which never fail with proper care. Pigeons are quite plenty around Gravel Ford, helping the farmers with their crops of wheat.

Rev. F. E. Scofield has returned from eastern Oregon.

Sheep shearing is the order of the day.

Roads are getting better, and our road boss will soon make some grand improvements on the same. Tell J. D. B. to do the same, as two stages will soon start from Roseburg to run to Myrtle Point.

Saturday eve was quite an exciting one, as a large bear caught one of M. Krantz's hogs while Billy Krantz was hoeing corn. The deacon and Billy, with two faithful dogs gave chase, but Billy, being a foot racer and the deacon not, the former won the race, and with one shot from his Winchester, parted bruin's hair in the forehead, and he ceased from eating hog.

M. J. Krantz is slashing for J. Laird in Brewster valley.

A good Sunday school at Shiloh school house every Sunday, conducted by G. Wheeler.

D. C. Krantz and wife have returned from Douglas county where they have been on a visit.

Oh! that man of all men who keeps his Saturday Sabbath so strict that he cannot let his boy watch a young calf one hour to keep it from killing its fool self when he received 50 cts. for the same, is getting too good for this sinful world. May his light ever shine brighter.

Chehalis is the only incorporated town in the Territory that neglects or refuses to print the ordinances.

[Ex. That is nothing; here in Coquille City ye printer had to erect a scaffold against a wall and set up the town ordinances during a fearful rain storm, to get them at all.

Mollie Lehman, Principal.

Marshfield Races.

The races at Marshfield last Saturday were a surprise to some who claimed to be excellent judges of horse flesh. By them it was conceded that Joe Woodbury would beat Clamdigger, and that Grace, the Bonebrake mare, would beat Hazard's mare badly. This was the talk of some. The result was just as different as it was possible for it to be. Joe Woodbury was put into the stage team and kept there till two days before the race and was allowed to wear his old heavy shoes. The result was that he flew up soon after the start, and Clamdigger won easily. The other race was won by Hazard's mare, Mr. H. being himself the rider.

A big crowd witnessed the races and quite a racing feeling was the result. A race between Clamdigger and Hazard's mare, for July 4, for $250 a side, was effected.

Geo. T. Moulton has just received a new and choice lot of groceries, at the old stand. Patronize the boy liberally.

Card of Thanks.

The members of W. R. C. here-with tender their thanks to Mr. M. C. Miller for painting the banner for decoration day, also to Misses Annie Stockman, Mehl, Schroeder and Mesdames Moore, Robinson, Schweers, and others who donated flowers for memorial day.

Miss Mollie Lehman, Sec.

The house and lot on First st., just east of, and adjoining R. E. Buck's place in this town, is offered very cheap. Enquire of Chas. Watkins.
