

Coquille City Herald.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY. J. A. DEAN, Editor and Proprietor.

Devoted to the interests of the Coquille River particularly, and of the County generally.

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1886.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Port Orford and Denmark will celebrate on the Fourth.

Cherries were selling for 20 cents per lb on the bay last week.

The hog law was defeated in Curry county, by a big vote.

Johnny Hall surveyed the Green Point and Lampey creek road last week.

Mr. Valentine Gant returned from his California home on Wednesday.

Jas. Laird is new sole proprietor of the Coos Bay and Roseburg stage line.

Judge Bean stopped over in this place Tuesday night on his return from Curry county.

A. M. Crawford will be reader, and A. J. Sherwood orator at Marshfield on the 4th.

The Joe Nay saw-mill is to soon start up to saw out lumber for the Elk river bridge, says the Recorder.

Dr. McCormac supt. of schools in this county held an examination of teachers at Marshfield on Saturday.

Mrs. Huden has taken the place in the academy at Marshfield made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Golden.

The crew of the Escort caught 90 cod in a short time with hook and line off the cape, says the Coos Bay News.

Sea lion were not troubled at the mouth of the Coquille this season, and we fear the result will be a short run of salmon.

Mr. G. D. Hobson, of Gravel Ford, anticipates going to California for a season. He made us a pleasant call on Wednesday.

Only about 2000 cases of salmon have been put up at the mouth of Rogue river this spring, whereas 10,000 was formerly the average.

Geo. S. Harris, one of the democratic candidates for commissioner was elected in Curry county in addition to those mentioned last week.

The two republican candidates for commissioners in Curry county got the same number of votes and as one can serve, a democrat being elected, they are casting about for straws. Better pull straws as wool.

The Recorder compares Cleveland's picture in the San Francisco Call to a Cape Blanco sea-lion. The picture is not a bad one; the trouble must have been in something you had been taking, brother.

Discouraged Mormons. New York, June 21.—Rev. John J. Diordan and other clergymen of this city have inaugurated a movement to suppress Mormon immigration into this country. The commissioners of immigration have agents to co-operate in the efforts of the clergymen, and a number of German and Irish societies are also interested in the matter. The power of the United States government not only, but of the British and other foreign powers as well, will be invoked to carry on the warfare.

Panama dispatch.—A terrible affray occurred at Bogota, the capital of this republic, between the guard of a prison and members of the national battalion. One general, several officers and thirty soldiers were killed. The affray was the outcome of an old grudge between the guards and soldiers without political significance.

A colony of two hundred families of Danes and Swedes arrived in San Francisco one day last week. They are seeking homes, and want land in a body for all. We have a Denmark and Norway in this part of the state, and a little Sweden wouldn't hurt us.

A Serious Task.

In some cases we see the best side of a fellow-man in our ordinary intercourse with him; in other cases, we see the worst side. Some men are a great deal better than they seem; others are a great deal worse. There are those whose external manner puts them at a great disadvantage, and who must be known thoroughly in order to be appreciated fairly. There are others, again, who are of smooth address and of plausible manners because of their lives of deceit and hypocrisy. It will not do for us to think, or say, that a man is always better, or that he is always worse, than he seems; but a responsibility is on us to decide in each particular case whether a man whom we meet is to be trusted, or is to be shunned. The judgment requires both charity and discriminating observation; but it is a duty which can not be safely shirked.—S. S. Times.

Caused by a Cigarette.

Modesto, June 20.—A fire occurred yesterday afternoon in the wheat field of A. B. McMillan, twenty-six miles from Modesto. Neighbors, to the number of 200, gathered to fight the fire. A stiff breeze fanned the flames, and it was only checked at 7 o'clock, but not till it had destroyed more than 3,000 acres of fine wheat, which averaged twenty-five bushels to the acre, 75,000 bushels, besides 3,000 bushels of barley. The estimated loss is $50,000, with but little insurance. The fire originated from a cigarette. Two persons drove along the road a few minutes previous to the starting of the flames.

More about The Arcata.

The Arcata, from San Francisco bound for Coos bay, ran on a rock a short distance above Fort Ross at 3:20 o'clock a. m., on Tuesday, the 15th inst. The weather was very thick and the officers did not think she was so close to shore. As soon as the vessel struck the pumps were put into use, but in less than half an hour the water put out the fires so that they could not be worked and all hands went to work getting rafts and ready to leave the ship. About daylight the captain went toward shore to find a suitable place to land, and on going a short distance saw a schooner lying at a shute for a cargo. The passengers and crew went ashore about 7 o'clock a. m. The crew returned to the vessel and succeeded in getting off a few trunks and a valise. They waited all day for a tug but one did not arrive until evening when the Monarch took her in tow and started for San Francisco. After she had proceeded about half an hour the Arcata rolled over on her side and completely filled with water. Next day the tug Whitelaw arrived from San Francisco, and took the passengers back to that city, where they arrived Thursday. Among the seven passengers were Chas. Edman and wife, J. E. Hagenbuch and M. Abrams.

The freight on board is probably a total loss. There was consigned to parties here: D. Morse, 15 packages; H. Sengstacken, 2 packages; Fred Schetter, 21 packages; Newport Coal Co., 112 packages; E. O'Connell, 16 packages; E. B. Dean & Co., 65 packages; N. P. Hansen, 37 packages; Mrs. Mark, 1 package; J. M. Arrington, 8 packages; John Norman, 18 packages; John Nasburg, 11 packages; J. E. Hagenbuch, 2 packages; Nasburg & Hirst, 7 packages; Hongell & Selander, 3 packages; J. Lando & Son, 1 package; F. P. Norton, 1 package; Geo. McEwan, 17 packages; O. Nelson, 3 packages; R. E. Buck, 3 packages; D. W. Rees, household goods.

Hongell & Selander are the only parties insured. Mr. Rees of Newport lost all his furniture and household goods, valued at about $500. He has just come to the bay and sent for his effects, intending to reside at Newport, where he is now working.

The Arcata was towed into San Francisco and divers sent underneath, but they were unable to determine the full amount of damage done. The rudder and wheel were gone. She was insured for $10,000.

Boycott Safety Committee.

San Francisco, June 20.—The "Boycott Safety Committee," organized two months ago, met yesterday to organize a grand lodge. It is a secret organization, and but little has been known of it, but it transpires that it is immensely strong. There are forty subordinate lodges represented. It is strongly anti-Chinese, and will use the boycott in every possible way. Its sympathies are with the federated trades. It will be incorporated.

For Sale.
