The M. E. quarterly meeting commenced last Sunday. Eld. Michaels is an able speaker, and, by the way, he rubbed our Adventist friends rather hard in his sermon on the Sabbath question. He will be reviewed by one of the adventist ministers in the Gravel Ford school house on Sunday, Aug. 1. A large audience is expected.

Elders Ward and Cole have moved their large pavilion to Norway and will commence their series of meetings to-night. They are earnest, energetic men and deserve success.

What is the matter with Lodi? Why did he change his name? We hardly recognized him and might have been deceived altogether had it not been for the cloven foot.

Clyde. Challenge Accepted. Ed. HERALD:—As I rood along this evening I saw a poster of Messrs. Ward and Cole, in which they propose to discuss on various topics, among which are the "Christian Sabbath, etc.," and as said gentlemen have affirmed that the Sabbath of the fourth commandment of the decalogue is the Christian Sabbath and the mark of the beast is the keeping of the first day of the week, and as these gentlemen have challenged the "world to dispute it," I therefore deny that the Sabbath of the fourth commandment is the "Christian Sabbath." I also deny that the keeping of the first day of the week is the mark of the beast. I will meet these gentlemen, or either of them, in any reasonable time at any place in Coos county, they may select.

J. P. Easter. The president has warned officials under his administration against using their official position in attempts to control political movements. This is as it should be. Now if he finds one doing that which he has forbade, and will shovel him out on the toe of his executive boot, the country will have attained a point to which the people have anxiously been looking for many years. This thing of long tenure on promises of official positions would be a disgrace to a country which boasts less than ours.

Steward & Paden will hereafter have a big supply of choice sausage on hand on Wednesday of each week, and will promptly fill orders from all parts. Send in your orders.
