

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Chicago Anarchists want a new trial.

Capt. Hans Reed, of Marshfield, paid the river a visit Wednesday.

Mr. D. Giles and family passed down on the Annie on Wednesday.

Mr. Harry Roberts and family left for California a week ago Thursday.

Pleuro-pneumonia is raging among cattle in the northern part of Illinois.

The pleasant smile of our canneryman Johnny Hume beamed on us Wednesday.

Johnny Laird, formerly of this place, has moved from Looking-glass to Mt. Scott.

Mr. H. W. Holverstott and wife, Fairview, were in town on business on Thursday.

Uncle Chris Lehnerr was quite sick the forepart of the week at his home at Myrtle Point.

Uncle E. W. Faby, of Randolph, during a visit to the upper river made us a pleasant visit Wednesday.

Mr. R. O. Kirkpatrick, of Angora, spent Tuesday night in this place a guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Balsb.

Coquille City is without a vacant house, and there is a demand for scores. Some body should build a number to rent.

It is reported the proprietors of both the saloons run at the fair have been subjected to heavy fines by the Grand Jury.

Parsons, the sewing machine man is at Roseburg. He is a worthy young man, and we commend him to our friends every where.

The HERALD is acknowledged the best local paper in Southwestern Oregon, and our subscription list is increasing right along.

Capt. Harry Lockwood and Miss Annie Webber were married at Marshfield a week ago Sunday. They have our congratulations.

Hop Kee & Co., Marshfield, lost their store by fire at midnight on Monday night. The loss is about $1000. It is supposed to be the work of a rival China store.

Little Chester Garrison fell, while playing on the stair-steps at his home in Marshfield on Monday a week ago, and his collar bone was broken in three places.

The Knights of Labor of New York will soon have a show to test their strength in the vote for Henry George. He is the friend of the laboringman and they are standing in for his election to the office of Mayor.

"My daughter has taken the medicine faithfully, according to directions, and her health and spirits are now perfect. The humor is all gone from her face. I wish every anxious mother might know what a blessing Ayer's Sarsaparilla is it such cases."

Johnny Giles is business manager of the steamer Annie. He can be found on board at all times for the transaction of business. With Johnny as manager; Capt. Leneve as master, and A. J. Mack as engineer, we can guarantee you could not fall into better hands.

Mr. V. Gant has gone to Texas Hill, Arizona. Coos county can ill afford to lose so good a man, but then Mr. G. never gets too far away to come back to Coos county. His brother Darius accompanied him as far as the bay, the first time he has been down this way for seven years.

Sufferers from the effects of quinine, used as a remedy for chills and fever, should try Ayer's Ague cure, a powerful tonic bitter, wholly vegetable, without a particle of any noxious drugs. It acts promptly, breaking the chill, curing the fever, and expelling the poison, yet leaving no harmful effect upon the patient.

The steamer Antelope left Coos bay on Monday and passed this place on Tuesday afternoon, having made the trip around by sea in good shape. She went on up to Norway where a fine cabin will be put on her, when she will run regularly on the river. It is said she will run on the route between this place and Bandon, and that the Ceres will run on the upper river.

The hog law was a failure. Capt. Tom Floyd was in town Sunday.

Sam Howell, of Angora, spent Sunday in town.

Frank Tenneson will hereafter reside in the Siglin house on Moulton street.

The Odd Fellows have lately had their cemetery cleared off, and a good road made to it along Willard street.

A man by the name of Richards was shot for a deer by his son and killed near Roseburg a week ago yesterday.

Mrs. James Perkins and daughter, of the lower river, were in the city, visiting Rev. T. P. Haynes and family last Saturday.

Mrs. Buirgy, Mrs. Dr. Downing's mother, left for her home in Portland on Thursday, after a visit to her daughter of several months.

Capt. Geo. Leneve is having a residence built on his lot near the foot of Front street. His brothers Noah and John are doing the work.

Will Tenneson's year-old baby lost a portion of one finger last Sunday. His sister was hacking with a hatchet, and made the unfortunate stroke.

The Occident Water company last week ran pipes to a number of houses which will hereafter get their supply of water from the company's works.

Charley Collier threshed on his place half a mile south of this town 167 bushels of barley from one acre and 108 rods, being over 99 1/2 bushels per acre.

The schooners Gem, Parkersburg, and Coquille went to sea last week, but the Prien is still in the river. They were all lumber loaded, the Gem carrying 215,000 feet.

Judge Dyer was in town yesterday. He has been gathering up calves for Young & Co., Oakland, and informs us that a drove of 400 head, exclusive of one and two-year-olds, went out Saturday.

The first Quarterly Conference for the current year, Coquille circuit, Coos Co., Oregon, will be held at Dora, Oct. 30th, and 31st. Official board, please be present.

E. G. Michael, P. E. T. P. Haynes, P. C.

The parties interested have changed the wording of Dr. Easter's proposition in the coming debate between him and Eld. J. C. Bunch so as to read as follows: The first day of the week is set apart by divine or Apostolic appointment or example, to be observed by Christians in the service of God.

The Rev. T. P. Haynes wishes to say that having been returned to the Coquille circuit, he will preach to the people at the same places and same hours as he did on last year. He also wishes to thank the people of Coquille for their kindness, and hopes that he may continue to deserve their patronage and support.

The Coast Mail goes for us because we happened to clip an article from an exchange regarding county newspapers with patent outside. It was a tender point with our brother of the Mail, and he accused us of trying to teach journalism. It is a pity he did not let some body teach him. Come, we are at your service.

The fact that Charles Francis Adams and many other railroad magnates are soon to visit the Oregon coast in the interest of the Union Pacific railroad should not be overlooked by our friends who have the matter of a railroad survey from Coos bay to Huntington in hand. It might result in good to this part, if the matter were shown up in its true light.

A decision has been rendered by Acting Land Commissioner Stockslager wherein it is held that the occupation of land by an Indian, (claiming it as a homestead) in Washington Territory, prior to the filing of the map by the railroad company, was such a claim as excepted it from the railroad grant. This decision virtually decides a large number of similar cases in Oregon.—Star of E. Portland.

Apples taken on subscription at this office.

The bay window being put in Supt. Sherwood's house on the hill south of town is a model of beauty. Uncle Tom Willard is doing the work.

The extension of the sawdust pile back of the mill in this place affords a good approach to the hill near the brewery, and the travel now goes that way.

Miss Mollie Lehman last week purchased A. L. Nosler's town property on Elliott street, and intends building two residences which will be to let. Men have not the enterprise to move in the matter, and we are pleased to see this young lady take the initiative in constructing residence property to rent.

M. E. Church South Appointments. The following appointments were made by the late conference: Presiding Elder of Oregon district, Elder E. G. Michael. For Albany, Corvallis and Tangeet, J. W. Craig; for Douglas, G. W. Quimby; Brownsville and Lebanon, D. C. McFarland; Coquille, T. P. Haynes; Bandon, H. B. Swafford; Roseburg, F. M. Culp; Applegate, R. W. Kennedy; Klamath Mission, Jos. Emery; Mohawk and Coast Fork, R. B. Baxter; Jacksonville, Junction City, La Fayette and Tillamook, and Oregon City, to be supplied.

The fact that T. P. Haynes and H. B. Swafford have been returned to their old charges, will be hailed with delight, as well as the retaining of the present presiding elder, by our people.

Gravel Ford Items.

Items of interest are very scarce this week.

Mr. Harry Roberts and family, passed through this place, on Friday of last week en route for California.

Mrs. Alexson has been quite unwell for several days.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Neer has been quite sick for a week for two.

We are told that the hog law has passed, and gone into effect but we don't feel the effects of it very much. The unruly swine transgress the law with impunity, even in the streets of your own town, and not a hog has been arrested yet.

Mr. K. H. Hanson and family have returned from the valley and are now staying at the residence of Mr. Alex Jackson, Mrs. Hanson's father.

Some one is mistaken about the sale of the Higgins' place. "Nuff Ced," come to the front and give your authority!

Mr. J. P. Taylor of this place would like a "business" (?) partner. A school maam preferred. Mr. Taylor has one of the best farms on the Coquille river, and such a partnership might not be objectionable. Clyde.

Gravel Ford, Oct. 1.

No End to the Tremors.

Charleston, Sept. 30.—At 4:40 o'clock this afternoon a distinct shock of earthquake was felt, but it caused very little alarm, as most persons were on the street.
