

Devoted to the interests of the Coquille River particularly, and of the County generally. Subscription, per year.....$2.00

TUESDAY, OCT. 19, 1886.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Hank Pullen is at Auburn, Cal. S. H. Hazard, Esq., of Empire, has gone to Seattle, W. T.

The Portland Sunday Mercury locates Mart Talyor at Clear Lake. Frank S. Bunch left Wednesday to attend the Advent college at Healdsburg, Cal.

Born.—Near Iowa slough, Oct. 13, to the wife of Nate Thrush, a daughter; weight 9 pounds.

Thos. Hirst and Thos. Hall, of Mashfield, attended the K. of P. grand lodge at Portland last week.

Mrs. Smart will superintend and act as head keeper at Cape Arago light till her late husband's successor is duly installed.

The Arago last week brought up 300 tons of freight for the Umpqua, and upon returning from that river brought away a similar amount of wheat.

Mrs. Will Saunders is the oldest native born white person in Coos county. She is a daughter of Mrs. M. A. Jackson, the pioneer hotel keeper at Empire City.

The Lance, a Knights of Labor 12-page magazine is issued weekly at Salem, Oregon. It is able and fearless, and should at once become the laboring man's favorite.

D. J. McLouglin, formerly a merchant of Coos bay, died at Seattle, W. T., on the 7th inst. This was sad news for his many friends in Coos county, for he was truly a good man.

James Doyle, who visited this part some months ago from Van Buren, Indiana, writes for a few copies of the Herald. He thinks a number of persons will come here from his section.

Joe Hudson and Mat Goodman are engaged making shingles in this town. Carpenters give them credit for making the best shingle ever made on the river. There are no faulty ones to be found among their make.

A rumor was afloat here last week to the effect that the Coos bay and Roseburg stage route is to be changed so as to take in Myrtle Point and Coquille City. We don't believe there is any likelihood of such change.

Master Rice McDuffee, of Fairview, has our thanks for a fine lot of popcorn, and a sample of some fine grapes that grew on his father's place with no care whatever. He has a couple of bushels of the popcorn for sale.

A. J. Burr, Olympia, W. T., has any amount of New Jersey cranberry vines for sale at $7 per thousand, or 5000 for $25. Mr. Burr is an experienced hand at raising cranberries and says his experience is that they do better on the natural bog than where it is sanded. These marshes next to the foot-hills are admirably adapted to cranberries.

The Gold Beach Gazette has adopted a rather old pet name for the editor of the Mail. "Tige" is the way it puts it. Now we are willing he should wear the brass collar, and chain, too; but we are sorry to see his friends give him the commonest name in the pack. C. U. Later adjusted the collar last spring, and the inscription was, "I am the 'one man's' dog; whose dog are you?"

J. W. Shaeffer, 634 Sacramento street, San Francisco, employs only white labor in the manufacture of cigars. He is standing by the International Union Cigar Makers, and enters his protest against the effort to drive them away and reinstate Chinese. The fight can be won if the consumers will smoke no other cigars than those covered by the Pacific Coast label of the Union. See that the factory number—349—is on the box when you buy. A. L. Nosler, this place, has a big lot on hand.

Charley Butler, son of Capt. C. H. Butler, made us a pleasant call on Thursday. The Capt. is still on the Empire.

Mr. J. B. Fox, of North Coquille, was in town Thursday with a wagon load of pork, sausage, etc., which he sold readily. Mr. F. sells more from his ranch than any other Coquiller.

The late showers have started the grass in fine style, and stock from this on, will improve where they are not already as fat as they can get. For a sure thing, though not on a Montana scale, stock-raising in Coos county is all one could wish.

The Coast Mail, in speaking of the location of works for the western terminus of the Oregon Pacific railroad, says: "The company has an immense amount of rolling stock now here, and it will be necessary to put up at once buildings in which to store it during the winter." Some are curious to know what the rolling stock of said company is doing at Marshfield. The amount of it is the Mail stole the item from some Albany paper and the said rolling stock is at that place instead of Marshfield. Between patent outside and stolen inside the Mail is a daisy.

THE LIZZIE PRIEN, Capt. Peter Nelson, Master, WILL run regularly to this place for one year, having been chartered by Mr. Lyons for that time.

THE PRIEN Is a dry, safe schooner, and Capt. "Dick" is a careful and courteous master. Freight as cheap as the cheapest.
