Johnny Hume returned from Astoria Friday.

Mr. Cribbins is very sick at Enchanted prairie.

Joe C. Dean, of Parkersburg, arrived here yesterday.

Glenn Cox and wife are visiting friends in this place.

The biggest frost of the season appeared Sunday night.

Hume's cannery shipped 1650 cases of salmon last week.

Oden Nelson, the Norway merchant, has gone to California.

Bear are killing sheep at Enchated prairie at a lively rate.

Rev. T. P. Haynes has moved into his new residence on Second St.

Mr. J. C. Bunch, of Gravel Ford, was in town on business yesterday.

Ed. M. Hoffman, of South Coquille, was in town on business on Saturday.

Mr. Simpson, a Wells, Fargo's agent, has been in town for two or three days.

Surveyor Cathcart ran some lines in the vicinity of Sam Smith's place last week.

Mrs. Fannie Warner, of South Coquille, visited the bay Wednesday on land business.

Hon. C. W. Zumwalt, of Port Orford, is in town. He reports things quiet on the lower coast.

Shad Hudson, who was reported to be very sick at Port Orford a week ago, is about well, and will soon go back to his mines.

The band of this place serenaded the suburban residents on Sunday. Master David Collier was on the lead, and good music was the result.

Tommy Johnson has returned to his case in the Herald office, after a long absence to his uncle's on North Coquille, where he went for recuperation.

Hearst's defeat in the U. S. senate, which position he took on the death of Senator Miller, seems will only be temporary, now that the California legislature is largely democratic.

Judge Nosler received a large consignment of Electric Bitters, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Dr. King's New Discovery the other day direct from Chicago, and is selling at figures defying competition.

W. R. Cartwright, son of John Cartwright of this place, and who visited here two years ago, is secretary to the governor of Idaho, and moved to Boise two weeks ago, "Bud," don't forget your old friends down here.

The convenience and appearance of the Myrtle Point postoffice has been improved by the addition of a patent wire bottom postoffice cabinet, manufactured by the Yale & Towne Manufacturing company, Chicago.

Dr. Leneve, by the active preparatons which he is making for extensive improvements to the rear of his drugstore, has stimulated some of his hesitating relatives into the enterprising construction of a woodshed. That's the proper way to marshall them.

If people troubled with colds, would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to church or places of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of speakers and hearers. The Pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.

The public money being exhausted, the school in this place being taught by Miss Lehman and Miss Beyers, is continued without interruption as a subscription school. These young ladies have an excellent school and should be liberally patronized. Send along your young folks.

Otto Schetter has on exhibition at the Pioneer meat market, a mammoth squash, which weighs 157 pounds. The dimensions are immense, as the weight will show, and it is a product of Coos county, having been raised on the farm of John Bazzill, on North Coos river. If Peter, pumpkin eater, had found that squash his wife would have taken in boarders.—Coast Mail.

John Gray, of the Mail, was here on Friday.

The schooners Parkersburg and Coquille got to sea from this river on Thursday.

Geo. McEwan has just received a complete stock of brooms, tubs, baskets, etc., etc.

Uncle Billy Mast and wife, L. L. Harman and M. Kroll, of North Coquille, paid this office a pleasant visit yesterday.

The mill at Parkersburg, after being shut down for a few days, starts up this morning on three-quarter time.

The Women's Relief Corps, of this place, will give a masquerade ball on New Year's eve. A general invitation is extended. Look out for posters soon.

Mrs. Ingrim, of North Coquille, was here last week to have the doctors remove a bone from her throat, which was successfully done by Dr. Murphy.

Coal oil $1.50 (Golden Star) per can, Sperrys Snip brand of flour $1.25 per sack, pickles (5 gal.) $1 per keg, at A. L. Nosler's Cash store and other goods in proportion.

C. Andrews has just received a well selected stock of general merchandise which he is shelving today. His stock is complete, and the goods are Mr. A's personal selections. Go price his goods.

The schooner Lizzie Prieu arrived in this river on Saturday, and was towed up to this town yesterday afternoon. She will take on a cargo of lumber at the mill at this place, and give the mill a chance to stow away lumber.

[Coos Bay News.]

Steelhead salmon have made their appearance in the bay. Peter Scott caught several lately.

John Church, formerly of the Mail, and Andrew Lockhart are working in the Chronicle office, San Francisco.

Jas. Aiken, Henry Camman and Dr. Cook were prospecting the black sand mines a few days ago. They ran fifty buckets of sand through a 16-foot sluice box and cleaned up $1. They were not able to save one-third of the gold.

Last Saturday the tug Fearless, on her trip from the Umpqua, struck an object with such force as to stop the engine. The shock was not sufficient to indicate the obstruction to be a hard substance. Capt. Hill's first impression that he had run into a whale, sea serpent or some other marine animal, was soon confirmed, as in a few moments the water was colored with blood for a great distance around the scene of the collision.

The Aracata arrived Thursday morning, and after discharging freight proceeded to the Umpqua, returning Saturday. Her cargo down consists of 3,976 cases of salmon, 94 bales of hops, 215 barrels of salmon, 350 sacks of potatoes, 1000 bundles of staves and about 150 tons of coal. The cases of salmon and hops were taken on board at Gardiner.

The crew of the schooner Clara Light, which was crushed in the ice, arrived in San Francisco last week on board an Arctic whaler. The Clara Light was engaged in the bay trade for several years. She was the sole property of Mrs. Hagthrope, relict of Capt. Hagthrope, who was formerly master of the vessel.

Chas. Granholm, who is logging on North Coos river, had in the water at the end of October 1600 logs, which were put in since May 1st. The logging was done with seven men, and no team was employed. The logs will average 750 feet to the log. He intends running the camp all winter, during favorable spells of weather.

Active, Pushing and Reliable.

J. H. Nosler can always be relied upon to carry in stock the purest and best goods, and sustain the reputation of being active, pushing and reliable, by recommending articles with well established merit and such as are popular. Having the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's Discovery for consumption, colds, and coughs, will sell it on a positive guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of throat, lungs, or chest and in order to prove our claim, we ask you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

LOCAL DIDACTICS NO. 1.

Our Town Liar.

Some cities rejoice in a council and mayor,
And others can boast a town-crier,
Coquille City, however, can claim, I declare,
To possess a most notable liar,
A persistent and active town-liar.

Our town-liar is industrious—pokes in his nose
Where'er he discovers a stench,
And roots up like a hog, his own filth to disclose.
Till he burrows and furrows a trench,
A most nasty and filthy old trench.

Our town-liar is a liar so naturally born
That he can't, if he tried, tell the truth,
Lies come out of his flesh that were bred in his bone,
He "ain't" one led astray in his youth,
He was a liar before he was a youth.

Our town-liar, most happily, meets no belief
His claims are too well recognized,
But he "puts in his augur," and that is not brief,
With a stranger who's not got him "sized"—
But "most generally always" he's "sized."

Our town-liar is a nuisance—I know that "the boys"
Often feed him a bushel of lies
For the beast to retail—which he does, without fail,
With additions, and wherefore's, and why's—
He always adds wherefore's, and why's.

Our town-liar is an eavesdropper—whenever a few
Wish to talk of a matter in private,
He sneaks like a pansher, keeping well out of view,
List'ning out for the end they arrive at—
He's all ears for the end they arrive at.

Our town-liar is played out—he's mendaciously dead—
His occupation is gone—he's exempt;
His unblushing mendacity's knocked on the head,
For it merits the public contempt,
And it meets with the public contempt.

Our town-liar's so well known, that it's hardly worth while
To publish the reprobate's name;
My readers will whisper the name with a smile
For he has a well recognized claim—
A complete, fully recognized claim.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Myrtle Point Commandary, No. 2, O. R. C., held in their hall at Myrtle Point, Nov. 9, 1886. The following Pramble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Author of Life and Existence to inflict upon our brother J. E. Taylor, grief and sorrow by the loss through death of his youngest daughter, Gerta Irene Taylor. Therefore be it

Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the inevitable Decree, we none the less mourn with him and his family, and hereby make manifest our heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed on record in the Archives of the Commandary, and a copy of them be transmitted to his family, and also published in the public newspapers.

The Jerusalem Capital Scheme.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—H. H. Winderfrom, of Montreal, Canada, who is interested in the scheme to buy up Palestine and make Jerusalem the capital of the world, is at the Baldwin Hotel. He states that $1,000,000 of the capital shock of 10,000,000 has been subscribed. He has been assured that English capitalists will also subscribe when the projectors are ready to complete the scheme. Winderfrom is a subscriber to the stock. He states that Sir Hugh Sutherland and T. Allan, of the Allan Steamer Line, are also heavy subscribers.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric bitters and Bucklin's Arnica salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by J. H. Nosler.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refused. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. H. Nosler.

Bulgaria has a new king in the person of Prince Waldemar, third son of the king of Denmark.

Joe Cummings writes from St. Joe, Missouri, to the Globe-Democrat that Frothingham had nothing whatever to do with the robbery of Adam's express, and that he is innocent. Cummings sent the old packages which contained the money, and told where a boat and the robber's outfit could be found which proved true in every particular. The detectives still hold Frothingham.

MARRIED.

At the residence of Mr. I. Carter, Mr. Robert Clinton and Miss Mary J. Carter, Nov. 14, 1886, Rev. H. B. Swafford officiating. "What God hath joined together let not man put asunder."

BORN.

On Daniels creek, Coos county, Oregon, November 9, 1886, to the wife of Herbert Rogers, a daughter.

DIED.

At Norway, Nov. 6, Annie Lowe, daughter of H. and Lizzie Lowe, aged 6 years, 6 months and 27 days.

Impressive funeral services were conducted by D. and S. S. Barklow.

Oh! No, our darling is not gone,
But asleep in Jesus—angel dove,
Where we all can be, and be one;
No sorrow there, but all is love.
