

Coquille City Herald.

Devoted to the interests of the Coquille River particularly, and of the County generally.

Subscription, per year, $2.00

TUESDAY, NOV. 23, 1886.

Capt. Rackliff, of Myrtle Point, was in town Wednesday.

Clinton Randleman, of Bear creek, smiled on us one day last week.

Hon. Wm. Morris visited the bay on business the latter part of the week.

Jasen Randleman and wife, of Norway, were visiting in town last Wednesday.

Willis Hoover, of Norway, made his presence conspicuous here one day last week.

Eld. E. G. Michael preached an interesting sermon in this place on Tuesday night.

Snow storms prevailed throughout several of the states on the 12th and 13th inst.

O. L. Leneve arrived here the first of last week on a visit to relatives and friends.

New Jersey brewers have raised a fund of a million dollars to break down labor unions.

Mrs. J. Snyder, of Marshfield, came over the forepart of last week on a visit to her parents.

It was the intention of Morris Bros. to raise the frame of their saw mill to-day or to-morrow.

An effort is being made in San Francisco to supplant Chinese help with negroes from the South.

F. A. Clondman, a Newburyport skipper is going to take a voyage around the world in a 30-foot yawl.

Billy Williams, of Fairview, returned last Wednesday after an absence of 5 months to Douglas county.

Jack Oman, who has been working on the O. C. railroad the past season, returned to his home here last week.

Blaine still persists that he is not going to be a presidential candidate in 1888, but his friends think he doesn't mean it.

Marshal Robbins, of Dora, paid us a pleasant visit on Thursday. He wants to rent a small place near Coquille City, and move down.

Dick Sweet who has been painting about town the past few days is the boss grainer we have seen. You want to see some of his work.

"Bald Knobbers" raided the saloons of Chadwick, Mo., a few nights ago, when a general battle occurred. Only one seriously injured.

Remember the G. A. R. ball Thanksgiving night. Since all the proceeds are to go to a destitute comrade's widow, all the dancing people of the river should go.

Mr. W. E. McDuffee who lives on Middle creek, near Fairview, sent us a fine sample of his present tobacco crop which is the finest we have seen in the county.

The generosity manifested by Mr. Giles, in giving free passage on the steamer Little Annie to the G. A. R. ball at Myrtle Point, next Thursday night, is commendable.

The school being taught in this place by Miss Lehman, as principal, and Miss Beyers, as assistant should be liberally patronized. No more successful teachers ever taught in our schools.

There a number of holes in the sidewalks leading to the steamer landing that should be repaired. It is dangerous for a person to go that way in the dark. If the town council has not "got up" enough about them to have the work done, the people should see to it.

Eld. J. W. Beer, of California, who has been at Myrtle Point for some time looking after the interests of the "Progressive Brethren," passed down the river on Wednesday on his way home. During his stay at Myrtle Point one member was received by baptism, and five from the German Baptist church. Revs. Pullin and Bashor were ordained to the eldership.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

It is said that A. M. Gillespie has purchased the schooner Helen Merriam, and that he will keep her in the Rogue river trade where she is now, being due this week at Ellensburg. Oscar Grugle is captain.

BORN.—At New Lake, October 28, 1886, to the wife of Carl Nelson, a son.

MARRIED.—At Denmark, Wednesday, November 10, 1886, by N. C. Lorentzen, J. P., Mr. Chas. Langlois and Miss Minnie Button. An estimable couple, they have the best wishes of the county which has known them so long, for the highest degree of happiness in their new relations. Mr. and Mrs. Langlois moved to their future home, near Knob Hill yesterday.

The Coos Bay's cargo to the city this trip consisted of 4,000 cases of canned salmon from English Packing Co., 284 barrels of salmon, butter, bacon and potatoes.

Capt. Campbell arrived from the city last week, bringing with him a new cylinder and wheel for the Comet. The wheel is larger than the one originally used, and the boat will have much more power than formerly.

Ducks were very plentiful along the bench in the neighborhood of North slough last week. George Blood brought up quite a supply from there, and reports that some fellow with a "young cannon" killed 100 in two shots.

A fisherman informs us that the first run, or chinook salmon, averaged 13 to the barrel this season. As they sold at $10.50 per barrel, they were worth at least 50c each to the fishermen when caught. It is doubtful whether a cannery would be willing to pay this price for them.

Chas. Eckhoff caught 184 barrels of salmon with a drift net on the bay this fall, during two months' fishing, using only one boat. He paid for hired help $85, and when salt and barrels were paid for, cleared about $1300. He received $10.50 per barrel for what he sold. Who can beat it?

The American people, and especially the representative portion, are noted for their lack of appreciation. A New York dispatch contains this mortifying intelligence: The fund for relighting Liberty's torch is making slow progress. It is said that M. Bartholdi is greatly incensed over the refusal of the Lighthouse Board to bear the expense of illuminating the statue. He is contemplating asking the French residents to establish a fund for the maintenance of the light until congress consents to make an appropriation.

Ed. Herald:—Please tell the people through your valuable paper that I will be at the Clive hotel, Coquille City, about Dec. 10, 1886, with a complete stock of solid gold and plated jewelry, specks & eyeglasses. My stock is much larger than before. I shall be pleased to meet all of my old customers, and as many new ones as possible. Remember that I warrant my goods to be as represented. Please accept thanks for past favors. Truly, Wm. N. Boots.

(We will say in behalf of Mr. Boots that he is a reliable man and carries a good stock of goods which will be just what he represents, and which he will sell as low as the lowest. Give him an order and you will never regret it. Ed.)

Remember this: We give the HERALD and San Francisco Chronicle for $2.75 per year; the HERALD and S. F. Call, $2.50; the HERALD and S. F. Examiner, $3.00; and the HERALD and Home & Farm $2.50—all in advance. The latter papers the Home & Farm, will be sent a year free to any address by the sender paying one year in advance for the HERALD and any arrears due that he may owe. tf.

J. J. Wilson the watchmaker has just received a new invoice of goods and material, and can turn out better than ever before.
