TUESDAY, DEC. 7, 1886.

The DeMoss family are doing the valley towns.

The Thompson opera troupe are to soon visit Portland.

Freddy Hoffman and his sister, Miss Rachel were in town, Thursday.

Grandpa Rowley, of Middle Coquille, paid us a pleasant visit on Wednesday.

Mr. J. T. Moulton and family moved back from Bandon on Thursday.

Will Moulton is at Tacoma, W. T., and writes back for the HERALD. Success, Will!

The Gruggle boys—Captain and Mate—are on the Helen Merriam, now running to Rogue river.

One of the old time newspaper men died a couple of weeks ago in the person of Erastus Brooks.

John D. Giebe will contest the election of Nealon's election to the assessorship in San Francisco.

A corn crusher for Mr. Flanagan at the bay, was brought down from Roseburg last week by Jas. Laird.

J. W. Sugg returned here on Tuesday from Josephine county, whither he has been for a year. Will, we are glad to see you.

At a meeting of the G. A. R. at this place Wednesday night, a committee on arrangements, for a grand ball at this place Feb. 22, was appointed.

A gentleman from the bay informs us that eggs can't be had there for less than 50cts per dozen. This seems singular; they are only 25cts here.

This place was a veritable soldier's camp on Wednesday evening. A big attendance of Gen. Lytle Post, G. A. R., from all parts of the river was had.

A report comes from Rogue river that trouble is about to be had in consequence of an effort to rid that part of Chinese. Many have leased mines and they are loth to go, and it is rumored that they are prepared for emergencies.

There are doubtless many things of interest to our people needing legislative action. It would be in order now for the people to consult Senator Siglin and Representative Roberts, who are solicitous of finding out your wants.

A friend sends us the following item from Coaledo: The elite of this place had a surprise party at C. A. Hanscom's on Thanksgiving eve and a splendid time was the result. All enjoyed themselves immensely. On the following night Mr. Hanscom had a surprise party of his own. It is a girl and weighs 10 lbs.

The following will show the state of the iron trade, which is looked on as the commercial pulse of this country: The iron market continues to show great strength. Many persons predicted that, after the heavy transactions of October, the demand would fall off. Such, however, was not the case. The demand and activity continues; in fact, there seems to be no falling off in the demand for raw irons. In some cases, sellers are so unwilling to quote on large lots that buyers have to be satisfied with such quantities as they can obtain, which in many cases fell short of what they would like to purchase. Several city furnaces are selling only to regular customers; again, others are not inclined to sell.

A crazy anarchist killed his wife a few days ago and burned her body. It would be difficult to judge of his sanity by this action.

Clinton B. Fish is spoken of as the probable prohibition candidate for the presidency in 1888. He is a New Jersey man and is quite popular among prohi's.

[Coos Bay News.]

Anton Wirth supplies the local market with lettuce, Brussels sprouts and other green vegetables.

It is probable that by next fishing season the bay will have at least two canneries in active operation. Mr. Marshall, who lately arrived from the city, is looking for a suitable location for one, and an effort is being made, with every prospect of success, to induce local capital to also invest in the business.

J. D. Garfield and Henry Sengstacken have purchased the schooner now on the ways in the ship yard at this place from Geo. Davis for $3500, the vessel to be completed with the exception of rigging, which will be furnished by the purchasers. It is expected the schooner will be launched in about two weeks, and Davis will then commence getting out timbers for a three-masted schooner, the keel of which will be 150 feet.

James Laird came down with three four-horse teams from Dora on Tuesday for the Chinamen employed at the cannery near Parkersburg, with whom he started for Roseburg on Thursday. Mr. Laird had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse in coming down the hill on this side of Burton prairie. The team of four spirited horses ran away, and coming down the aforesaid hill were going at lightning speed when the off wheeler brought against a tree, mashing his head to a pulp. The wagon passed over the fallen animal, mangling it, but otherwise the damage was only a broken tongue. The driver, Jas. Laird, jr., was thrown from his position before the collision, and Will Sugg, the other occupant, held onto the lines till it occurred, when he, too, was thrown out. The boys were bruised by falling across logs, but not dangerously hurt.

If talk can be relied on to any extent, we may predict four new canneries in this county the coming season; two on the river and two on the bay. This would make five with the one we already have at Parkersburg. That there can be sufficient fish had for all cannot be questioned, and that the business is a paying one, no one will deny for a moment. It simply depends on the energy of the interested parties. The people are aware that our fishing interests are soon to be among the leading ones of the county. This should prompt them to an effort to protect the fish. The expenditure of $300 next spring in the way of dynamite explosions on Seal rock at the mouth of the Coquille would be rewarded ten fold by increased run of fish to this river. Let this thing be agitated early next spring and all contribute to the undertaking.

Henry Harvey, the man who killed Roderick Grant in Eastern Oregon a few weeks ago, was killed by a party of six men sent after him from Antelope. He refused to give up and fought till he died, and fourteen bullet holes were found in his body. He did not hurt any of the posse.

In the recent election in Washington territory we find our old time friend Col. Jesse N. Barker elected to the Territorial legislative council. What is particularly pleasing to his many old friends and neighbors here is that the district in which he is elected is largely republican, thus showing his popularity even among his political opponents.—Roseburg Review.

Remember this: We give the HERALD and San Francisco Chronicle for $2.75 per year; the HERALD and S. F. Call, $2.50; the HERALD and S. F. Examiner, $3.00; and the HERALD and Home & Farm $2.50—all in advance. The latter papers the Home & Farm, will be sent a year free to any address by the sender paying one year in advance for the HERALD and any arrearage that he may owe. tf.

Under a guard of troops the Port Blakeley mills manage to run on short time. The strikers are loud in their threats.
