Mr. Shepard's livery stable at Bandon is complete, and he is now ready for business. He has every appearance of a good fellow, and we commend his place to the traveling public.

We have had no mail over our daily (?) route between here and Roseburg since Thursday night. How is that for high? Wonder if the contractor expects pay for a daily service.

The tug Katie Cook, Capt. Floyd, attempted to tow the Coquille to sea on Friday, but as the vessel neared the bar, a southeaster struck them and they were obliged to return to the wharf.

Nick Sapp died while going home to South slough from Empire City a couple of weeks ago. He is supposed to have had heart disease. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of "death from exposure."

The Recorder complains of drunken young men who come in to Bandon from up the river howling and using indecent language, and intimates that it will not tolerate again—"particularly foreign rowdiness."

NEW MEAT MARKET. Johnson & Stone—S. P. C. Johnson, and T. W. Stone—have formed a partnership for the purpose of conducting a meat market in this place, and opened up for business yesterday with a good supply of choice beef. Go see them and give them a sample order.

The Recorder justly censures the person who complained of the Little Beaver slough steamer and had it tied up, but rather hints that it was the result of dissatisfaction over the lock and dam prospect in the slough. We will say that all, so far as we can learn, who signed the remonstrance against the locks and dams, are as much disappointed in the tie up as any one. It is a wrong to condemn all for which only one man it seems can justly be censured.

What has become of our East fork correspondents?

Millard Shoemaker, of the lower coast country, was in town Wednesday. He feared dire results, in case the bad weather should continue, among stock owners on upper Sixes river.

We had not expected to call out Brother Safford on Bob Burdett, and had no intention of an unjust dig. The funny writer evidently had no bad intention, but there is nothing earthly without its imperfections and inconsistencies, and it is by condemning, and even fighting these, that a remedy is found.

The Coos bay and San Francisco steamers will not run hereafter to Coos bay. The shutting down of the mines will necessarily stop them. It is to be deplored, for it was the only rapid means of communication we had. It is to be hoped it will not be long till we have some sort of steamer again.

Edwards, Burke & Co., Myrtle Point, have adopted the plan of using coupons that is getting to be the rage in many of the Eastern states obviating the necessity of employing a book-keeper. It is the best way to do business, and precludes the possibility of disputing accounts. It works no hardship to any one, is accurate and reliable. This is the first firm in the county to adopt this, and we predict it the greatest success. See the firm's notice in this paper, and cards posted. The new order of things goes into effect from this day.

Miss Beyers having closed her department of our school has returned to her home at Sumner. Her services in our school, as well as those of Miss Lehman, have been duly appreciated, and we fear it will be a long time before we get two teachers so universally liked. The high esteem in which they were held resulted in the largest attendance our school has ever had, and the unprecedented advance of the pupils in their studies. No children of school age were to be seen loitering on our streets when they were teaching; they were in the school.

No schooners had sailed from this river up to yesterday morning.

We see by the S. F. Examiner that Dr. Steele has been cured of his heart affection.

The mail carrier from Fairview reports a big snow slide on the wagon road in the big canyon. It is said the road was covered to a depth of 30 feet, and that a tunnel through which the mail carrier made his way for a mile, was dug. It is too bad that so long as the hole was open he did not bring the mail along. Four issues of the Portland daily papers are over due here. They will come in a week or two provided the road is in such condition that one man and a cayuse can make the whole trip without a stoppage.

Worthy Teachers. Ed. Herald.—It is possible that in view of certain ideas of the appointment of our future school teachers that a father and a patron of the school should say a few words. I have children attending Coquille City school and I have noted and marked their success in learning, as well as the care bestowed upon them by both teachers. One in the upper school and the other in the lower. The only trouble is that the children cry "school, school" before the other residents of the street are well out of bed, and that, laden with problems, and weary with all the teaching of their unwearied teachers they return late in the evening to tell us that Miss Lehman looks blooming and is preparing for an entertainment which will require the presence of herself and about six children for about two hours every evening for six weeks! Long live such teachers say I! If the lazy blokes that stare at them on the streets would be good enough to work only half as hard we would see Coquille thrive better.

A father. We are requested to announce that a county convention to organize a Temperance Alliance will be held in the church in this place on Saturday, March 19. Mr. J. A. Gray has been asked to deliver a temperance lecture at the convention, which convenes at 2 p. m. with a meeting in the evening. It is also requested that all the county papers give notice, and that all the friends of temperance and reform be present.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery. Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free Trial bottles of this Standard Remedy at J. H. Nosler Drug store.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The G. A. R. Post at this place having determined to celebrate the birthday of the father of our country by having a reunion of the old soldiers of both armies, met accordingly in the Odd Fellows' hall at 2 p. m. where music, short speeches, recitations, songs and jokes were mixed up in pleasing confusion for some two hours, and the meeting adjourned till the coming Fourth of July, when all are again invited to meet in this city and have a real old-fashioned celebration. Although the rain was pouring down in good, old Coos county fashion, the hall was pretty well filled. The music from the Coquille City brass band was certainly worthy of particular notice and the good people of Coquille may justly feel proud of their band. The singing by the glee club, composed principally of the ladies of the W. R. C., was the best ever heard since the W. R. C. has been in existence, and they certainly did themselves proud. The speeches were good, and well received, and the recitations were exceptionally good. It is useless to particularize where all did so well. It only shows what an amount of talent can be found on short notice in Coquille City when the possessors see fit to bring it out. The occasion will long be remembered by all. The ball in the evening was fairly attended, some fifty or sixty couples were in attendance; about one-fourth of them enmasque. The merriment run up to fever heat at the unmasking, which took place about eleven o'clock. All enjoyed themselves till the wee sma' hours, when a final adjournment was had. The music was made by the Coquille City brass and string band, and the supper at the Olive hotel was beyond the expectation of any one, as the price was only twenty-five cents per plate, and was better than many that the writer has paid seventy-five cents for.

A committee was formed to make arrangements for the coming Fourth of July. A way up good time is in store for all who come. One thing is worthy of special mention, and that was the absence of drunkenness.
