RIGHT, NOT MIGHT.

"Two dollars a day! What a price to pay for a woman's work! We'll cut her, they say What of the many hours of toil?
What though she burned the midnight oil?
A woman, she!
Three little ones, of care bereft
That is their right, at home are left; He whom she once had leaned upon Hath e'en from their remembrance gone; But what of that?
Have not all nations cheated her,
Whose sex forbids her to demur?
Then, who so noble as to say:
"Its value for work we will pay, Woman or man?"
O for the day when potent right Shall overcome what now is might!
Then, women, thou shalt reign supreme,
Who on our solitude dost beam With light divine.
—M. F. L. in Lance.

Laws gone into Effect.

Many of the acts of our legislature go into effect upon the approval of the governor, but for the most part they go into effect 90 days after such approval. Of the latter we quote the following which went into effect the 29th ult.:

Providing for appointment of additional health officers at Gardiner and at Coos bay.

Providing for times and places of holding circuit court in First judicial district.

Fixing salary of superintendent of penitentiary.

Repealing title 3, sec. 29, of miscellaneous laws.

Amending act relating to authorization of foreign incorporations to do business and exercise their corporate powers in Oregon.

To amend laws regulating incorporations.

Redistricting state into senatorial and representative districts, and fixing number of senators and representatives.

Amending section of school laws relating to school directors.

relating to school clerks.

Amending section of school laws providing for collection of district taxes.

Amending dairy law.

Amending sec. 347, of title 4, of chapter 4, of code of civil procedure.

To prevent bulls running at large, etc.

Providing for construction of cattle crossings under public highways.

Amending divorce law.

Defining vagrants, and providing penalty for vagrancy.

Relating to salaries of school superintendents.

Regulating manner of construction of wire fences.

Amending act providing for uniform course of instruction in schools of state.

Creating office of recorder of conveyances in Linn, Marion, Washington, and Yamhill counties.

Providing for disposition of estates whose heirs are unknown; for recovering of same when heirs are discovered, etc.

Amending sec. 8, of chapter 8, of general laws.

Providing for special election on constitutional amendments.

Amending sec. 686, of chapter 8, of criminal code.

Providing for maintenance of kindergarten system.

For selection and sale of state lands remaining unsold.

Providing a bounty on certain wild animals.

Amending act defining duties of school superintendents.

Declaring first Saturday in June legal holiday, to be known as Labor Day.

Amending title 3, of chapter 7, of miscellaneous laws.

Amending law relating to election of county commissioners.

Regulating practice of dentistry.
For more efficient organization and discipline of militia in Oregon.
Act regulating insurance business.

and recorder of conveyances in Multnomah county.

Fixing time of holding county courts in Klamath county, and fixing salaries of treasurer and judge thereof.

Fixing times of holding county courts of Gilliam county.

Defining boundary between Yamhill and Tillamook counties.

Providing county commissioners for Columbia county

A large number of special laws were passed by the legislature, Amending and granting charters to the following cities: Albany, Albina, Astora, Arlington, Ashland, Baker City, Cottage Grove, Dallas, Dalles, Drain, East Portland, Eugene, Grant's Pass, Halsey, Heppner, Hillsboro, Jacksonville, Joseph, Marshfield, Medford, Mc-Minnville, Myrtle Point, Newport, Oakland, Pendleton, Portland, Prinville, Salem, Sellwood, Silverton, and Springfield. These laws go into effect, some upon the approval of the governor, others, at specified times, and still others ninety days after adjournment of legislature.

Civil Service.

Having heard that there is a vacancy, or which is more correct, that one is likely to occur in a short time at Cape Arago, we wish to devote a portion of your space to what we consider the unfairness of filling such appointments.
Any fellow who has bartered himself, body, soul and breeches, to some political boss or party, without respect to age or condition, but, with particular respect to his mental service as a politician, is, invariably, well qualified to fill a position under the above rules or in such position as do not come within their scope. Any and all others who cannot produce a certificate for such service as is mentioned above, and exceed the age of fifty, are forever barred. This is unjust. In this way the appointments at Cape Arago, during the last five or six years, have been filled with people over the age in some cases, and confirmed drunkards in others. The lighthouse keepers and life-saving station keeper have all been seen in Empire City, on a protracted spree; but, as nobody paid any further attention than witnessing the circumstance it went unpunished.
On the other hand, our best citizens, regardless of party, men of good position, commercially and otherwise, can unite and recommend some person, who, from their own experience they can vouch for as reliable and well qualified, yet the application will receive no more attention from the authorities in Portland, than it would, were it possible, if it had come from so many dogs. The vacancies will occur and the old imposture will be continued.

Favoritism is the rule and incompetency the result. It permeates all branches of the public service, and the master oftines stands in dread of the slave. With the degradation of politics there can be no hope of reform. The mind is obtuse that cannot discern the demoralization.

Lionizing Hong Di.

Colusa, Cal., May 27.—So great has been the demand to see Hong Di that people have been going in and out of jail in crowds all day, principally Chinamen. A great many ladies also visited him and expressed their opinion of the murderer with sundry "O dears," "poor thing," "the villain," etc.
Hong Di seems to enjoy the popularity he has gained, and stands behind the bars of his cell with a grin that seems to say, "What a great boy am I." His preliminary examination has been set for Friday, June 31.

The Salem Statesman is fighting the amendment and is losing much of its former influence.

San Diego Letter.

Ed. HERALD: I promised some time ago that I would send a few words to the HERALD now and then. I have not kept my word very well.

The city is still going ahead; it is spreading over the hills up the bay almost connecting with National City, also north toward Old Town. A motor road runs to both places, or will be in a few days.
Since I came here—now one year —the city has nearly doubled its population—then 7000; now over 12,000 besides Coronado across the bay, which numbers nearly 1000. One year ago not a family lived on Coronado peninsula.
Now a ferry boat is kept running until ten o'clock p. m., and many new buildings are going up, and among the number is Hotel Coronado, the largest hotel in the United States—larger than the Palace hotel of Frisco. It has an interior garden of over one acre, covered by a truss roof of glass covering. The base is of concrete.
Over 8000 barrels of cement have been used, making 17,000 barrels of concrete. Its cisterns hold 13, 000 barrels of water. A force of 200 men will be kept busy until Nov. next. It is thought by many that it will take one year to complete the structure. It will be four stories high, and stands directly on the bank of the Pacific ocean. The surf rolls up within twenty feet of the base. The front on the ocean side will be glass to break the ocean breeze, which is some times cold.

I have now been in San Diego a year, nearly, and can say something definite regarding this country, its climate and its health. The city is not as healthy as Oregon.
I never was in a place where as many complained of sickness in my life. It is thought by every one to be the water. It is hoped that when the supply of water comes from the mountain, it will improve the health of the city, and when the sewers are laid, that, too, must certainly help. Many working men have left because of bad health. The climate is always the same—scarce ever a storm. To any man in Oregon, with a comfortable little place, I would say, "stay with it." Yet men will not be contented. One year ago I would have given the world to see a broad prairie and bald hills. I would now give a fortune to see a forest.
No man need be ashamed to say he is from Oregon, with its forests, prairies and running streams.
Running water is unknown to this country. Nothing is talked of but making money in real estate.
When I think of the cold winters of Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska, I know that there are thousands of people in these states that would willingly live on claims to get to stay in this climate. It is one perpetual summer day; neither hot or cold. After a long residence here, a lazy, dreamy feeling creeps over you, that you cannot resist. The building up of this country is a grand thing for Oregon. Her forests are needed here.
Millions of feet of lumber will find a ready market here. Four and five trains of cars go from here daily into the interior, loaded with lumber and coal. Ships from the North come daily loaded with what California has not got—lumber and coal. I hear from towns all through the interior building up.
Health is much better in these, I am told.

Your old friend, Balch, is at work on the big hotel. Conant has gone north. W. H. Nosler is doing well in the express business.
Mr. Dewey has been very sick, but is now nearly well again.
I saw the largest turtle caught here that I ever heard of. It weighed 1,600 pounds. About the only fish that supply the market is the borraotta. It resembles the pike of the Atlantic coast—weight from six to eight pounds.

Mr. Morrison, formerly of Myrtle Point, is living near me, doing well, except he and Mrs. Morrison have very bad health. I would like to be at Coquille on Decoration Day. You will hear from me again.

Henry Nichols.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

[Coast Mail.]

The Nichols Bros. are fishing outside, in the ocean. It is reported that they are meeting with success. They use three boats.

Jake Mattson was convicted of an assault with a dangerous weapon at this term of circuit court, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

P. C. Levar purchased Dr. Mc-Cormac's buggy, and intends to take his stallion, "Rifleman," and drive over the Coos Bay Wagon Road and to California. He will leave this week.

G. W. Loggie and wife came down the beach on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Loggie was married a few days ago. The happy couple will receive hearty congratulations from the people of this county.

[Coos Bay News.]

California new potatoes sold in town last week for 3c per pound.

When the Arago sailed, Saturday, it was the intention of Capt.
Holt to return immediately.

Dunham's logging camp on the isthmus puts in the water, on an average, 50,000 feet of logs a day.

Hal Miller left on the Arago for Oakland, Cal., where his father, Joaquin Miller, now resides.

C. S. Noyes, of San Francisco, representing a wealthy eastern company, is inspecting the timber on Chadwick claim, with the intention of purchasing, so it is said. The above claim contains over 7,000 acres of as good cedar, fir and spruce timber as can be found on the Pacific coast. We hope to see a saw effected, which would probably mean another saw mill on the bay, and would liven business up amazingly.

The Civil Service Commissioners lately prepared and the President approved regulations establishing the principle of competitive examination for promotion in the classified service. The commission reported to the President in recommending the change that, except in the customs district of New York, all the evils resulting from the promotion system in vogue when the Civil Service law went into effect continued to exist. The new rules make any person attaining an average of 75 per cent. in the examinations eligible to promotion. The new rules will be tried first in the War Department, and if they are found to work successfully they will be applied later in the other departments. An examining board has just been nominated by the Secretary of War to carry out the rules. There has been more or less criticism of the rules since their promulgation, but most of it has apparently been due either to a misconception regarding the rules or to the fears of inefficient clerks as to their chances thereunder.— Bradstreets.

PATENTS GRANTED to the citizens of the Pacific States during the past week, and reported expressly for the HERALD, by C. A.
Snow & Co., Patent Lawyers, Washington, D. C.

A. K. Bagwell, Plainsburg, Cal., lifting jack; H. G. Blodget, Harrisburg, Ore., gold washer; W. S.
Getchell, Oakland, Cal., safety sight feed reflector; J. Shaw, Browns, W. T., hasp lock; L. Taylor, Butte Creek, Ore., railway tie; J. B. Wallace, Walla Walla, W. T., derrick; J. Peterson, San Francisco, wheelbarrow; L. G. Thompson, San Francisco, combined baling press and feeder.

Bandon Monthly Weather Report

for May, '87.
Temperature: max., 85; min., 44; mean, 53; below average 0.3. Rainfall, 5.11 inches—above average 2.13 inches. Number of days on which rain fell, 18; frost, 2; hail, 2; snow none. We had a heavy storm of wind and rain on the 7th inst., when 2.34 inches of rain fell. A hot wave passed over us on the 16th inst., arriving at its maximum about noon, when it reached 85 degrees. At 6 p. m. it had fallen to 56. The noon record was the highest ever reached here since our records commenced. Another hot wave on the 29th inst., but the highest figure reached was 76.
George Bennett, V. O.
Signal Service, U. S.

Our city dads have put in a good and substantial dock at the terminus of our county roads and steamer landing in this place. The work is of the most staying kind, and a little work to prevent interference of drift in the winter season, will make it absolutely secure, to our way of thinking. It fills a long-felt want and our dads are to be congratulated.

Wid Taylor and Albert Sneed have been on the Drs. hands here the last week; the former with a badly cut foot, and the latter, with a hand similarly treated. It would seem that Bear creek loggers are out of luck. Both have ugly cuts, but we trust that they will soon be able to swing their axes to better purpose.

A private letter from San Diego of May 26th, states that Mr.
Andrews, formerly of Myrtle Point, would leave on that day's boat for this place, and that the old gentleman would settle in Coquille. For this we are greatly pleased, for he is one of the best old men now living.

Geo. Stearns, a member of the firm of E. G. Young, & Co., Oakland, was rushing about on the river last week. He visited Bandon on Thursday. Mr. S. is one of Douglas county's solid men, and we hope his trip down here may prove to be one that will work as an anchor.

Charles Phillips who came over from the bay the latter part of the week informs us that Geo. Flanagan who had his leg broken some time since is rapidly recovering.
The bones are knitting nicely, and George will be out on crutches soon.

From Father J. Heinrich it is learned that the Bishop of this diocese will accompany him down this way during this month yet, going, possibly, as far down as Rogue river.

The Gold Beach Gazette sets up our southern Coosites in bad style for lack of enterprise to open their end of the county road coming up the coast.

Mr. Gardiner, a young man from Curry, and a son of S. B. Gardiner, spent Thursday in this place, while returning from school in the Willamette valley.

The Annie brought a family up from Bandon Thursday, and took them on up to the Point, and returned to Bandon in the afternoon.

Rev. Father Heinrich returning from Curry county on Thursday en route to the bay, took dinner here and met many of his friends.

Mr. P. P. Byrene, son-in-law of D. Cunniff, sr., disappeared very mysteriously from his home at Hunter's Cove, Curry county.

J. D. Baker, of South Coquille, visited us on Tuesday, with the irrepressible Patty.

Mr. W. C. Ballard, of Halls creek made the HERALD boys a call one day last week.

It was the intention to convene the circuit court for Curry county yesterday.

The salmon catch at Rogue river has been very light so far this spring.
