LOCAL ITEMS

Masonic festival here June 24.
Don't forget to patronize our new tonorial artist.

Andy Hoover has moved to Oakland, Douglas county.

The schooner Helen Merriam had not been raised at last accounts.
If you want a fine lot of fish from the beach, send to Andrew Tebo, Bandon.

Mr. F. Schetter, of Empire City, spent a couple of days here last week, with his family.

Mr. Switzer, superintendent of the Blacklock Sandstone company, was in town Wednesday.

Dr. Volkmar and Cal Shepherd have settled at Wilbur, Douglas county, says the Recorder.

A young man, step-son of W. L.
Land, died at Beaver slough and will be buried at this place to-day.

Mr. Jno. Flanagan, of Empire City, accompanied by Mr. Cam-man, paid this place a visit on Saturday.

The Portland Weekly News, the best weekly in Oregon, can be had for 60 cents from now till November 10th.

Al Deval, of Myrtle Point, has moved his barber shop to this place, and occupies a room at the Olive hotel.

The distance by stage between the O. & C., and the C. & O. railroads is but 20 miles, and this will be rapidly diminished.

We understand that the grand stand at the coming fair is to be a private affair which has been awarded to parties at Bandon.

The Fairview stage started on her first trip Friday. This makes a direct route to Roseburg and the world generally, from Coquille City.

The Parkersburg boys have made up two nines and they are said to be getting in for the base ball championship of this county the coming season.

The hot weather of Saturday and Sunday a week ago, visited California on the same days in the shape of hot winds and much damage to fruit and grain resulted.

Andrew Tebo, of this place, has gone to Bandon to fish for a while.
Send him your orders for fish, crabs or clams. He will send you a fine lot of either or all, very cheap.

Here's your chance—the Portland Daily News from this, till Nov. 10th for $3.50; a good fresh daily with news from every point of the world every night. Subscribe at once.

Mr. Geo. Anderson, partner with Joe Johnson in the Coquille City and Coos bay stage line, moved his family down from Camas valley last Saturday, adding eight more to the city's population.

Work on the Masonic hall is progressing nicely. The frame—a neat and substantial one—is up, the siding for the lower story on and painted, and work going on on the inside below, and on the outside above.

Hiram Moore, of Johnson Mountain, visited Coos bay Saturday. He informs us that the Johnson Mountain Mining company have a mile of flume to build yet, but will have it completed in a month. Mr. M. has been at these mines for 13 months, notwithstanding the heavy snows of last winter there.

Brother Chilstrom, of the Recorder, in speaking of his prediction that actual work, aside from preparations on the breakwater would not be commenced before June 1st, and how in the forenoon of Wednesday June 1st, the first pile was actually driven, intimates that he can beat all such predictions too easy when he is in practice.

Mr. Marshall, the old gentleman who got the contract for furnishing piling for the government works, has been relieved of the said contract, and J. Harry Hunt has it now at his bid of 4 1/2 cents per foot. Mr. Marshall drove down a raft of 40 piles some time since, and in booming them near the breakwater where they were required to be used, the swell from the sea caused him to lose most of them. All the parties concerned have our sympathy.

The Masonic festival here June 24 will be the event of the season.

"For a shave, as good as any barber ever gave," call on Al Deval, Olive hotel.

E. W. Sprague moved to his ranch near the Deitz place below Beaver slough last week.

Mrs. J. Snyder, of the Western hotel, Marshfield, spent the past week here visiting her parents and sister.

Asa Myers, of Norway, was in town yesterday. He is slowly recovering from his long-standing rheumatism.

Burt McDuffee is the painter on the Masonic temple. Burt is a good painter, having served an apprenticeship in Iowa.

The road between this place and Utter City is said by those passing over it, to be the best in the county. There is more travel over it, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, father and mother of the poor drowned John, passed down to Bandon yesterday, to await the recovery of the body.

J. J. Wilson has a lot of the prettiest vest chains that you have seen, and he is selling them immensely cheap. Go buy one of them.

The Ceres came down yesterday, having been repaired, and is now in apple pie order to run the freight and passenger business on upper river.

Herring can be scooped up with dip-nets at the mouth of the river in large quantities. The water some days seems to be fairly alive with them.

We learn that the hot weather of Saturday and Sunday a week ago actually injured some kinds of small fruit on some of the upper branches of the river.

L. Pewtherer, agent for the Northwest Fire and Marine Insurance Co., of Portland, was here a few days last week. His company is said to be a reliable one.

From the Recorder we learn that Mr. R. H. Rosa is putting new machinery in his mill near Bandon that will double the capacity of the mill's present output.

The new Masonic temple in this place is making the most conspicuous building in town by odds.
Being 40 feet high in the body, and so large it could not be otherwise.

No Schooners were in sight yesterday when the Antelope came up, but it is expected that by to-day the whole fleet for this river will be in sight, and possibly some of the schooners get in.

Rev. Scofield, of Dora, and Mr.
H. Black of Sumner went below on Saturday to conduct religious services at Lamprey creek. Rev.
Scofield will preach here the 3rd Sunday in this month.

A strawberry festival will be given at the Pioneer church near Lamprey creek next Saturday night, June 11th. All are cordially invited. Admission—remember the cream and strawberries—only 25 cents.

We had four legal holidays in the eight days preceding yesterday—two Sundays, Decoration and Labor Days. Well, its all right; they will have to come lots thicker and faster than that to beat a Coquiller.

Capt. Littlefield was up from his work on the breakwater the forepart of the week. The Capt. is afflicted with boils on the back of his neck and does not arch that part of his person in making his graceful obeisance as he used to do.

Frost at this season of the year is a very rare occurrence in this part, but we learn that it did considerable damage on upper North Coquille one night last week.
Traces of it were noticeable here on fences, etc., but we hear of no damage in this vicinity.

A Sunday school picnic will be had by our Sunday school next Saturday in Allen Collier's grove.
Every one is invited to come, bring along his or her basket and join in for a good time generally. Remember this and be on hand. Rev.
Campbell will deliver an address.

A rape fiend in the person of Frank McCutchen was convicted at the term of circuit court just adjourned in this county, and has gone up for five years—a just sentence.

Those calendar alarm clocks at J. J. Wilson's, are just the prettiest things out, and useful and cheap besides. They are excellent time keepers, and keep the day of the month in addition.

Owing to the muddy condition of the roads during the winter and fore part of spring, Mr. Holverstott, of Fairview, allowed his beautiful carriage to remain in Gallier & Son's shop where it was built early last winter, till Sunday, when he took it out home under flying colors.

The Steamer Little Annie was taken around to Coos bay on last Saturday. She was towed by the tug Katie Cook, but steamed too, herself and made the trip in good shape. The Annie, now owned by Geo. Flanagan and Ren Smith, will hereafter run on Coos river and Coos bay. The boys that went on the Annie around to the bay or at least some of them got sick.

The steamer Myrtle, lately purchased by Capt. Levi Snyder and Engineer Frank Barroas, has been put in fine condition, and the boys sent a crew to-day to bring her around by sea to the river from Coos bay where she is in waiting.
She will be in the river by to-morrow night if the weather is suitable. We learn that she will run from here to the mouth of the Coquille and back every day, remaining over night at Coquille City.

R. E. Buck, our liveryman, left for Roseburg on Sunday, to get a horse he had hired out to a man who, it seems, had business a long ways beyond that point. Aside from losing the use of the horse for a couple of weeks, Mr. B. will have to pay a pasture bill, lose his time and pay his expenses on the trip. Should Mr. B. run across, his man, or the horse prove disin-clined to leave Douglas county pastures, our Roseburg friends will be treated to a genuine sample of Bucking.

TENT MEETING.—Eld. Wm. Potter of the Seventh Day Adventist church will commence a series of tent meetings in this place near A.
G. Aikin's residence on Saturday evening June 11th, and will continue as the interest may demand. See small bills. Eld. Potter arrived a few days since from East Portland, and has the appearance of a very pleasant gentleman, and we predict an intellectual treat for all who may hear him. Eld. J. C.
Bunch formerly of this town, will assist Eld. Potter, and we bespeak for them good audiences and good behavior on the part of the young people.

Up River Items.

Ed. Herald:—Time flies and the crops are growing up this way.
Travel has commenced on the East fork road to and from the Valleys over the Range.

Joe. Clinton passed down the other morning with his wagon and team that wintered out in Josephine Co. It all looked like there were hard times out in Josephine.

The two young men that went out to Douglas, and Jackson counties to peddle not long since, have both returned. They report times dull out there, and nothing to trade on but digger squirrels and jack-rabbits, and they are below par.

Mr. J. C. Bunch has gone out to Roseburg with his team to bring Elder, Potter and wife in, as they intend to spend the summer and autumn in Coos Co.

Uncle John Critser, as he is commonly called, is reported very sick, out at Roseburg.

Mr. Crosby's fine horse, Captain Sligart, was taken in the South fork country last week. He has produced some of the best stock in Coos county. Every body should see R. C. Dement's young colts, as proof of this matter.

Samuel Johnson has a nice lot of young cattle, as well as nice hogs. Sam is a great hog man, and has a nice lot of choice bacon for sale. We think that the South fork is the place for nice stock any way, as every one seems to want to get a calf or a pig from up there.

Harve Minard is running his saw mill on East fork on full time.

He is cutting a large bill of lumber for W. P. Mast, of North fork, for a large barn. Web Mast is the teamster that is doing the hauling.
What we now want is a good bridge across the river so that people can get to mill in good shape.

Our Shiloh school teacher is doing fine. His only trouble seems to be in the management of so many large girls, as some are larger than he is. Oh! it is bad to be small, especially in a school room, among so many large girls for pupils.

LATER—Elder Potter has arrived at Gravel Ford on East Portland. He and his lady had a hard trip coming over from Roseburg.

John Critser and Mrs. Samuel Shuck started out to-day for Roseburg to see their father, Uncle John Critser, who was not expected to live, at last accounts.

Grand Entertainment!
Editor HERALD:—Permit me through your columns to announce that there will be a Sunday school entertainment and strawberry festival held at the Pioneer church building on the lower Coquille, Saturday evening, June 11th, '87.
This will be the feature of the season on the lower river, and all are invited to attend. Tickets have been placed at the small sum of 25cts, including a dish of strawberries and cream, children half price. The performances will be varied, consisting of choice selections of declamations and dialogues, with a little of the darkey, slight-of-hand, songs, tableaux, essays, etc., to be concluded by playing the universally appreciated
"Bridge of Sighs."

A Curious Suit.
Sacramento, June 1.—On the 30th, of May, 1885, the overland train was just pulling out of Rocklin, when a drunken man named Frank Kampmier pulled a pistol from his pocket. The weapon was discharged and little May Pinkham, a girl 14 years old, fell dead, shot through the heart. Kampmier was arrested and tried, but the jury failed to convict him, believing that the shooting was accidental.

Dr. Pinkham, father of the dead girl, yesterday filed a complaint in the county clerk's office against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for $50,000 damages for selling Kampmier a ticket. The complaint alleges that Kampmier was heavily intoxicated, and was in a condition dangerous to the safety of other passengers, and the agent of the company knew he was in such a condition when he sold him the ticket. It then recites the facts of the killing. Judgement is asked as above.

BORN.

On Seven Mile, near Randolph, June 31, to the wife of J. N. Russel, a son; weight 10 pounds. Mother and child doing well.

In Coquille City May 31, to the wife of Clay H. Lewis, a daughter.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisis, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from the first bottle and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by J. H. Nosler's.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger.
Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at J. H. Nosler's drug store.

DROWNED.
JOHNNY SIMPSON OF SIMPSON
BROS. Succumb to a Heavy Sea And is Drowned on Coquille Bar. Body Not Recovered at Last Accounts.

Last Friday afternoon John C.
Simpson, the senior member of the firm of Simpson Bros., the fish-men and coopers on the lower river, than whom there is no more enterprising in the state, started out to sea over the bar at the mouth of the Coquille with a net to fish. He sat in the boat facing the bow, pushing, until he got near the breakers, when he was seen by those ashore to stand up, but kept on his course. A pretty heavy sea was running, and a "comber" was seen to strike under the bow of the boat when it was climbing a swell and the bow pointing upward, thus turning the boat a summersault, and it is supposed struck Mr. S. and injured him. The boat remained bottom up for some time, but the poor man was never seen to come to it. An object looking about like a duck was seen to start from near the boat and head for the nearest point of land, and this was noticed for twenty minutes, when it disappeared. There is little doubt but what this was our friend, which becomes more plausible when it is known that the oars of the boat came ashore in just one hour at the point the moving object aforesaid seemed heading for, while it was three hours before the boat came in. John was an excellent swimmer, and it is the most natural thing in the world for him to take his oars and strike out for shore. It is even a mystery that he did not make land unless he was in some way injured by the fall of the boat when capsized. He was out about northwest of the end of the breakwater, and it was the last breaker on the bar that he had to pass that upset his boat.

Another theory is he got fouled in his net, and that the body is yet probably fast to it. If this is true, the body will likely be recovered to-day, as an attempt will be made to haul up the net, as it is known to be there yet, by one of the barrels that was used as a buoy on it remaining there in the surf where the accident happened. Capt.
Brown and Capt. Snyder went out Sunday afternoon and did as well as two men possibly could in a small boat, and that, too, at the peril of their lives for which they deserve great credit, and good will of all the many friends of deceased, to recover the body, but without success.

Mr. Simpson was an experienced fisherman having followed it for years on Eel river. He did not know fear in any shape or form, and his family predicted years ago that he would drown by being too venturesome, when he used to venture over Eel river bar when no one else would think of it.

Mr. Simpson came from Humboldt county, California, nearly three years ago, and he was a favorite with every one there, as well as those with whom he had become acquainted here. His parents reside near Dora, in this county. He was 28 years old. It is the unanimous verdict that an honest, noble and useful citizen has passed away.
Peace to his ashes.
