Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, June 20th, 1887.

More than likely the sultry summer heat of the past few days, has not been an unmitigated evil. Personal comfort is very apt to set aside every other pursuit which does not aid in its attainment.

The recent topics of ordinary conversation and of news paper discussion, have not tended to alleviate, but rather to irritate the natural excitability of men when their sentiments are touched upon.

The St. Louis episode, where the municipality and the G. A. R. both seemed inclined to disclaim the responsibility for the invitation of the president of the United States to that city, during the period of a celebration which belonged peculiarly to the latter, was instrumental in stirring up considerable feeling.

More recently, the battle-flag controversy, over-shadowed the first topic, and with the electric qualities of both speed and heat, was likely to have assumed a decidedly angry look, but thanks to the torrid wave, the multitude spontaneously sought some less heating diversion. When the thermometer is indicating ninety degrees, suffering and perspiring humanity forgets all else save a desire to mop its face, fan itself, divest itself of superfluous raiment, and administer cooling decoctions to the interior department. The politicians will, however, manage to keep these topics alive for a while longer, in the hope of making capital for their respective parties; but the promise of the era of good feeling which all patriots hope for and expect, grows brighter and nearer fulfillment every year, and no one thoughtfully considering all the circumstances of the case will be discouraged by these incidents.

The action of the president in promptly and sensibly abandoning the proposed return of captured flags, when he discovered what its effect would be upon the minds of a large class of people, and that a doubt existed as to the legality of the transfer by him unauthorized by congress, should end the matter. Although, doubtless intended to promote the good feeling which was so conspicuously displayed here at the national drill, and is now being exhibited by the entertainment at Boston and Lynn, and elsewhere, of Robert E. Lee, camp of Confederate veterans, by Grand Army of the republic's posts, it had the effect of reopening the not entirely cicatrized wounds; but the balm of better acquaintance with the persons and motives of each other, will eventually heal these tender spots, until a complete reconciliation of the sections will be effected.

These two questions, referred to, having occurred almost simultaneously, and the prominence which the Grand Army of the Republic has taken in each, has had the effect of attracting considerable attention to that organization here and elsewhere. Having no political meaning, from a partisan standpoint, this organization is but a kindred one to those that have existed in most countries, and notably in that of France. It is a power in the nation, but a power exerted in behalf of loyalty to country, and beneficence toward the country's defenders. In this city, the order has some peculiar features, such as the Department Employment committee, which sees to the enforcement of the provisions of law respecting the preference to be given to soldiers and sailors, other things being equal, both for appointment to and retention in office; a pension committee which aids the soldier, his widow and orphan, in the establishment of proofs necessary to place them on the pension rolls of a relief corps, which comes to the succor of comrades who are brought here in the hope of obtaining either pension or employment, and whose means have become exhausted, and, lastly, the important part taken in all parades and ceremonies of a national character.

These features necessarily place this department of the G. A. R. in the foreground, as a representative one, and a glance at its present condition here, may be of interest. The new building known as G. A. R. Hall, is one of the most imposing, on the most prominent thoroughfare of the city. It is directly opposite one of the first hotels, and is a welcome improvement over the old dilapidated buildings which stood upon its site so long, to the wonder af strangers looking from the hotel front. It is four stories in hight, all but the ground floor being used for Grand Army purposes. On the second floor is a splendid hall with ante-rooms, etc., and the third and fourth are devoted to the uses of the different posts of the department.

The organization here is in a prosperous condition, and numbers upon its muster rolls, our most prominent and influential citizens of private and official life.

PATENTS GRANTED to the citizens of the Pacific States during the past week, and reported expressly for the HERALD, by C. A. Snow & Co., Patent lawyers, Opp. U. S. patent office, Washington, D.C.

R M Webb, San Francisco, timber-roll; E Nyswonger, Hanford, Cal, combined lock and latch; J R Mitchell, Oakland, Cal, portable steam boiler; W Forward, Shingleton, Cal, construction of navigable vessels; F Altman, San Jose Cal, windmill; N H Wheeler, Corvallis, Oregon, device for swaging insertable saw-teeth; D L Vess, Spokane Falls, W T, car-coupling.

Miss Minerva Spaurs has spent several days in this place since her school at Iowa slough was out. Her patrons are said to be much pleased with her work.

Two men, Ed Johnson and Joe Grover, were badly mashed up at Seely's camp on South Coos river a few days ago.

Coquille City, Or.

Haircutting, Shaving and Shampooing etc. at short notice. Shop in the OLIVE hotel.

TO SELL OR TRADE.

One of the prettiest and best places in Southern Oregon situated 8 miles south of Grants Pass in Josephine county. The place consists of 331 acres; 100 acres in cultivation 50 of red clover from which two crops can be had each year. A good house, barns, orchard, and a good grist mill which has a good patronage. Irrigation ditch that covers nearly the whole place. There are hundreds of other items that might be mentioned in favor of the place if space allowed, but Coquillers who have seen the place say it is a picture of loveliness and is as good as it is pretty. The owner is tired of milling, wants to come to the coast. He will exchange for good property in Coquille valley, or sell for $8,500 part on time.

Address Lewis Strong,
Murphy, Josephine Co., Oregon.

MONEY TO LOAN

Is not a circumstance to the great offer made below. Mr. J. W. Wimer, postmaster at Murphy, Josephine county, desiring to locate near the coast, wishes to exchange his splendid farm for one in close proximity to Coquille City—two miles at the furthest, or will sell for $6000. His place consists of 320 acres; 100 acres in cultivation, and 200 under fence. Of this, 160 acres fine, bottom, and 160 level red land, the improvements on which are three good orchards, of 700 trees—peaches, prunes, pears, apples, cherries, walnuts, almonds, filberts, persimmons, mulberries, etc., etc., and also a nice, large vineyard, and all kinds of berries; three large barns, one 46x56 feet, another 48x56 and the other 36x86; a fine dwelling, main building 16x48, two stories high and hall through center, with "L" kitchen, porches, etc.; a well of fine water at the door; a cellar 18x32 with 9-foot stone walls and good smoke-house over the same; a carp pond of one acre, well supplied with carp. The location is a healthy one, in 7 miles of railroad and in 7½ miles of the town of Grant's Pass. The Murphy post office is on the premises. A big lot of machinery to go with the place.

Apply to J. W. Wimer,
Murphy, Josephine county, Oregon.

COAL! COAL! !

W. R. Panter will deliver stone coal on the bank of the river at his landing for $2.50 in bulk; in sacks—sacks furnished—$3 per ton.
