The Growth of Prohibition.

There is no disguising the fact that the cause of prohibition is rapidly advancing throughout the country at large. Recent elections show this, but only partially. There are hundreds of thousands of men who, while not caring to identify themselves with a third party movement, are determined to wrest American politics from saloon domination. The movement is strictly national, at least in so far as it is not sectional, though prominent politicians in the south are perhaps more outspoken than their northern colleagues, and it is predicted that in ten years the south will be more thoroughly prohibition than the north. At any rate, it is the most potent and practical factor ever devised for breaking up that southern solidity which all deep thinking men must deplore. Senator Reagan of Texas has struck a chord which has found a wider response than was expected. Hon. D. B. Culbertson, a member of congress from Texas for many years, echoes the sentiments of many politicians north as well as south when he said: "For one, I believe the time has arrived when this despotism should be broken and overthrown and the welfare of the people emancipated from this thraldom."

Even the great dailies of New-York city are awakening to a realization that something must be done to cripple the rum power. In twenty-one states during the recent legislative season, the law-making power has been called upon to take measure for checking the growth of the saloon. So conservative a journal as the New York Observer, which certainly never allows its religious convictions to degenerate into anything like a fanaticism, goes so far as to admit that "public men, men of affairs, judges, statesmen, political leaders, who have hitherto held themselves aloof from the discussion of temperance, are now taking sides in the conflict and many of the ablest and best of them have openly declared against the business of manufacturing drunkards. The lines are being more and more sharply drawn every day between the adherents of the rum-shop and the friends of peace, order and sobriety."

Politicians may as well recognize facts as they are. The saloon element has been catered to long enough. The anti-saloon Republican movement is but the beginning of what is destined to be an earnest and wide-spread protest against the arrogant domination of the saloon in politics. The awakening that has taken place in twenty-one states is no mere ebullition of enthusiasm and fanaticism, but may be fairly considered as the premonition of a great national reform.—Daily News.

Mr. Ed Nichols, lately from San Diego informs us that while there he had to pay 10 cents per lb for apples, while ours were rotting up here and could be had for the taking. It is singular that markets are not looked after better by producers.

Our coming fair should have an unusual interest for our people just now. It will be on hand in a a little over six weeks, and exhibitors should bear this in mind. We expect to see a fine display in the pavilion. Again we would remind the people that the time is short, and of the necessity of hurrying up.

The story of a Michigan man having been devoured by wolves should be taken with many grains of allowance. His books haven't been examined yet and no one can say it isn't an improvement on the old-fashioned method of skipping to Canada. And, too, Michigan wolves have feelings which can be injured by such canards.—Detroit Free Press.

Taking into consideration the number of bridges to be built, and the muddy places on roads to be planked, would it not be a paying investment for the county to purchase a portable saw mill?

Cap' Ben Lewis' who has been for a long time in Simpson Bros. employ, will have charge of the new steamer Signal, lately launched at North Bend. The signal will carry 500,000 feet of lumber, and will draw when loaded 15 feet. She will be ready for sea next week.

Harry and Geo. Nicholls, with the assistance of two others, are catching and drying rock cod and red fish off the Cape for the San Francisco market. They have been very successful in fishing, with the exception of the latter part of the past week, when the foggy weather prevented them going off shore.

[Coast Mail.]

Part of the frame of the stave mill was raised on Tuesday, and a large force of men are at work pushing the structure towards completion.

The people of Sumner are happy in prospect of an approaching boom. It is reported that Mr. Loggie has written parties there in reference to procuring ties for the railroad, and corner lots in that quiet village are on the rise.

Crops are looking fine on the Coquille, and soon a bountiful harvest will be upon us; the hay crop is the best ever known here. Mr. Ed. Pugh, who lives one mile above Myrtle Point, cut fifteen tons of hay off three acres of ground.

Hong Di Lynched.

Colusa, Cal., July 10.—At 9:20 o'clock this morning the jury gave a verdict of guilt of murder in the first degree with imprisonment for life in the case of Hong Di, the murderer of Mrs. Billion. When the reading of the verdict was finished pistols were drawn in court and it was only with the greatest care that Hong Di was removed to jail. An immense mob gathered about the place and all was excitement and uproar. They finally dispersed, with the probable intention of putting an end to Hong Di's life after dark.

9 P. M.—The people are pouring into the city from all directions, all with the avowed intention of taking part in the convicted Chinaman's hanging. It is stated the latter has been removed from jail and is now in hiding.

12:40 Monday morning. Hong Di was taken from jail and hanged by the mob.

(Bandon Beach Estate (663 Acres) For Sale.

CONTAINING the RACE COURSE, AGATE Beach, Horseshoe Bay, the Renowned Caves. The latter are about in the center of the beach resorted to for health and recreation, and which, down to low water line is the exclusive property of the owner by right of patent. The frontage on the beach, which is nearly a mile in length, has an unobscured view of the Pacific Ocean, and is admirably adapted for villas, hotels, etc., the northern boundary adjoining the lands of A. Giromi, the entire frontage of which has been already disposed of in building lots. The beach itself extends to a considerable distance north of the frontage, and also south of it, and contains a large quantity of red and white cedar, redwood, spruce, ash, maple and myrtle brought in by every tide. The patentee is also entitled to all mines, minerals, medicinal springs, clam and oyster beds, waifs and estrays thereon.

The temperature is unequaled in the United States for equability, there being only 13 degrees between the monthly mean of January, the coldest month of the year—the average of which is 46 deg. —and that of July and August, the hottest—the average of which is 59 (see Signal Service Report). The inside lands, about 340 acres of which are more or less cleared land under fence are suitable for dairying, or raising cattle or sheep as well as for grain, roots, etc., and the entire when cleared (and this is easily accomplished, as the timber has been permitted to grow only since the white man settled here about 30 years since,) will maintain a large number of cattle, and also adapted for for the ordinary products of agriculture in a temperate climate.

Easy terms will be given, nearly the entire purchase money being allowed to lie on the lands for a long time. The northern line of these inside lands is only half a mile from the postoffice, store, shipping wharves, etc., of the rising seaport town of Bandon, which is situated at the mouth of the Coquille, a river navigable for seagoing ships for 30 or 40 miles from its mouth, and where building lots of a frontage of 30 feet are selling for $500 and upwards.
