LOCAL ITEMS.

Go on the Myrtle to the fair. McMillan is doing a business office business.—Coos Bay News.

The huge skeleton of a mastodon was unearthed at Stockton, Ill., last week.

Miss "Pet" Cawfield, of Roseburg, was visiting Mrs. J. P. Messer last week.

J. J. Wilson is doing the best of work at his watchmaking trade, but he requires the cash.

Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, denies that he was killed by savages, yet he fails to tell how, and by whom it was done.

Mr. J. M. Perkins, of Parkersburg was up here yesterday looking for hogs. He wants quite a number to eat his pea crop.

We acknowledge a complimentary ticket to the state fair, which commences Sept. 12 and ends Sept. 17. It is probable that we will attend.

J. P. Cody, a nephew of Buffalo Bill's, was taken down with hydrophobia at his home, at Council Grove, Kans., a few days ago, the result of a cat bite.

Miss Laura Beyers will not begin her school here on the 5th of Sept. but will begin on Monday, Sept. 19th. Remember this, you that have children to send.

If your watches, clock and jewelry need repairing send them to J. J. Wilson, the watchmaker, in this place. He is a splendid workman, and does good, honest work.

Mr. George Flanagan, of the bay, was in attendance on the institute here last week. He has recovered almost entirely from the fracture of his leg that kept him so confined lately.

Mr. J. R. Hendricks, of Douglas county, and a step-son of Mr. S. H. Emerson formerly of this place, arrived here on Friday in the interest of the Oregon Statesman, published at Salem. Mr. H. made this office a pleasant call.

Immediately after the fair Mr. Ramsdell, the photographer, will return here to Coquille City and remain several days, then proceed on down the river, stopping at Iowa slough, Parkersburg, etc. He is a good artist. Give him a good patronage.

Hon. B. Hermann and family, of Roseburg, arrived here on Wednesday and proceeded to Bandon, where Mr. H. will inspect the government work, then proceed up the coast to see those in progress and contemplation at the mouth of Coos bay, Umpqua, Suislaw, Yaquina bay, etc. Our people were much pleased to see our worthy congressman.

See the splendid picture 14x17 inches on exhibition at Ramsdell's gallery. All who know Miss Alice Snyder will acknowledge it as being a perfect likeness of her, and very life-like. The picture is the same as generally sells for $30 here. It is as enduring as possible and is only to be seen to be admired.

A story comes from England of an aged woman murdering her own son for his money. The son came to America when a boy and recently returned to his parents a rich man. He concealed his identity, but insisted on receiving their hospitality giving his mother his money and valuables. Learning of its being her son after she had cut his head off with a hatchet she only said that he should have told her who he was.

The attendance of Prof. J. B. Horner, of the Roseburg school, at our institute last week, was of interest as well as profit to our people here. He is one of the best educators in the state, and is, withal, a splendid gentleman. While here he introduced a work entitled "Book-keeping for Beginners," published by himself; a work that every pupil in our schools who study that branch should have. The book can be had of the Professor, for 25 cents per copy. Write him at Roseburg.

Go to the fair to-morrow, and take it all in.

Cattle are dying in Texas by the thousands for lack of water.

Uncle Jas. Clinton and wife, of North fork, were in town yesterday.

The Panama canal project will prove too big a job and yet be abandoned.

Johnny Baker moved down from Canas valley, and has settled in this place.

Henry Stanley, of Canas valley, has been here for several days, having come thus early to the fair.

You should secure a dozen of those fine photos before McMillan goes away. Now is the time.—Coast Mail.

The steamer Myrtle will run to the fair grounds and back to this place every day during the fair. Remember this.

Mrs. John Rogers was run over by a hotel hack at Albany last week and was killed. She was aged seventy-two years.

Work left with Hon. J. H. Roberts Myrtle Point for J. J. Wilson the watchmaker in this place, will receive prompt attention.

Don Short, a former typo on the HERALD, returned from Gray's Harbor last week. He made us a pleasant call on Wednesday.

Mrs. Willard and Mrs. Leneve will be pleased to see as many of their friends as possible at their restaurant at the fair this week.

Miss Mollie Lehman finished her school on Four Mile a couple of weeks since, and came up to attend the teachers' institute on Tuesday.

Mr. Casebolt and family arrived here a few days ago from Colorado. They have located in town and Mr. C. is employed as engineer in Lyons' mill.

County Judge D. L. Watson was in town on Wednesday. He informed us that his oldest daughter had the misfortune to fall from the school house steps and break her arm at Coos City a week ago Friday.

Mr. A. G. Aiken lost a pair of silver framed spectacles between this place and Brewster valley last week. Should any one find them he will confer a great favor by returning them to the owner as he prized them very much.

Hon. J. H. Roberts has purchased the store of Edwards, Burke & Co., Myrtle Point, and is now doing a rushing business at the old stand. Mr. R. is an energetic, live and accommodating gentleman and we trust will prove a successful merchant.

Don't hang back but take along your exhibits to the fair. It is generally the case that about half the people going to such places feel sorry when they see the different articles on exhibition that they did not bring along some article for exhibition.

We call your attention to McMillan Bros. new ad, in another column. The quality of their work is well known to every one on the Coquille, and at the low price they are offering their fine work on this visit, will certainly cause a rush at their gallery, which will be located near the mill from Sept. 1st till the 15th.

McMillan is doing an immense business. Everyone is taking advantage of the low price he is making his fine photos at.—Coos Bay News.

O. E. Smith, the Marshfield dentist, than whom there is no better in Oregon, will visit the Coquille the first of September, professionally.

An Apology.

In the HERALD's last issue appeared an item headed "What can you do about it?"—in which the unprofitableness of letting school buildings for hire was made apparent. The following passage appears in the text: "Not a dollar was ever known to have been collected or paid into the school treasury." This assertion is taken exception of by a certain party interested in the inquiry. It is affirmed that one at least has paid rent, which, certainly the writer would not dispute, and does not now dispute. The inspiration that gave open to the objectionable sentence was gotten from a member of the school board; and the writer did no more than give form to the director's meaning over his own signature.

To the end of vindicating aforesaid party and quieting a body's painfully sensitive nerves, and, to assure one and all that no malice aforesaid dictated the sentence, the writer took the pains to interview several of the school directors of the old board and some of the new. While some were of the opinion that rent had been paid, others knew absolutely nothing about it. Not satisfied with opinions unsupported by proof, the apologist sought Mr. E. B. Miller and mildly requested him to look up the books and vouchers. The records being produced, and with the kind assistance of a member of the board and Mr. Miller, a thorough examination was instituted. After much searching and turning over of pages the examiners discovered an entry toward the payment of twelve dollars by Miss Lehman on rent account; and another of one dollar and sixty five cents from Mr. Harvey on the same. More than this was not to be found. The apologist does not venture to say that this is all that has ever been paid. Millions may have been paid; but, until documents in proof are produced, we must assume that this is all that was ever paid.

Figures will tell if the writer of the objectionable sentence did not come very near the truth.

The rental of the house so far as he has been able to ascertain, is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. Harvey 3 months $30.00, Miller & Welch 6 " 60.00, Tobias 6 " 60.00, Lehman 7 " 70.00.

Total 220.00, Less amounts paid 13.65, Due the district $206.35.

Here I rest my apology.

Now for a closing paragraph for the benefit of those who favor the letting of the school building. The writer has shown that two hundred dollars or more is due from lessees to the district; and it is safe to say, that no appreciable part of it will ever be collected. In fact it could not be collected in the courts if the lessees will show that they have used the premises to the ends that a public school building is designed. Ten to one the directors would be non-suited. But, the two hundred dollars have actually been collected of the people by the lessees; they have changed that much more for tuition and got the money.

What can you do about it? Bad man of Wicked Hollow.

Messrs. Bibb and Weeks looking at the Port Orford county for San Francisco capitalists were in town yesterday. They find that while most of the people of Port Orford are accommodating and reasonable, that some are demanding more for rights and property than they would be worth if all contemplated improvements and investments were actually made; and there will nothing come out of the present opportunity for a great benefit to that part of the country. How long will greed and short sighted avarice stand in the way of our material prosperity? It is said that $5,000 damage was asked for right of way across a certain block in Port Orford, when it was a notorious fact that not one-quarter that amount could have been realized on the lot only for the boom in consequence of the prospective railroad. As it is we have little sympathy for such people, and trust that the more energetic portion of the place will soon be able to get possession of this property of the town and use it to their advantage and no have it against them.

G. A. R. Encampment.

The encampment just closed of the G. A. R. at Bandon was an affair long to be remembered. On Thursday the festivities opened, but large numbers had been camped on the grounds for a week or more previous to that. The camp life was hugely enjoyed by all who participated. Most of the crowd going down from here, we can vouch for their jollity.

The parades, drills and dances were grand and largely participated in by the people there. On Friday Congressman Hermann delivered a very interesting address which was duly appreciated. On Saturday Senator Siglin also delivered a telling speech, which was full of interest. Col. Wright spoke on Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, and Mr. Abe L. Nosler read a very interesting paper before the assembled veterans.

There will be several hundred cords of tan bark along the river that will of necessity be left over until next spring, as it cannot be shipped away before the rainy season sets in.

The steamer Thistle made three trips to the Klamath last week up to Sunday, bringing salmon to the number of about eighteen hundred. She runs in and out at the mouth of Rogue river at any time during the day or night without regard to the weather, often crossing the bar in the middle of the night, or in the thickest kinds of fogs.

Binger Hermann. Our congressman of the republican stock. Who belongs to the raid called Sherman. Is always of use in the county of Coos. And his name is Binger Hermann. His constituents call him Hermann. It is strange but yet true that some demagogues will vote for the one who promises to give them a good government. But a man always votes for the one who promises to give them a good government. We should like to see our congressman. And we hope the next coming election of state. Our probable course will determine. And without politics, will place in a fix. The one who opposes our Hermann. Our solid good congressman Hermann. DEPARTURE.

Trace Up. You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at J. H. Nosler's Drug Store.

Great Britain is memorializing President Cleveland for a board of arbitrators to settle difficulties between the two countries. This is a far better way than to keep quiet and send out men-of-war on a very slight or no provocation at all; yet it will be a difficult task to convince the American people that England would resort to this if she felt able to back us.
