Zamloch!
Go and hear the lady lecture to-night.

Miss Beyers has a good attendance at her school.

Do not fail to hear the lecture to-night. Mrs. Weeden has come a long way to talk to you.

Mr. Thos. W. Johnson, of Dora, called on us Saturday. He reports times quiet out his way.

Alex Smith has moved his family to town, and they occupy the Hermann house on Front street.

Grandpa Lyons and family left for Oakland, California, on Wednesday. Our best wishes are extended to them.

Mr. Edward Pugh, of the upper river, accompanied by his step-son, paid the HERALD office a pleasant call yesterday.

Hon. W. P. Mast and L. L. Harman, of Paradise valley, were in town on Saturday trading and selling farm supplies.

J. J. Wilson, the watchmaker, left yesterday morning for a two or three week's trip to Crescent City, Cal. Bon voyage, Jerry.

This delightful weather is the time to have the little ones' pictures taken. McMillan takes them instantaneously, for $4.00 per dozen. Cabinets.

Grand Marter Mason Stroude of Portland accompanied by Mr. Andrew Nasburg of Marshfield and another Masonic leader arrived here last night.

From J. W. Wimer we learn that his brother "Billy," formerly editor of the Courier, is greatly improved, but is still suffering from inflammatory rheumatism.

The run of salmon on the lower river continues good, while at this place the catch for a one-man boat is from ten to twenty-five per night. These are all of the sixty-cent size.

The 11-year-old son of W. H. Holverstott, of Fairview had his face and eyes badly burned by powder a few days ago. His father brought him to town last night for treatment.

The contemplated railroad from Central Manitoba to the line of Minnesota to connect with the Northern Pacific will yet be a success, though it is bitterly opposed by England.

Mrs. Jane E. Weeden will lecture on prohibition in this place this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. Go and hear her. She is a very able exponent of the great moral question now pending.

Johnson and Stone are doing a rushing business at their market. They have averaged in their sales of beef lately, over one animal a day, and that in addition to the pork and mutton sold.

The schooner Lizzie Prien finished loading at Lyons' mill in this place on Friday afternoon and was towed below on Saturday morning. She took 170,000 feet of lumber in addition to other freight. She will return here.

The mail route between this place and Fairview has been discontinued, to take effect October 1st. Our mail will then come via Marshfield or Myrtle Point. We will get our mail a little earlier, but that sent away will be a day behind.

Mr. John Whittington and sister, of South Coquille, called on us Saturday, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Minnie Whittington, of Wyoming, who is visiting them. The latter will return home in the spring via San Francisco.

The schooner Antelope, Capt. Brigman, sailed into this river on Thursday last, and was towed up to Lyons' mill in this place, where she is loading. She will carry about 160,000 feet of lumber and will depart about to-morrow evening.

Mr. J. W. Wimer and family, of Josephine county, arrived here yesterday morning, and completed the purchase of Charley Potter's and G. B. Franklin's places. Mr. W. will reside on Fishtrap in the future, and will be a good acquisition to the county.

Zamloch, the Magician!
McMillan is doing a rushing business.

Admission to Zamloch's performances including three envelopes, 50 cents.

B. S. Cook, special agent and adjuster of the State Insurance Co., Salem, arrived in town yesterday.

Mrs. E. J. Kelland, of Prairie City, Grant county, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Will Tenneson on Beaver slough.

Alex Smith has put in 1,900,000 feet of timber at his camp at Halls prairie. Alex is a rustler, and expects to put in a big lot of logs yet this fall.

The tug Roberts, of Eel river, Humboldt county, Cal., anticipates another trip up this way, and will come to the Coquille, arriving here about the 10th of October.

A. L. Nosler wants those owing him to pay up at once. This is the last warning; he will put the accounts in the hands of a collector if they are not paid at once.

Eld. S. B. Hollenbeak, of Fairview, preached a very interesting sermon in this place on Sunday evening. He was followed in an exhortation by Rev. H. B. Johnson.

Mr. J. B. Fox, of North Coquille, was in town yesterday en route to Sumner, where he goes to bid on a contract to furnish ties for the railroad from the bay to Coquille via that place.

Edward Roberts, of Bear creek, will lecture in this place on Saturday Labor question next Sunday evening. Mr. R. is a Bear creek logger, but he is said to know what lectures on to perfection. Go and hear him.

Rev. H. B. Johnson and wife, of Camas valley, arrived here on Saturday to see their son Joseph Johnson who had been very sick, but was up again at which they were very much pleased. Grandpa favored us with a sermon on Sunday at 11 a. m.

Patronize the one that gives you full value for your money, and one that has a reputation to sustain and that is McMillan, the photographer at Coquille City, until Sunday, October 2nd—last day—and last chance to get fine cabinet photos at $4.00 per dozen.

The Northwest Fire and Marine Insurance company, of Portland, and for which Messrs. Sherman, Hermann, Caldwell and Wolcott are agents for the river, is one of the best and safest companies on the Pacific coast. We trust the people of the river will give some of their patronage to it.

Messrs. Johnson & Stone, our marketmen, bought Uncle Billy Mast's crop of onions, and have them at their shop on Main St. for sale. It would do the eyes of a lover of this aromatic vegetable good to see these. They are very firm and crisp and are large compared with those usually received from California. Upon the whole they are the finest lot of onions ever received at this place. Buy a lot of them.

The HOUSEKEEPER for October will contain a full account of the wedding of the manageress of that paper, in the Minneapolis, Minn., Exposition, on the evening of September 28, together with accurate descriptions and illustrations of the participants' wedding dresses and presents.

A copy of this issue will be mailed free to any of our lady readers sending their address to THE BUCKEYE PUB. CO., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

MARRIED—At Empire City, Oregon, Sept. 23, 1887, Mr. W. B. Stephens of Salem, and Mrs. Mary J. Turner of this place, Judge R. S. Bean officiating.

We are unacquainted with the groom, but learn that he is of one of the best families of Marion county. The bride is a daughter of Uncle Wm. Weekly of North Coquille, and is a most excellent lady; widely known, and universally liked. We extend our congratulations. The bridal party was driven from this place to Empire City and back again on Saturday by that prince of Jehus, James Laird.

Lodi paid the town a flying visit on Thursday.

It is said that Carlisle may yet lose his seat.

D. C. Krantz, of East Coquille, was in town Sunday.

Mrs. Alex Thrift, of Floras creek, was in town Saturday.

Marysville, Cal., had a half million dollar fire on the 19th.

The murderer of Archbishop Seghers has proved to be insane.

R. C. Dement, of South Coquille, paid us a pleasant visit on Thursday.

Miss Annie Short was visiting friends here the forepart of the week.

His friends will be pleased to learn that Joseph Johnson has recovered.

Uncle Harvey Lewellen and wife, of North Coquille, were in town Wednesday en route to the bay.

Mr. B. J. Mooyer, formerly a resident of Myrtle creek on Middle Coquille, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. Ullman, the pedagogue, was doing the town on Thursday. Mr. U. thinks of teaching during the winter again.

The schooners Parkersburg and Coquille are due at this river, but had not put in an appearance yesterday morning.

The mill at this place is cutting more lumber than ever before. It would take two more schooners to clear the wharf.

Mr. Osborne and family arrived here last week from Stein's mountain in Eastern Oregon. They will buy a farm and settle here.

On Thursday morning Hume's cannery received 1200 salmon from below there on the river—the most received from there in any one day.

Dr. O. E. Smith, the dentist, returned to the bay the latter part of the week, but came over again, owing to a rush of business in his line.

Rev. J. R. E. Campbell has moved to Floras creek from Marshfield, where we hope he will meet the success his thrift and good qualities deserve.

It would seem from the present prices that the crop of potatoes is light—or rather that not many were planted. The price is 90 cts. for good kinds.

Mr. Joseph Collier's residence on the old homestead in the edge of town is quite an imposing structure, being a "T," either side being 24 feet.

Johnson & Stone pay the highest cash price for butter, eggs, onions, potatoes and all sorts of farm produce. They are now wanting ten head of fat hogs, also.

Mrs. Olive is making a grand improvement just north of the Olive hotel by enclosing the building occupied by herself as a millinery store and the one occupied by Johnson & Stone with a high front, also raising and making extensions back on both buildings.

Joe Hudson, has purchased the Marshfield Hotel and will run it the coming winter, beginning about the first of next month. Joe is a good fellow, and we trust he will receive the patronage his good management will deserve. His wife and daughters are excellent cooks, and will doubtless win the hearts of many of the epicureans of the bay.

We call attention to the ad of Geo. W. Norris, of Fairview, who is agent for genuine Or. made vehicles, and farm machinery. It is to be hoped that the people of the county, generally, will see fit to patronize him, as the goods he offers are superior to eastern make, and besides we should patronize home industry.

Alex Wittmann and Perry Stoddard, of Ferndale, Humboldt county, Cal., arrived here on Tuesday last to hunt homes. Mr. Wittmann formerly lived on Coos bay and built several of the best houses there, being a good carpenter. He has great hopes of our future greatness, and predicts that in a very few years our county will be thickly settled.

Elegant and costly presents given away at Zamloch's entertainments.

A couple of gentlemen from Eastern Oregon arrived here yesterday, and will locate in town.

The Portland Daily News is steadily encroaching on the Oregonian and will, we predict, lead that journal yet. At present it is the best of the two when we come to think of the miserable policy of the Oregonian.

Prof. Zamloch the Conjurer will give performances at Odd Fellows' hall next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. As an Illusionist he has no superior. In connection with the entertainments will be a distribution of prizes all consisting of valuable and and useful articles.

Charley Meeker, special agent for the Northwest Fire and Marine Insurance company, of Portland, was on the river on Thursday and Friday. As local agents he appointed A. J. Sherwood for this place; F. P. Hermann for Myrtle Point; K. K. Caldwell for Bandon, and A. D. Wolcott for Randolph. Mr. Meeker was formerly a resident of this county, and was Mr. J. Henry Schroeder's deputy, while superintendent of schools. He taught at various places on the bay and is well known in our county as a man of sterling qualities and integrity.

STEAMERS INSPECTED.—Captains Ferguson and Frank McDermott inspected the following steamers (all of which were successful in getting their papers) at this place on Saturday: Antelope, Ceres, Myrtle, Restless, The Beaver, Cumtux, and the tug Katie Cook.
