

Coquille City Herald. J. A. DEAN, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, NOV. 26, 1898.

Five of the witnesses against the notorious Bald Knappers of Alameda have been lynched by members of the gang.

A 40-lb whale was left in Oakland creek by the receding of the tide, says a San Francisco dispatch.

Mrs. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, writes to high honors under the counting administration, but the way she fought her way to the front.

It might be inferred from the sick item in Record that the patients drank water from the adjacent works, but it is not true.

The Recorder's account of the events of the 7th of November is wrong in its conclusion that the purchase of the Union Cannery was a ruse.

Coos County Vote. The following is the vote of Tuesday a week ago, except that of Union Labor, which received 29 votes:

Table with columns: Precincts, Total, Union Labor, Prohibition, Republican, Democratic, Socialist, Other.

A lady in our neighborhood who lately came in for a visit to the most intimate visiting European.

Our election day has come and gone. Four years ago Cleveland got 52 per cent of all the votes cast here.

Mr. Linsden, a gentleman from Michigan, who came here lately in quest of health, is so pleased with the result, and the general prospects of the country, that he has resolved to permanently settle among us.

Mr. Stillew, who came here for the benefit of his wife's health, has rented the Holly Glen place for two years.

Our climate throughout the year hasn't very much changed. Although we will have Christmas day next month yet on the eighth of this month—November—the maximum temperature was only one degree less than the maximum temperature of the 21st of last July—mid-summer.

A very valuable coal mine has lately been discovered near Mendocino. The vein is eleven feet thick and of excellent quality, and how much thicker and better they are as they descend is yet to be ascertained.

This anarchic business—what are we going to do with it? It is growing every day. Soon we'll be asking what it will do with us at present rates.

Final Benefit Church. Next Saturday at 10 P.M. the proceedings of our church meeting, presiding again at 7 P.M., also Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours of worship.

A friend to the Boston Herald has sent the paper a batch of epigrams, some of which are almost so entailing to be accepted as genuine. For instance: 'Use the old and use the new, but don't use the old and the new together.'
