Face to Face.

If my face could only promise
That its color would remain.
If my heart were only certain
It would hide the moment's pain,
I would meet thee and would greet thee
In the old familiar tone;
And naught should ever show you
The wrong that you have done.

If my trembling hands were steady.
If my smiles had not all fled,
If my eyes spoke not so plainly
Of the tears they often shed,
I would meet you and would greet you
At the old, sweet trysting place.
And perchance you'd deem me happy
If you met me face to face.

If the melody of springtide
Awoke no wilder frain.
If the autumn's golden burden
Awoke no living pain,
I would meet thee and would greet thee
As years ago we met,
Before our hearts were wrecked
On the ocean of regret.

If my woman's soul were stronger,
If my heart were not so true.
I should long have ceased remembering
The love I had for you;
But I dare not meet or greet thee
In the old familiar way
Until we meet in heaven,
When all have passed away.

—Rhoma, in Oregonian.

Smuggling Chinese From Cuba.

New York, Sept. 8,—Three hundred strange Chinamen are now in New York, smuggled from Cuba. A regular business is carried on by certain vessels in the Cuba fruit trade. A Fulton Market fruit-dealer asserts that "citizens of Cuba, with the co-operation of officials of the Spanish government of that island, are aiding Chinamen to evade the United States restriction law, and landing hundreds of them at this port every month. There is a certain steamship company in this city, owning or controling nine steamers that ply between New York and Cuban ports. on each of these vessels there is a Chinese interpreter. His name does not appear on the pay-roll of the company's employes nor of the ship he sails on. It is his duty to receive and care for Chinamen who embark at Cuban ports and see that they pass the custom officers and are safely landed here. He is not paid by the company, but receives certain perquisites, the evident object of this arrangement being to enable the company to claim an appearance of justice that is not responsible for the interpreter's acts, as he is not in its employ, but simply a passenger on its boats.

HOW IT IS DONE.

"Now as to the manner in which Chinamen are enabled to pass the United States customs officers. Each Chinaman on leaving Cuba for New York is provided with a Spanish passport, in which he is represented to be a traveler desirous of sojourning for a brief period in the place named as his destination. This passport secures him the priveledge of landing. Once he sets foot on the steamship company's dock here he is safe. The passport has served its purpose and is destroyed and the Chinaman joins his fellow countrymen on Mott street."

The Great Exposition.

On the 26th of September, the greatest exposition ever held on the Pacific coast will be opened in Portland, and will continue for a full month. The association has expended $250,000 on the building and grounds, and every available inch of the six and one-half acres of floor space in the mammoth building has been taken by exhibitors. Liberati, the greatest living cornetist, with a band of fifty of the best musicians of New York, will furnish the finest music yet heard on the coast. A reduction of railroad fares on all lines has been secured, and no doubt thousands of people from all over the Northwest will take this opportunity to visit Portland and see its mammoth exposition. The great live stock show, which will be held from October 14th to 19th, will also attract a great many people.

Winter Cholera.

A species of bowel complaint, known as "winter cholera," appeared in several cities in the Northwest last winter and is likely to be more general this season. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy is a certain cure for it. For Sale by J. H. Nosler, of Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, of Myrtle Point.

Coos Bay.

The schooner Robert Minnia arrived in port Sunday from San Francisco.

J. D. Garfield is building a ware house in Marshfield on A street.

Rev. J. B. Rideout held service in Sengstacken,s hall Marshfield Sunday.

The work upon W. G. Websters brick store has commenced; the first brick being laid last Monday.

The militia were out for a drill on the streets of Marshfield Saturday evening. the "To the right face, March!" and their steady tread showed that the boys were there.

Jacob Lando has moved into his new store in the Odd Fellows block. He left on the last steamer for the city for the purpose of ordering a new stock.

Marshfield is to be favored with a dramatic entertainment, rendered by home talent at an early date. Some of the young people, under the leadership of Mr. Albert Lando, are rehearsing the great temperance drama, "Ten nights in a bar room." It will be played on Saturday evening Sept. 21st.

Mrs. Durrand of Bay City, left Thursday for Gardiner where her parents reside. Her father, Tom Fisher, met with a very serious accident a few days before, and is not expected to live. He was gored by a vicious bull and so injured as to render him unconcious. From the latest accounts we learn that he is still unconcious and it is not known what the results will be.

Thos Hall, while working on the pile driver was injured by a wedge striking him on the jaw. Several of his teeth were driven through his lip and his jaw was severely bruised.

John K. Scott, W. Sinclair, T. C. Norris, C. W. White and R. E. Buck, of Coquille were in Marshfield last week.

LARDEE.

The Sound Idea.

The young man who is petted too much at home is seldom any good. What is wanted now a day is a practical man who can do something else besides smoke cigarette's and twist a cane. The time to learn to work and to learn business habits is in one,s youth. He who leads the life of a butterfly until he is twenty-five or thirty years of age and then recognizes that he has made an ass of himself, has precious little to recommend him when he applies for a job. This may be a chestnut, but it fits on a few young men of every city in the Union. The boys on a farm are better off if they only knew it, than thousands of the boys who are at large. There is nothing like being practical, and there is but one way to do so. Acquire business habits and train yourself to good, honest, hard work. Don't waste your time learning to tie a cravat. You can buy cravats already tied.

Let us give the readers of the HERALD a little timely advice. Hot weather is coming and with it colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. The only safe way to combat these diseases, is to keep some reliable remedy at hand, and all who have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy will admit that it is the most prompt, reliable and successful medicine known for these complaints. It costs but 25 or 50 cents, and may be the means of saving you or your family much suffering, if not life itself, before the summer is over. For sale by J. H. Nosler, Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Now we Have it.

A few five acre lots joining Coquille City all choice bottom land, and will make you just such a home as you have always been looking for, and the location itself is worth more than we ask you for the land. Less than one quarter of a mile from the postoffice. Sherwood & Sanford have them.

$3000 wanted on good improved real property, namely 237 acres of the best of Coos county lands. Also 25 cows, six head of horses and other stock for sale. Apply at this office. n41 tf.

JENKS' DREAM.

Jenks had a queer dream the other night. He thought he saw a prize-fighters' ring, and in the middle of it stood a dozen little champions who met and deliberately knocked over, one by one, a score or more of big, burly-looking fellows, as they advanced to the attack. Giants as they were in size, the valiant piggys proved more than a match for them. It was all so funny that Jenks woke up laughing. He accounts for the dream by the fact that he had just come to the conclusion, after trying nearly every big, drastic pill on the market, that Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or tiny Sugar-coated Granules, easily "knock out" and beat all the big pills hollow! They are the original and only genuine Little Liver Pills.

Beware of Imitations, which contain Poisonous Mineral. Always ask for Dr. Pierce's Pellets, which are Little Sugar-coated Pills, or Anti-bilious Granules. One a Dose.

SICK HEADACHE,
Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are gently laxative, or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. 25 cents a vial, by druggists.
