LOCAL ITEMS.

Have you priced the new plushes silks and satins at Mrs. Aikens'?

George Majory, Sr., of Myrtle Point, was on our streets yesterday.

Prof. T. P. Brinegar who is teaching at Utter City, visited our city Saturday.

Mr. Redding, of Bandon, passed through our town Saturday en route to the Bay.

The best assortment of mixed candies yet received is now on hand at Miss Kronenberg's confectionery store.

Any lady wishing a nice side saddle could certainly be accommodated at the shop of Mr. Ward, in this place.

J. M. Upton, of the Recorder was among the many who were on their way to Empire to attend court, Monday.

Services will be held in the new church on Floras Creek on Sunday, October 13, by Rev's Swafford and Fenton.

We are being furnished with unusually heavy "Oregon roists" this week, no doubt for the benefit of those attending court.

Vern Warner and John Giles passed through town Saturday en route to Flanagan ranch on the upper Coquille, with a band of calves.

Mr. Campbell who lately arrived in this place from Grants Pass, son-in-law of Mr. George Winer will open up a meat market and notion store soon.

The rains of a few weeks ago put the roads in excellent condition, but in a few places on the road to the bay some mud is making its appearance.

Just received, at Mrs. Aiken's, a complete stock of felts, plushes and fancy work material, and she is now prepared to do stamping. Give her your order.

Prof. C. W. Pitts will be in this place on the 15th and all parties wishing tuning or repairing of pianos or organs will do well to leave their orders at the Olive hotel.

Sixteen wagon loads of passengers left here Sunday, and as many yesterday, for Empire. This will doubtless be the most interesting term of circuit court ever held in the county.

Mrs. Aiken has on hand a complete stock of yarns, among which are the best imported Saxony and Fleisher's best brands. Ladies wishing anything in this line will do well to call on her.

McMillan, the photographer, after a four months successful tour over the county, goes to Marshfield where he may be found at the old stand. Always call on him and get firstclass work.

R. D. Sanford's new residence out on the road to the bay is one of the prettiest in the county, and the front lays everything else in Coquille City in the shade. The work reflects good taste in Mr. S. and skill in the builder Mr. Balch.

Mrs. W. W. Hayes who had been visiting her daughters, mesdames Sterling and Hunt, the former at Vancouver, and the latter at The Dalles, returned home Thursday in consequence of the illness of Mrs. Jenkins, another daughter, of this place.

The postoffice was removed to J. H. Nosler's drug store Sunday evening. While Dr. Leneve has given the best of satisfaction, we trust under the present superintendency of B. E. Nosler and G. O. Leach its record will not be lowered.

Harry Roberts, whom it will be remembered resided in this place some four years ago, we learn from Charley Lyons, is at San Bana Ventura, California, and doing well, being worth fifty thousand dollars. He is a heavy contractor in brick work.

The movement to have the American flag displayed on public school buildings is growing in favor. In Newburg, N. Y., it is proposed to have the flag hoisted every school day in the year and a color guard to attend to it, selected each month from the best scholars.

Mr. H. K. Woodward, a gentleman from Dakota, has been taking in the county for some weeks, and is quite well pleased with the appearance of Coos, being particularly pleased with the climate. We hope he may see fit to cast his lot among us. Others will come from his part in case he makes up his mind to locate here.

J. T. Nosler returned Sunday from a trip to Roseburg.

Oliver C. Gilkey, of Randolph, visited this place Saturday.

Fresh milch cow for sale. Inquire of R. D. Sanford.

Mr. Albert Alexander and family left this place Saturday for Camas valley.

Isham Cox, who has been in Curry county for some time, came up Saturday.

The new states of Washington, the two Dakotas and Montana have given from five to ten thousand republican majorities.

Mr. T. W. Johnson and wife, of Bear Creek, visited friends in this place Saturday and Sunday, remembering the HERALD force.

That beautiful corner lot just back of the Universalist church for only $175. Apply to Sherwood & Sanford at once, if you wish to secure it.

Mrs. R. E. Buck of this place, returned from Bandon Saturday where she had been visiting friends, accompanied by Mrs. Dyer, of that place.

Wm. Copely, of Bandon, formerly of this place paid this place a visit the latter part of the week taking in the masquerade ball Saturday night.

Capt. Parker's Chinese cook attempted suicide Sunday, cutting a huge gash in his throat that required seven stitches to close. He was brought up by the tug immediately, and Dr. Sponogle dressed the wound.

J. B. Nosler and amiable lady of this place returned from an extended visit to Portland, Salem and Vancouver on Friday. Mrs. N. stood the trip well notwithstanding her feeble health for some time. They give quite a glowing account of the State fair at Salem and the Mechanics' fair at Portland.

A social gathering at the residence of D. F. Dean on Friday evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Frank Hall a newcomer to these parts played the piccalo, Geo. Leach the cornet and Miss Elsie Leach the organ. Mr. Hall is certainly a master musician, and will be a valuable addition to our musical gatherings if he should decide to locate here.

Wm. M. Bland and son, from Modoc county, California, were here last week looking for a home, and were fitted out with the Duff place at the mouth of Hatchet slough, by Sherwood & Sanford. They will soon return with the family consisting of eight persons, which will swell the school of that district considerable and add so much wealth to that enterprising neighborhood.

A telegram was received by the HERALD on the 1st inst., from one H. Rogers dated at Roseburg claiming that he had found the lost Peter Goeller. Our townsman, Mr. R. E. Buck was known to be in Roseburg, and was wired to interview Mr. R. which he did. On his return Sunday, he informed the people here that he was satisfied, after a long conversation with Mr. Rogers that that gentleman knew of Peter's whereabouts. Mr. Joseph Goeller was consulted in the mean time, and will take prompt action in the matter. It is to be hoped that the lost man may be found and restored to friends and health again.

The masqurade ball advertised by Mr. Hunnewell on Saturday night was pretty well attended, but was not a financial success. The elaborate preparations for the supper incurred quite an expense and the receipts did not cover the amount expended therefore. There were about fifty masked and some were gotten up in fine shape, representing their characters to perfection. To give the credit due each one would take up too much of our space and we shall give only one of the many laughing incidents that came to our notice. Mr. Hansen announced to a male friend that he was expecting his sister from the east and as he was going to mask he would like if his friend would escort his sister to the ball. Mr. Hansen disguised and masked as the sister and was introduced to the friend and escorted to the ball by him. When Mr. Hansen unmasked the astonishment on his escorts face could be seen across the hall. Everyone enjoyed the dance and we are sorry that Mr. Hunnewell's expectations were not realized.

Mr Gardiner and Ed. Crook, of Curry county, paid this place a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Miller, of the firm of Miller & Smith, of Myrtle Point, called at the Herald office yesterday.

Mr. McClellen, of Curry county came up, and proceeded to the bay to attend court. He is interested in a swamp land contest, pending at this term of court.

Mr. A. Hall and sons Ed and Frank, of Modoc county, California, are here looking at the country, with a view of settling if a favorable location can be obtained. We hope they may be successful in finding a place near town, as Frank would be a valuable accession to our band being a thorough musician.

Coos Bay Items.

Everybody is here to hear the Gillman trial. Sleeping room will be at a premium by the time court opens.

Marshfield is building up rapidly and in the business houses, metropolitan airs have been profusely put on. The Odd Fellows' building is by far the finest in the county—large, well built and handsome. The bank building is a very pretty one and just what it should be for the purposes for which it was built. The vault is made of brick and iron, the walls being sixteen inches thick, making it perfectly fire proof. The Marks building is a fine structure, and the new brick being put up by Mr. W. G. Webster promises to be second to none in the county. The side walls are nearly up and work is going steadily on. It will be entirely fire proof, and at the same time retain all the strength of a frame building, having studding projecting inside far enough to receive the ceiling. Mr. O'Connell is lengthening his spacious hardware store to make room for his mammoth stock and his rival, J. D. Garfield, is running his store up into the sky, having extended it in every other direction as far as he could.

Logs are being put into the old Marshfield mill boom, the mill reshingled and indications pointing in the direction of starting up that busy old factor of Marshfield's prosperity. It is to be hoped that that, as well as the shipyard will be started up again.

As fine a piece of work as it has ever been our good fortune to see is that displayed on the counter, desk and cashier's case in the Marshfield bank of Flanagan & Bennett, the work of F. Mark, the furniture dealer. Our native woods, white cedar, maple, myrtle and ash show up to fine advantage.

Bear Creek Items.

Times are lively as usual in this vicinity, at least one would think so from the dances that the young folks are having.

Jeff Boyle has returned from California, he says that he has come to stay this time. Welcome Jeff!

Mrs. Vanluven has returned to her beautiful farm and is building a new house.

Ed. Hadsell and family have gone to visit Mr. Hadsell's folks who live on the Siuslaw; also Isaac Chandler and family have gone to the Willamette on a visit.

We are glad to hear that a certain young man has regained $17,000 worth of reputation that he lost last winter.

The other day one of our jolly bachelors and a buxom widow, were driving along the road when at a turn in the road they were startled by a dreadful noise that scared the team and caused our friends to tremble. They at first thought it was a captain, and lately a merchant of Myrtle Point, that was making fun of them, but it was not him, it was a descendant of the animal Baalam rode.

JOAQUIN BENTETIS.

Winter Cholera.

A species of bowel complaint, known as "winter cholera," appeared in several cities in the Northwest last winter and is likely to be more general this season. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy is a certain cure for it. For Sale by J. H. Nosler, of Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, of Myrtle Point.

All members of the Coquille City Literary Society are requested to meet in Hunnewell hall in regular session next monday night, Oct. 14th at 7:30 p. m.

J. J. Stanley.
Sec.

S. T. Durkee, of Portland, manufactures of the Edison electric belt, spent a couple of days in town last week taking orders for his splended electric appliances.

Mr. J. B. Fox was in town Saturday, and informed us that his part of the Middle Coquille wagon road was nearly completed, but a portion of the Douglas county end, and some of the middle section sub-contracted to another party was not yet done, and possibly might not be done until spring.

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,

T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl st., New York.

Notice.

A span of stray horses came to my place on October 2. The owner will please call for them and pay damages. They came from the direction of Myrtle Point.
