The carpenter work on the Masonic hall is done and the finishing touches are being put on by the painters. The work is well done and it has the best appointed stage in the county.

The old style of robbing stages has gone out of fashion. It used to take a gang of masked men to rob a stage load of passengers and the U. S. mail but this year the lone highwayman does the business all by himself.

Mr. H. A. Wethey, a painter of this place, cut a horrible gash in his hand on Saturday morning while opening a can of paint. Dr. Danham stopped the flow of blood and bound up the wound and Mr. Wethey is at work again.

Several firms in this city use rubber stamps for printing their letter heads, cards, shipping tags, etc. Remember, we print everything in that line at very reasonable rates. And then a rubber stamp looks very shoddy for a live business firm.

The bank building, being built by the Nichols Bros. has the rustic nearly all on and it will be ready for the roof by the latter part of the week. The surprising rapidity with which the building has been erected speaks well for these gentlemen as builders and contractors.

S. Whetstone and son took charge of the Gallier blacksmith shop in this place on November 1st. We recommend them to people wishing anything in their line of work. They are good blacksmiths and under the regime of Whetstone & Son we hope they may be successful.

Again the attention of the people is being directed to the actions of the Anarchists in Chicago. They hiss at the stars and stripes and cheer the red flag. No doubt the scenes of 1887 are fast losing their impression on these people and will have to be repeated ere they will be quieted.

B. W. Rice returned from Portland on Friday and says the work on the new river boat will begin today. It will be built after the model of the fastest boat on the Willamette and Columbia rivers—the Telephone. She will be 100 feet over all, with a seventy-six foot freight deck, sixty-two foot promenade deck, nineteen foot beam and the hold will be five feet. The machinery has been purchased and the guaranteed speed of the craft will be fifteen miles an hour, thus making the trip from Bandon to Myrtle Point in three hours. The work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible and the whistle of the new boat may be heard ere long.

Mr. Lyons has received a new boiler and other attachments for his mill, which will greatly increase its output. The boiler is 4 feet longer and some inches larger in diameter than the old one.

The Eureka came up Saturday morning heavily laden with goods for our merchants. Considering everything, her last trip has been an unlucky one. On the trip down she sprung a leak and was on the outside two weeks on her return trip because of the roughness of the bar.

Some miscreant, on destruction bent, cut the tug Liberty loose from her moorings at Bandon one night last week and she drifted and fouled with a schooner and hung up, else bad results might have followed. The penalty for wrecking a vessel, we believe, is death; but we doubt if this outlaw knew the penalty for so heinous an offense.

The death of Mrs. Crocker, the railroad magnate's wife, is deplored all over the Pacific coast. She was the greatest lady philanthropist the world ever produced. The work of her hand is seen in hundreds of places, among them being large schools and seminaries for the poor. May she rest in peace and whatever of good the future may hold be hers.

Gilman's attorney visited him on Sunday and informed him that a search of all the authorities would not reveal the shadow of a show for continuance or a new trial in his case; that he must make up his mind to pay the death penalty on Dec. 13, and tears came to the old man's eyes and he wept for the first since his incarceration. He is failing rapidly, it is said, and may not live till the day set for his execution. It is a sad, sad case all the way through.

People are starving right and left up in the Dakotas. They have been inaugurating wolf hunts and making soup of the undressed animals, not wishing to lose the nourishment contained in the hide. Eric Lundgren severed an artery in his dying son's arm and squeezed out the blood and gave it as nourishment to his wife, the boy's own mother, and brothers and sisters, who were starving. These people need assistance or the prairies will be strewn with starved and frozen bodies.

The queen of Madagascar is only 23 years old.

C. J. Price of Randolph was in town on business Friday.

Ex-Sec Thomas F. Bayard and Mary W. Clymer are to be married soon.

Annie Price, "Barnum's fat woman," died recently and it took sixteen men to convey the remains to the hearse.

Mrs. Langtry announces that she has bidden America a long farewell. America can no doubt stand the parting.

Coquille City would be a fine field for a boot and shoe maker at the present time. One is asked for every day in the week.

J. J. Wilson has some of the finest meerschaum pipes ever brought to this place. All smokers should call and see them.

The Mail says Eugene O'Connell has purchased the most populous portion of Chinatown, and the Chinese must go, and go at once.

Trouble is said to be brewing between the intending settlers and the squaw men on the great Sioux reservation at Pierre, South Dakota.

The ten-year-old son of Albert Parsons, the executed anarchist, disappeared from his home in Chicago two weeks ago and no tidings of him can be found.

Liberati, the great musician who was engaged to play for the Industrial Association in Portland, was presented with a fine gold watch by his many friends on the 28th ult.

John F. Gilman is busily engaged writing a biography of his life. He protests his innocence of the murder of which he has been found guilty but Sheriff Harlocker will see that the law is carried out to the letter.

Typographical Union No. 21, of San Francisco initiated fourteen applicants at their last meeting and a twelve more applications were handed to the executive board. The "prints" are bound to have a voice in the matter of wages in the California metropolis.

One of the finest farms (to be) in the county, is that of C. H. Merchant just above Marshfield. There he is dyking a huge marsh of some hundreds of acres that is as level as water. The land is very rich, and now that the water is to be kept off, it will be the finest meadow in the county.

A London journal is very dependent on the prospects of professional men in England. The rate of enrolment for the professional classes, it says, is steadily going down. It is nearly as difficult now for a member of the professional classes to make £500 a year as it was for his father to make £1000.

Winter Cholera. A species of bowel complaint, known as "winter cholera," appeared in several cities in the Northwest last winter and is likely to be more general this season. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is a certain cure for it. For Sale by J. H. Nosler, of Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, of Myrtle Point.

The Occident Water company should extend its pipes to the north side of town to accommodate the many residents out that way. It should also have a good filter at the works. Water contains animal life and it is natural that it should find its way into the pipes.

DIED.—John A. Rhoda an old and highly respected citizen of the Coquille died at the residence of his son-in-law, Charles Eckhoff, near North Bend on Thursday evening October 31. Mr. Rhoda was one of the German colonists that settled on South Coquille in 1859 and has been a constant resident of the county since that time. He was born in the year 1811, and lived a most exemplary life. No one can ever lay the charge of a dishonorable act to him.

Let us give the readers of the HERALD a little timely advice. Hot weather is coming and with it colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. The only safe way to combat these diseases, is to keep some reliable remedy at hand, and all who have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will admit that it is the most prompt, reliable and successful medicine known for these complaints. It costs but 25 or 50 cents, and may be the means of saving you or your family much suffering, if not life itself, before the summer is over. For sale by J. H. Nosler, Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, Myrtle Point, Oregon.
