PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY. J. A. & D. F. DEAN, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

Devoted to the interests of the Coquille River particularly, and of the County generally. Subscription, per year $2.00.

TUESDAY, NOV. 5, 1889.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The climate record of Oregon for this year beats the world.

Fresh and corned meats at Wimer & Campbell's market.

Gilmore's great jubilee was held in Portland yesterday and to-day.

Bruce, Florida, has a curiosity in the shape of a three-legged pig.

Hon. J. H. Roberts of Myrtle Point was in town on business Thursday.

Editor John Dean paid this office a short visit last week. Call again John.

We are having fine weather again and the genial rays of the sun are refreshing.

Elder Edmunds has our thanks for a fine lot of turnips. Four of them weigh 19 lbs.

Prof. Brinegar has returned to town again after teaching school at Uter City for eight weeks.

Snow fell in Virginia on the 24th of October and the thermometer was down to the freezing point.

But McDuffee who had been in Empire City for the past three months has returned to this place again.

The business of the National Association of Manufacturers and dealers in proprietary medicines amounted to $22,000,000, of which $10,000,000, was spent for advertising.

The Mississippi Republicans have nominated James R. Chalmers, a Confederate brigadier, for governor. But the Oregonian has nothing to say in regard to the matter.

To-day the people of Idaho will vote on the constitution framed at Boise City some time since. If the constitution is adopted there will be no doubt that she will be added to the list of states at the next meeting of congress.

The Capital Evening Journal of Salem is coming to the front as a representative paper of the Willamette. Its columns are always filled with spicy reading and the citizens of Salem may congratulate themselves on having a first-class news medium such as the Journal.

Alex Smith is having a large boom constructed in front of the J. F. Gilman farm to hold the logs he has stowed in the marsh near Johnny Morgan's place. He has some timber to log also back of the Gilman place we learn, and the boom will be ready for this.

Mr. Benjamin Figg has our thanks for the finest specimens of apples we have seen this season. One measures 17x18 1/2 inches in circumference and weighs upwards of two pounds. They are of the variety known as gloria mundi and are beauties. Who can beat them?

It seems that Rev. Irwin, who has been appointed to instruct the Indians at Chenawa, has introduced the Methodist faith along with himself. While he was editor of the Republican at Union the general impression prevailed that he had thrown theological faith to the wind and was simply a republican without the Rev. to his name. Since he has been appointed to his present position it appears that he has again assumed the Methodist robe and is fast introducing that faith in the school. The general kick by the papers in that locality is sufficient evidence that he should be ousted.

A suit in Justice Simons' court on Thursday, wherein Messrs. Doyle and Lester were plaintiffs and A. J. Smith defendant, was decided in favor of the plaintiffs. The suit involved a wager or contract for $100. Should the plaintiffs perform a certain amount of work by October 1st the defendant should pay them that amount, but should they fail they were to pay the defendant $100. In September the parties had a misunderstanding and Smith discharged the men and refused to pay them the $100 although they had done the amount of work they were to do by October 1st. The report that the K. of L. had a hand in the matter is utterly false. Mr. Smith has appealed the case to the May term of court.

Ol Gilkey, of Randolph visited friends in this place Thursday.

If you have anything to sell give its good points in an ad in the HERALD and it is sure to sell.

In Iowa where railroads are so plentiful, there has not been a mile of new track laid this year.

State Printer Baker is turning out for general distribution 25,000 copies of the Resources of Oregon.

David Hunt escaped from the insane asylum last week and perished from exposure before being found.

The postmaster general is trying to have post offices established on the principal steamers plying between the United States and Europe.

The four new states are anxious for the president's proclamation admitting them as states. The delay is accounted for by Montana not giving in the returns yet.

Dr. Vance writes from Sonoma, Cal., to the News that he was surprised that Gilman should want him as a witness. Strange things will happen, you know, doctor.

The Gazette and Recorder have just learned that J. F. Cox has just got in from Arizona. He came early last spring. Wake up and read the news. The HERALD will keep you posted.

The prospects of John water, Pa., being again under water are good. Rain fell almost continually for thirty-six hours and a great many of the streets are almost impassable to pedestrians.

It seems incredible that any person could sell $105,000 in one single horse, yet that is what is said to have been paid for the three-year-old stallion, Axtell, after he made the recent record of 2:12 at Terre Haute, Indiana.

It has been ascertained that almonds and figs grow splendidly in Coos county. Why does not some one give the matter attention sufficient to learn what profits might be made out of their propagation? It is worth a trial.

J. S. McNamara, of Marshfield, died on the 20th. He used to live on Beaver slough and will be remembered by many of the residents of the Coquille. He was buried on the 31st by the Masons, he being a member of that order.

For marrying two couples at the Mechanics fair at Portland recently the minister sent the society a bill for $50 with a note saying the price might be considered high, but that he could not make a holy show of himself for nothing.

R. S. Knowlton, of Empire City, has purchased the drug business of J. Nosler & Son, and will take possession on the first of January, 1890. The postoffice and stationery department will be run by the old firm and in the same building where they now are. Mr. Knowlton comes well recommended, and is a thorough druggist and pharmacist.

The correspondent to the News from this place says that "Mr. Harkness and family left for Grants Pass last week." A Mr. Harkness left for Grants Pass, but he has always passed off here as a single man. In fact he brought no wife with him here, and he did not marry since he became a resident of this county.

The school book trust is attempting to close the exchange of books on the 31st of this month. This is a direct violation of the contract, which provides that the exchange shall continue until the several county school superintendents are satisfied that all the old books are taken up and new ones substituted therefore. In the first place the school book trust should not have been allowed to weave its toils around this state, but since the contract has been entered into the trust should be required to conform to it to the letter.

We received a proposition recently from a gentleman in Missouri for the people of Coquille City to consider, but it got here too late to take action. The fellow wanted to move his woolen mill here and wanted a bonus of what would have amounted to some six hundred dollars. It would largely pay our people to induce such an enterprise but would they be willing to do so if there was any material aid asked? If we do not do something to create business, our town will have a slow growth, if any at all, and the chances are our neighboring towns will do the business. Let's get in and try to do something for the future.

S. W. Gilman House Carpenter, Framed and Joiner. Also a successful hand to emmentate rses and other animals. Home near Beaver Slough. Address: Coquille City.

Lehnerr House MYRTLE POINT, OREGON, Jennie Majory, Proprietress. This popular house has recently been put in excellent order, and is truly a favorite resort. The tables will be supplied with the very best, including the delicacies of the season, thus endeavoring to suit the most fastidious epicure. This hotel has just been renovated and refitted and every attention will be given to guests. Patronage solicited.

No Chinese Employed. Dr. Vance writes from Sonoma, Cal., to the News that he was surprised that Gilman should want him as a witness. Strange things will happen, you know, doctor.
