Will Sugg, who had the misfortune to lose two fingers and a thumb in the mill a short time since, is clocking in Lyons store. It is good of Mr. Lyons to thus help a man who was maimed in his mill. He allowed his wages right along.

Mr. Horace Haskins of Fairview made us a pleasant call Friday. He is working up the Coquille and Fairview road across by Harrington's ranch. He should receive the support of all friends of Coquille City as it will materially benefit this place as well as the people along and at the other end of the route.

A panther is in the habit of entering the meat house at Smith's camp and helping himself. The boys are "laying" for him. Geo. Pike will get in his work on him. The schooner Eureka got to sea last Tuesday, and the Free Trade arrived in on Wednesday. On Friday the Del Norte got to sea, after being in the river just a week.

The board of directors for the Coquille City school district will meet next Saturday to consider propositions from teachers for teaching the public school which begins in January.

New masquerade suits for both ladies and gentlemen can be had of Tom King at the Leland hotel from the 19th to the 25th of December for the Trombone band dance.

The Recorder clips the article from the Mercury regarding Capt. Jinks whom it is claimed has another wife than the woman he had with him here. He's an old daisy, no doubt.

Gilman, the murderer, only has two more days to live. His execution will be public owing to the fact the county court cannot well hold an extra session to make arrangements for putting up a fence.

MARRIED.—At the bride's residence near Beaver Slough, December 8, 1889, Mr. Edwin McNamee and Mrs. Mary F. Palen, all of Coos county. Rev. R. J. E. Campbell officiating. A grand wedding feast is reported. These our friends have our best wishes.

His neighbor, Mr. Harkness, will erect a business house just west of him soon.

Nothing shows want of breeding and training of a young man or boy more than wanton disrespect to the aged. Monday morning as Uncle Tom Willard was passing the school house one of the boys made an exhibition of his hoodlumism which in no way hurt Mr. Willard, but certainly showed that either his training was not what it should be or else he is one of those who will heed no admonition other than that usually bestowed on a very bad boy.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—George Hite, son of Wm. Hite living at the foot-hills opposite this place, accidentally shot himself Friday last. He was out hunting, and in attempting to pull his gun upon a log, muzzle foremost, the hammer caught on something and thus the gun was fired, the charge of shot taking effect in his forehead, carrying away the flesh to the bone from the eye-brow to the top of the forehead. For the time he was badly hurt, but is getting along nicely. He is about twelve years old.

John A. Gray of the Mail was in town yesterday. Jeff Davis died at his home in New Orleans last Friday morning. Uncle Billy Mast was very low at last accounts, with no hope of recovery.

It were useless to complete Coos county's part of the Middle fork road till Douglas county can get its part completed. In fact it is best that it was not finished just at the approach of winter. The end to be desired is its early completion in the spring.

Mr. T. A. Deroven, merchant, Deroven, Louisiana, says: "The St. Patrick's Pills went like hot cakes." People who have once tried them are never satisfied with any other kind. Their gentle action and reliability as a cathartic is what makes them popular. For sale by J. H. Noster, Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, Myrtle Point.

NEW BANNER SHOP.—Burt Bazum has moved his barber shop one door east in the Hannewell building and has it fixed up in fine order. It is supplied with two good bath-rooms; one for ladies and one for gents. The shop is larger and far better arranged than the former one, and is supplied with every convenience necessary. Now if you want a good shave, as good as barber ever gave, call on Burt.

Coquille City ought to be proud of its band which is the wonder of strangers coming here, its proficiency in furnishing good music, and its readiness to turn out and play its best pieces free of charge for the benefit of the people, challenging their admiration. It costs the boys dearly for music, lights, instruments, etc., and when an opportunity is offered our people should not be sparing in their patronage to help them along. Just such an opportunity will be offered on Dec. 21st when the Star Comedy Company will put on the interesting play—"The Turn of the Tide" and a splendid afterpiece by Wrenshall Bros., the proceeds of which goes to our good band.

PHOT. ROMX.—On Friday night at Masonic hall Prof. Rork of Salem delivered one of his stirring addresses on the living issues of to-day, and showed up the practices of the rich man in securing legislation to increase his wealth at the expense of the toiling masses. He showed clearly that the common people, the toiling millions of the country, were to blame; that they had the remedy if they would only unite and apply it. He showed up the tariff question, trusts and combines evidently to the satisfaction of most of his auditors, judging from their cheers and enthusiasm. He illustrated with figures on a blackboard and challenged anyone to controvert his figures. He showed the difference between the two old political parties; that the high protective tariff clamored for by the republicans required very little more money than the democrats wanted "for revenue only" and that the difference existed only in name. At the close he ordered heads up of those who favored the new Union party lately organized in this state by the union of the laboring parties, prohibitionists, etc., and we were greatly surprised to see scores of hands go up. No doubt but we will see a big stir in politics in Oregon at the next election.

On Sunday the professor delivered two very interesting discourses. The morning subject was "The Lord's Prayer," and that of the evening "Now," and at each the whole town turned out. New and novel ideas poured as it were from the speaker's lips, and the audience seemed spell-bound, so attentive were they to catch every word. So logical is the argument of this noted speaker that conviction is carried with every word.

Attention Company B. You are hereby commanded to appear at your armory on Saturday evening December 14th, duly uniformed. JAMES WHEATSTONE, Captain.

Notice to the Public. I am now in Coquille City located in the Collier building on Front street and I still have a nice stock of watches, jewelry, spectacles and eye-glasses and am selling at the lowest living rates. I expect to remain till after the holidays; as regards the quality of my goods it is useless for me to speak of it; the large trade I still have with the people of Coos county who have bought goods of me for the last six or seven years is sufficient proof of the quality of goods Boots sells. I do not claim to sell you something for nothing, but do claim to try to represent my goods for what they are and in case of a failure I stand ready and willing to make my words good. Now, ladies and gentlemen, while I sincerely thank you for the large patronage you have given me in the past, I will say when in Coquille City please call on me and get prices before buying. I think I can satisfy you both in quality and price. Should you wish to make a present to a friend of a watch, remember I have a few left yet in solid gold, gold filled and silver cases at the lowest possible living rates. As regards spectacles and eye-glasses I have them in solid gold frames and they make a fine Christmas present for an old lady or gentleman. I will also say those that have bought pebbles, spoons, or eye-glasses and they need changing, remember I will attend to it at once. Charges fifty cents where they have been worn from one to four years. Those that want new glasses can select them from about $2.00 worth to select from. Prices from 25c upwaris. Remember, that Old Boots always leads in prices. If others get theirs they have to follow up. With the best of wishes to all, I remain yours truly, Wm. N. BOOTS.
