Lower River by Steamer. By fair-dealing we expect to build up a living business.
Come and see us. vint

The schooner Eureka is due here.

Remember the Rebekah ball tonight.

W. W. Phillips of South Coquille is in town.

Lee Curry has returned from Curry hale and hearty.

Mammoth stock of goods en route for Lyons' well filled store.

Clarence Lowe is to have a clerkship in Rosa's Bandon drugstore.
You can't mention anything in the merchandise line that Mr.
Lyons does not carry in stock.

Diphtheria has shown no signs of further spreading, and the patients are getting along nicely.

Mrs. R. O. Kirkpatrick of Angora is visiting her daughter, Mrs.
Balch, who is sick in this place.

Word comes that J. W. Hume was badly scalded in a boiler explosion a few days ago in San Francisco.

J. S. Edmunds is doing a good part by the patrons of the Robinson house. His tables are second to none in the county.

A business house has been erected just east of Root's boarding house by Mr. Harkness, and he has moved his soda works into it.

Myrtle Point.
James L. Lewellen is dealer in real estate in Myrtle Point, and also in furniture. He can fit you out with a land by the acre or a rock-ing chair. His caskets look good and comfortable and if you wish to be buried alive, go get one before it is everlastingly too late.

Ed Bender has been Notary Public at Myrtle Point for a dozen years or more and has become perfect in the business. His papers are never sent back for correction, so we see that he is the man to make out deeds, as they will all be legal and in proper form.

When you employ a physician it is reasonable that you get one who sends you for new and fresh drugs that have not stood on the shelves for years and lost their strength and virtues. Dr. Fleutge & Co. have the purest and freshest drugs in the market; besides tobacco, cigars and toilet articles Call and see for yourself.

J. C. Brown has the most desirable town property in the city for sale. Go and see him before it is too late. A fine farm adjoining town for sale cheap. Other real estate for sale will be shown those who desire to purchase, free of charge. Mr. Brown was raised on the Coquille and knows every foot of land, and is acquainted with some government lands. Go and see him before you locate. He is the marshal of the town, so you can easily find him.

Last July the Myrtle Point and Trombone bands pledged themselves to work in harmony with each other and in doing so they would thereby bring the citizens of Myrtle Point and Coquille City to a more friendly feeling towards each other. Each band has held that pledge a sacred one, and on invitation from the Myrtle Point band, the Trombone band went up on Christmas to participate in the ball given by the former. The royal welcome extended when the band landed was evidence enough of the good that has already been done by the two bands uniting.

The members of the Trombone band are a unit in their praise of the treatment at the hands of the members of the Myrtle Point band and keep saying over and over again, "they never had a better time since their organization."

As the two bands have several pieces alike they unite in one great band, when together, and the music is simply splendid. Company K. O. N. G. was there and gave our boys a hearty welcome Capt. Blumenrother helping out by playing snare drum. Altogether the three towns, Bandon, Myrtle Point and Coquille City, had a reunion on Christmas, 1889, that will long be remembered by all who participated. May this friendly feeling keep growing in the sincere wish of the Trombone band.

Gene Robinson had an arm broken recently.

A nice lot of matting, solid color calicoes, teas, boots and shoes, ladies gossamers, gents rubber coats, boys rubber boots, etc., etc., just arrived at N. Lorenz's.

Mr. T. A. Deroven, merchant, Deroven, Louisiana, says: "The St. Patrick's Pills went like hot cakes." People who have once tried them are never satisfied with any other kind. Their gentle action and reliability as a cathartic is what makes them popular. For sale by J. H. Nosler, Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, Myrtle Point.

The Butcher Boy was caught in the gale Saturday at the mouth of Catching slough, and had rather a rough time. She was towing two large boats, loaded with cheese, apples and other produce, and to save the steamer it was found necessary to cut the boats loose.

They swamped, and about a ton of cheese and several boxes of apples were lost.—No va.

Winter Cholera.
A species of bowel complaint, known as "winter cholera," appeared in several cities in the Northwest last winter and is likely to be more general this season. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy is a certain cure for it. For Sale by J. H. Nosler, of Coquille City, and W. L. Dixon, of Myrtle Point.

Fine Hogs.
Anyone wanting thoroughbred Berkshire pigs, can now get them of me. My pigs are from a registered sow and boar and are very fine pigs. I also have some thoroughbred Yorkshire pigs for sale.
Have also the celebrated Japanese buckwheat to sell—the boss buckwheat for cakes and bees. This buckwheat is something new for Coos county.—For further particulars inquire of
Geo. W. Wimer,
Arango, Oregon.

Drugs! Drugs!
New Drug Store,
MYRTLE POINT, OR.
Dr. H. FLEUTGE & Co., Proprietors.
