FORWARDED TO THE MEMBERS OF THE LABORER.

When once in a while, the payment of a dividend in this "land of the free" is down by life's rugged road and propounds to himself the question: "Why in spite of my industry and economy, am I poor?" We respectfully recommend that he take the following puck from off his punished back, and after examining its contents, ask himself this traditional question: "Am I a coward and a slave that I carry this burden without protest? Why, a decent minded man would have kicked before this."
The interest and dividend payments this month (July), says the Workmen's Advocate, are the largest ever known in this country. According to the Daily Stockholder, interest is due and payable during the month on more than $2, 000,000,000 bonds of our railroads and similar corporations, and the stock of these corporations on which dividends are payable amounts to over $800,000,000.
The money to be disbursed in payment of this interest aggregates nearly $50,000,000, and the dividends reach the handsome sum of $15,177,500, making for those two items over $74,000,000. If to this be added the disbursements by the government on account of the interest ($8,152,778), and the dividends and interest payable on bankstocks, state and municipal bonds and other corporate institutions, the grand total will not fall far short of $100,000,000. The following table compares this July disbursement on account of interest and dividends on railroad and similar properties for 1888 and 1890:

Summer Sep.

Beautiful weather.

John Dallanble cut a deep gash in his foot, which it was thought for some time would result in blood poisoning.

Summer is the only town in Coos county that can boast of a railroad and street cars. We noticed one of the latter with two large sacks of chittin and a "June-C" on top.
It was drawn by a "flurney."

Apples are beginning to ripen.
Miss Abbie Hudson is quite ill.
Another wedding soon; get there Alex.

Mrs. Maggie Hodson is visiting relatives.
Joe Thompson is the champion cherry picker.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bontell were guests in our town Sunday.
We noticed all the men going round with woe-begon looking faces Monday, and on inquiry we learned that the company had sent up a "ching chong" to preside over the culinary department of their hotel and they would be obliged to "chew" there.

The wedding we spoke of, took place on Sunday. The contracting parties were Mrs. Levar and
Rev. Rook.
Mrs. Hudson and family are going to the beach.
Gardens present a fine appearance.

Where is "Greenhorn."
Buggy riding is all the rage.
Noisy Rats.
Summer Aug. 8, 1890.

The following, from the pen of Abraham Lincoln, conclusively proves that the grandest man ever placed at the head of human affairs, gazed into the future and read aright the condition of affairs, that were to be in the next quarter of a century:

"Yes we may congratulate ourselves that the cruel war is nearly at a close. It has cost a vast amount of treasure and blood. The best blood of the flower of American youth has been freely offered upon our country's altar that our country might live. It has been indeed, a trying hour for the republic, but I see in the near future a crisis approaching that immerse me and causes me to tremble for the safety of our country as a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working up the prejudices of the people until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic is destroyed.
I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of the war. God grant that my suspicions may prove groundless."
