FINE WORK.—The porch on C. W. White's residence is a model of neatness and elegance and must catch the artistic eye. It is without doubt the finest piece of work of the kind we have seen in the town. Mr. M. R. Jones did the work.

The 1st quarterly conference of M. E. Church, South, will be held, for the Coquille circuit, so as to embrace the first sabbath in Sept. and Saturday before. Official board please be present.

Will Fenton, P. C.
T. P. Haynes, P. E.

Following are the appointments for the Roseburg district of M. E. Church, South: Roseburg dist., T. P. Haynes, P. E.; Roseburg circuit, W. B. Smith; Myrtle creek circuit, P. A. Moses; Grants Pass, to be supplied; Jacksonville circuit, R. C. Oglesby; Applegate circuit, H. B. Swafford; Coquille station, Laughorn Leitch; Coquille circuit, Will Fenton; Linkville circuit, J. W. Bryant.

Prof. J. H. Taylor and Mrs. Taylor are advertised for an entertainment at this place this evening. The valley papers, including the Oregonian, Astorian, Albany papers, etc., all speak in the highest terms of this entertainment. The Oregonian says: "The entertainment was a delightful success." You will miss one of the best amusements which has visited this county if you don't attend.

Douglas county people have informed us that 104 wagons—movers—turned back and went away this summer for want of a wagon road down to Coos. We were corresponding with a score who intended coming when they could get in. They have probably given up in disgust. It is safe to say that we have lost upwards of two hundred families who would have settled in the county this season, and we will feel the loss. If railroad work is not coming to relieve dull times, Coos county will see the closest winter it ever experienced.

All for Hanner

One day "the bank," as we called it, reached Grizzly Slide. It was a San Francisco broker, escorted by four men. He had bags of gold coin with him, and he took up our nuggets and dust and paid us in yellow boys. I suppose he made a pretty good thing out of it, but as it was a great accomodation to us we had no complaint to make. Only two or three days previously one of our men, known to us as Peaceful Sam, had made find of a thumping big nugget, and this, added to his wash, gave him over $6,000 in handsome coin. He was a man of 45, humble and peace loving, and he had a wife back in Illinois. He had never said anything about going home, although he was waiting, like the rest of us, for luck, but no sooner was the coin passed over to him than his bones ached to take the road for home. He must go over to Johnson's camp, a distance of sixteen miles, alone, and from there go down the valley by a stage line. The chances were that he would be held up at the trail, and we argued and coaxed him to stay. Next morning, however, he was off, having $300 in his pocket and the rest of the money in his blanket on his back. He never carried a weapon of any sort and he started on this trip without one. We never expected to see him again, but he was back at night with a story to tell. He had got about three miles from camp when a stranger joined him, coming in on the Deep river trail. Sam was no chicken and he wasn't long sizing the stranger up as bad.

"Bound for Johnson's?" asked the man as they walked along.

"For Johnson's and home."

"Made your pile and going back to the old woman, eh?"

"Made three hundred, and have concluded to light out while it lasts. Hanner has been writing for me to come, and if I can even lay a hundred in her lap it will be more'n she ever saw before. Lands! but when I think of home and Hanner I can't walk fast 'nuff!"

The stranger didn't show his hand until afternoon. Then, when they reached a particularly lonesome place, he suddenly halted, pulled a gun, and said:

Give me them $300 or I'll fill you with lead."

"What! gwine to rob me?" replied Peaceful, looking as innocent as an old cat.

"Come down."

"But think o' Hanner! She's been waitin' and waitin', and now if you take my money I may never see her."

"D—n Hanner! Shell out or I'll pop you!"

"Hain't you no soul?"

"Nary soul."

"And I've got to shell out?"

"You have."

Peaceful passed him out the $300 and then sat down on a stone and pretended to cry. The stranger counted the coins, dropped them into his pocket and started off saying:

"You sot right there for an hour, and then take any road you want to. If you follow me I'll pop you."

He was no sooner around the bend than Peaceful began scrambling up the mountain side. By making a short cut he struck the trail again, and was just in time to heave a rock which struck the stranger's head and killed him stone dead on the trail, then Peaceful descended, took $750 off the body, and started back for our camp. Next morning half a dozen of us went to the spot with him, and there lay the body. When we asked Peaceful why he had owned up to having $300 with him he replied:

"Law, me! but if I hadn't he'd have suspected I had a heap more and shot me without warning. That's what I calkerlated on when I put that sum in my pocket."

"But what possessed you to follow on and kill him? You never even struck a man in all your life."

"I dunno, gentlemen—I dunno," he pleaded, his lips trembling and his chin quivering" with emotion. "I just remember that I thought of Hanner, and how them $300 would put new shingles on the old barn and buy rag carpets for all over the house, and fust thing I knew he was lying dead. Lemme git alone and wrassle with the Lord and see if he won't kinder excuse it off on Hanner's account."

THE PROBLEM SOLVED.
An Unrivaled Blood Purifier.

Found at last in Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup—A remedy which expels all poisonous and taints of disease from the blood. A well known citizen of West Lebanon, Ind., testifies to its value:

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to state that my wife has received greater benefit from Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup than from any medicine she has ever taken. We have used six bottles, and find it to be the best family remedy and the greatest blood purifier that we have ever used. It is truly all it is claimed to be by its founder. You cannot recommend it too highly.

Yours Truly,
Frank Wallace, West Lebanon, Ind.
Sold by R. S. Knowlton, Coquille City, Or.

Fine Hogs.

Anyone wanting thoroughbred Berkshire pigs, can now get them of me. My pigs are from a registered sow and boar and are very fine pigs. I also have some thoroughbred Yorkshire pigs for sale. Have also the celebrated Japanese buckwheat to sell—the boss buckwheat for cakes and bees. This buckwheat is something new for Coos county.—For further particulars inquire of

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon. August 25, 1890.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Judge or Clerk of the county court of Coos county, Oregon, at Empire City, Oregon, on Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1890, viz: Arthur A. Simons, Pre-emption D. S. No. 6731, for the SE ¼ of Sec. 28, Tp. 27, S. of Range 13 West, W. M.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of, said land, viz:

W. S. Jenkins, Jr., C. M. Hollin, S. S. McAdams, W. S. Jenkins, Sr., all of Coquille City, Coos County, Oregon.

JOHN H. SHUPE, Register.

[Gold Beach Gazette.]

The Chetco departed for the city Wednesday with a cargo of salmon, wool and tanbark.

The Katie Cook departed for Crescent City Monday, for a cargo of lumber, returning Wednesday.

Judge Woodruff, of Euchre creek last week sold his dairy cows to Isom Walker, of Northern Curry. The Judge goes out of the dairy business, and thinks of devoting his attention to the breeding of thoroughbred sheep.

Chris Long has discovered a halibut bank close to the mouth of the Coquille.

There is 12 to 14 feet of water on the Coquille bar.

The schooner Mary Anderson is looking for the steamer Brother Jonathan, which was wrecked in the vicinity of Point St. George 25 years ago. The steamer went down with about $2,000,000 on board.

There is a very dangerous sunken rock some distance off shore, southwest from the mouth of Rogue river, which is directly in the track of coasting vessels. Sea captains say there should by all means be a whistling buoy on this rock.

AN OLD SOLDIER'S STORY: In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlin's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I use it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey Ore. For sale by R. S. Knowlton and S. L. Leneve, Coquille City, Oregon.

HEALTHFUL EXERCISE.

Only a few months ago these romping, rosy-cheeked lasses were puny, delicate, pale, sickly girls. By the aid of Dr. Pierce's world-famed Favorite Prescription, they have blossomed out into beautiful, plump, hale, hearty, strong young women.

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic and as a regulator and promoter of functional action at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, it is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is carefully compounded, by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. It imparts strength to the whole system. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been faithfully carried out for many years.
