Dr. Holden is the boss snag puller. He has been busy pulling teeth the past week and being able to extract without pain his work meets with great favor. He is an excellent hand on plate work also.

STRAY.—A stray horse—bay, about 7 years old, weighing about 1000 lbs, gentle; has saddle marks and left hind foot white—is at J. P. Messer's stable, this place. Owner should come and claim property.

The rumor that Mr. Dodge speaks of is not with foundation; Mr. G. A. Brown has effected a purchase of the Myrtle Point hotel for his daughter and her husband Mrs. and Mrs. Mat Nystrom, who will take possession at once.

Our old friend E. W. Fahy, Sr., of Randolph was severely hurt a few days ago, we are informed by Capt. Tennisson. He was using a team and was thrown out of his wagon one wheel of which passed over his head leaving him unconcious for hours alone on the road. One of his boys had a similar accident the same day though he was but slightly hurt. The former is getting along all right now.

H. H. Nichols received by express on Saturday ten magnificent ebalone shells from an acquaintance, an old crippled man, at Los Gatos, California. They are splendidly polished and are too pretty for any use. The old man has sent them here for sale $15 for the lot or ranging from $1 to $2 separately. You can see them at Knowlton's drugstore, and you will at least want one.

Mr. Lorenz is improving his place in the big bottom opposite town. The land is claimed as swamp by the state, but he has raised a fine crop and only for getting at it late he would have surprised the natives. It was too dry for seed to sprout till the June rains or the crop would be fully ripe. This does not look much like swamp land, though in keeping with the doings of high officials in the past. We trust the swamp land people will not do as they did in one instance in Eastern Oregon, where, failing to prove the land to be swampy, laid claim under the desert act, thus jumping from one extreme to the other.

Col. Rosa of Bandon was in town on Sunday.

BASE BALL.—Word comes that a picked nine from the lower river is coming up to scoop the Kids next Sunday. If it proves true a good game will be witnessed. There are some good players at Bandon and on that part of the river and if a nine in the county can strip the kids of their laurels, it will be the one spoken of. A contest was had here last Sunday, but the kids done up the picked nine 32 to 9 in six innings.

STRAYED.—A small bay mare white spot on forehead, also a white triangular mark on left buttock like this V, about 2½ inches the longest way; short tail, small limbs—would weigh probably 700 lbs. Also a yearling colt of a darkish color with a mixture of gray; will probably be an iron gray when it has its permanent coat. Finder will be paid for his trouble and expenses. Address

Walter Oldland,
Libby, Coos Co. Or.
