Circuit court convened yesterday.

Johnson Bros. have a fine lot of onions on hand.

Capt. Littlefield visited this place the latter part of the week.

Mr. Isam Walker of Curry county was a visitor to our burg Saturday.

A stock of fine accordeons at Lorenz's, at lowest possible figures.

I. A. Lyon, formerly of Douglas county, Mo., with his family arrived here last week.

Winfield Applegate and Miss Mignon Cawfield were married at Roseburg on the 1st inst.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—20 head of young cattle. Inquire of C. A. Bullard, Arago, Oregon.

The person who left a pair of carpet slippers at Martin's shop to be repaired will come and get the same.

There are several sick persons about town, but they are all getting well. This speaks well for our doctors.

Mrs. Joyce of Bandon has been visiting Richard Houghton's family near Arago, and returned home yesterday.

John Wagoner who formerly lived on this river, moved back with his family from Klamath county last week.

Johnson Bros. wants those owing them to come forward and pugle up. They will have to close shop if they cannot get their dues.

Is. Root's team took a lively spin down Front St. one day last week frightening some of our people out of their wits. They stopped when they struck the river.

Mr. Martin, a late arrival from Omaha, came in from Roseburg with R. E. Buck yesterday. He is a printer and spent the summer with Will Miller at Spokane Falls.

Uncle Daniel Palaska is getting along slowly since the amputation of his finger. He made a trip to Bandon yesterday. We owe Mr. P. an apology for getting ten years too much on his nose.

DIED.—In Coquille City Oct. 4, 1890, George, youngest son of David Drew, aged 8 years. The family have the sympathy of the whole community for little George was a noble, manly little fellow.

Our customers all speak highly in praise of St. Patrick's Pills. They are the best.—Perry Bros. Carroll, Nebraska. For sale by R. S. Knowlton and S. L. Leneve, druggists, Coquille City, Oregon.

Dr. Holden, the dentist, went to Bandon by special request. He is rushed with work all the time and the people are immensely pleased with his work. Coquille City is fortunate in securing his permanent location.

Geo. W. Wimer of Halls creek has for sale some thoroughbred Berkshire pigs, and some bull calves from his thoroughbred short-horn bull and good graded cows. Here is your chance to improve your stock.

Mesdames Hall and Lukens have opened their dress-making parlors in the Hurnwell building where they will be pleased to meet the ladies of Coquille City and vicinity. They are both experienced hands, and work entrusted to them will receive the greatest care. Give them your work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore of Curry county made this office a very pleasant visit Friday afternoon. It is Mrs. Moore's first visit to Coquille City for two years. They are very hopeful of their Salmon mountain mine. We trust there are "millions in it" for they are most excellent people.

A valuable package has been received at the postoffice here the address on which had become obliterated. Among the contents is a white silk scarf. Describe the balance of contents and claim your property. Do not bother the postmaster if you cannot describe the goods. He will not answer your letters if you can't.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—A cutting affray occurred on Bear creek on Saturday last, in which John L. Nelson is said to have received four severe cuts on his body at the hands of Robt. Doyle. It is said that he will get well, but it was a close call. We did not get particulars, but learn there was an old grudge that scarcely needed an excuse to incite.

Congress has adjourned.

The schooner Coquille got to sea on Wednesday, the 1st.

The bridge across the North fork at Braden's is complete.

A wedding is in progress to day, not 40 miles from Rink creek.

J. J. Baker's family returned from Douglas county on Friday evening.

Jimmy Hill of the Coast Mail paid this office a pleasant call on Saturday.

The academy presents a very nice spectacle since its roof and belfry are on.

Joseph E. Sebill and Miss Mary McLeod were married in Marshfield on the 25 ult.

Neighbor Jones has completed the outside of his beautiful dwelling and much of it is painted.

Carpenters are unusually busy; every body is having some work done—many are putting up dwellings.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson of South Coquille visited friends and relatives in this place the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Mary Hague, mother of Mesdames Engloe O'Connell and Thos. Minot, died at Nanaimo, B. C., Sept 24.

A hazel bush growing in East Marshfield measures over a foot in diameter. The Mail wonders what people in the east would think of that.

Hardy Mast and Amos Hatcher killed an immense cougar on North Coquille last Wednesday. It measured twenty inches around the forearm.

Two freight trains collided at Pleasant Valley, Ohio, on the 28th ult., and nine men were killed. A mistake of a telegraph operator was the cause.

Rev. W. G. Miller of Roseburg will preach in Coquille City commencing the 3rd Sunday in this month and continue a week. Go and hear him.

Prof. Wilson will open school in the public school building next Monday. Have the children ready. The Prof. comes highly recommended and there is no good reason why we should not have a good school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor have been tendered a benefit entertainment by the leading citizens of Marshfield. During the Professor's lameness Mrs. Taylor is giving lessons on piano, an instrument on which she is proficient.

As will be seen by clipping from Bandon Recorder work is to commence at once on an ocean steamer to run to this river. All of which is rare good news. Yesterday Mr. E. Heuckendorff went down to Howell's camp to get out the keel.

Freethought gives Prof. T. P. Brinegar a rather funny notice; how low in spirits he was on arriving in San Francisco after losing all his effects on the wrecked steamer Ajax, and how he would like to exchange a trunk check and some dear experience for ready cash.

PAY UP.—All those owing me for the service of my horse will please pay said amount to me, to E. Bender or A. J. Sherwood on or before Oct. 20th. Otherwise accounts will be put in the hands of a collector with instructions to force collection.

JAS. HERVEY.

PETITIONS.—This office has printed and Willie Schroeder of the K of L lodge at Arago, this county, has sent to each postoffice in Oregon two petitions; one asking the legislature to give us the Australian ballot system, and the other to have the state print our school books at cost. Every friend of reform must see the necessity of both and it is hoped that every person will sign them, and see that they are duly forwarded to some member of the Oregon legislature.

The merchants of Coquille City have decided to close their stores at seven o'clock every evening, (Saturday excepted) commencing Oct. 13, 1890 and trust their customers will keep it in mind. Signed:

JNO. KRONENBERG & SON, WIMER & CAMPBELL, JAMES A. LYONS, J. A. COLLIER, JOHNSON BROS., N. LORENZ.

Mr. R. J. E. Campbell is now agent for the Coos Bay marble and stone works of Marshfield. Parties wanting anything in the marble line such as monuments or headstones can secure the same by giving their orders to Mr. Campbell, who will be pleased to take their orders and furnish them the work at the same price they would pay for it, at the works at Marshfield. Mr. Campbell has photographic designs of monuments and headstones which he will be pleased to show to anyone wishing anything in the marble line. All work guaranteed first-class and according to designs.

C. W. PATTERSON, PROP. Coos bay marble and stone works, 65-4w

An Indian uprising of large magnitude is feared about Fort Sill. Five thousand redskins there have renounced christianity, and are holding nightly meetings going into incantations and religious orgies in prospect of a new medicine man to whom they look for the restoration of the country.

BORN.—At Bandon, Oct. 1, 1890, to the wife of Capt. Charles Sumner, a daughter.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Mrs. Rosabell Van Leuvan, Sept. 27, 1890, by R. W. Bullard, J. P. Mr. Albert Farris to Miss Alice Van Leuvan, all of Coos county.

Carl Nelson and A. B. Sabin are building a sawmill on a small creek a half mile north of Dairyville. It will be run by water power, and is expected to turn out 1,400 feet of lumber per day.

Geo. Dye, whose tragic death is portrayed by Mr. Dodge in our upper department, was a noble boy and his parents and brothers have the sympathy of this entire community where they have lived for many years. He was buried at this place on Saturday.

Sale of the Property of the S. W. O. A. Society at Arago.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the S. W. O. A. society, held at the fair grounds on Sept. 12, 1890, it was decided to hold the fairs of the society at Bandon, and the board of directors was instructed to sell the property of the society at Arago to pay debts. Now, therefore, agreeable to said instructions the board of directors met on October 1st, 1890, at the fair grounds and decided to sell said property at public auction on Saturday, Oct. 18, 1890, the sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue during the day until all the following property is sold:

The pavilion, stable, exhibit stall, grand stand, judges stand, pool stand, fencing, 1 scraper, 1 harrow, 3 pumps, etc.

Attest: J. Henry Schroeder, 10-2w Sec.
