PAY UP.—Those owing J. J. Wilson are requested to come forward and make payment at once. Mrs. Wilson is in charge of the business during Jerry's absence and she needs the money. Come, rustle up the cash.
Wm. Panter who lives near the mouth of Lampey creek made us a pleasant call Friday. He was an early settler on this river and his reminiscences of early days are intensely interesting. He informs us that he is still working his coal mines as local demands require.
Any one wishing the service mornings, evenings and Saturdays of a good, steady, industrious boy of 14 years of age and will board him while he attends school in this place for such services should write to Oscar J. Smith Parkersburg. He is just the boy one would wish.
The article on our first page today by Mr. J. H. Upton, one of the most profound reasoners on the coast, as well as one of the best posted men, gives the situation of our troubles in a nut shell. There is not enough money in the country to do a cash business, and while we sold those owing us (some times the fault is really theirs,) generally they are blameless; yet the money sharks are going to keep the people short of money and paying for "indulgencies."

Mr. G. W. Norton has the foundation laid for a dwelling.
What is Coquille City going to do about a sewerage system?
Mrs. Fraser Topper of Bandon is visiting her folks in this place.

Frank Stillwell returned from Eastern Oregon on Saturday after an absence of several years.
Manley Roberts' pleasant smile was a prominent and agreeable figure at the Robinson house Saturday.
David Morse, Jr., of Empire City, was a guest at the Robinson house Friday night. He was en route to the city.
Johnson Bros. of this place are agents for "Microbe Killer" and have ordered a large supply of this famous medicine.
Ted Hatcher killed another big cougar on North fork a few days ago. It was doing up the sheep of the neighborhood.
CEDAR POSTS.—J. T. Moulton will furnish and deliver red cedar posts at a very moderate price to almost any point in this vicinity. 12tf
Wm. Brady lost his nine-year-old daughter, at his home at Gravel Ford, with sore throat, last Tuesday. The sympathy of the neighborhood is extended.
ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—On Friday evening last at Frank Miller's place on Fishtrap Artis Edmunds, son of Elder G. R. Edmunds, shot himself severely in the wrist and forearm while removing a shot gun from a wagon. Our informant is of the opinion that no bones were broken. Dr. Brower was called and dressed the wound and the patient was resting easy at last accounts.
DIED.—At his home on the Siuslaw Oct. 8th, of dropsy, John Dame. He had a stroke of paralysis a couple of years ago and has been almost entirely helpless since. The early settlers of the Coquille will learn of his death with deep sorrow for he was a noble man. He leaves a sister, Mrs. A. Pershaker, on this river; another, Mrs. Carothers, at Oakland, Cal., and a brother, Joseph, at Ashland, this state.
CUTTING AFFRAY.—On Sunday afternoon Al Willard was severely stabbed three times by Tom Drew at Mrs. Willard's place two miles up the river. The trouble was about a beaver skin, the former claiming it is said, that the latter had taken an animal of that kind out of his trap. We have not found out all the particulars, but Willard has been brought to town and his wounds may yet prove serious, particularly one in the groin. It is deeply deplored by their friends, especially as the boys are related. No arrests have been made.
SHOOTING SCRAPE.—A shooting affray occurred at Empire City the latter part of the week in which Ed. Dougherty shot a man, whose name we did not learn, through the arm. Dougherty is the barkeeper at Klahn's saloon and it appears he was outside and came running in followed by the mate of the brig Lucas, the latter striking at him at every jump. When inside Dougherty pulled a pistol which went off before he got its aim on the mate, and a bystander was shot as above. The mate skipped out instanter, and it was found the bullet had only gone through the fleshy part of the man's arm.

Mr. Orvil Dodge of Myrtle Point was in town yesterday.
Billy Wimer, Jr., came in from Grants Pass last week.
The roads are getting rough being cut up badly since the rains set in.

W. Tell and John A. Lehnerr have gone to Southern California for a short time.
T. A. Walker is remodeling and fixing up his dwelling. It will add much to its appearance.
Mrs. J. Was Nosler has been very sick with neuralgia and rheumatism the past week.
Our old friend D. W. Stevens writes us that he raised a fine crop at Northwood, N. D., this year.
Mr. Thos. Ashton of Lampey creek brought a lot of smoked salmon to town yesterday and they went like hot cakes.
N. J. Nielson who was here for treatment for paralysis has returned to his home near Randolph. He is in a bad condition.
Our school authorities should buy the old Masonic block in this place for site of new school house which we must have very soon. It is admirably situated, and the only place where a full block can be had.
Parties who have not made selection of site in new grave yard for the re-interment of their friends buried in the old Masonic grave yard should do so at once, as the moving of bodies is to be done at once.
