DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE LABORER

PEOPLE'S PARTY.
The following compose the County Central Committee of the People's Party of Coos County, Oregon:
N. S. Vandenberg, B. F. Ross,
T. A. Walker, C. Wilkins,
W. H. Hall.

Before the law was written down with pen and ink, the law made citizens, the moral law made men. The law stands for human rights, but when it fails those rights to us, but when it then let law die, my brother, but let human beings live.
—Rev. Miller Hageman.

The Fourth
Ladies' Prayer.

Our father, who art in heaven, Rothschild by thy name, thy financial kingdom is here in America, they will be in the United States as it is in England. Give us this day our bonds in gold, but not in silver; give us plenty of laboring men's votes to keep monopoly in power and its friends in office. We know, our father, that we have done many things that were wrong. We have robbed the honest poor, and brought distress to many a door.
We know it was wrong to refund the bonds and make them payable in coin. We know it was wrong to demote silver. We know it was wrong to water all our railroad stock; but thou knowest we gained much by that. Now, our father, thou knowest we are above politics. It is the same to us whether the Democrats or the Republicans rule; for thou knowest we are able to sway all political and legislative jobs in our favor. Lead us not into the ways of the People's party, and deliver us from the insane labor agitators and reformers. Thus we shall have the kingdom of bonds, interest, taxing powers, and all the gold till the republic shall end.
Amen.—Delivered by Timothy Shea at the meeting held in Columbus on Labor Day.

A short time ago the New York freedom, the strongest papers in that city, quoted a genuine sensation by coming out for free coinage. Its leading editorial was as follows:

"To the St. combination and its impudently cry of 'honest money,' the recorder says, without any parleying, that it has a lie on its lips. It is not honest money, but dishonest money, that it wants.
It is not to strengthen, but to destroy business confidence and credit that it is clamoring for the gold standard. It is not to save, but to wreck this nation of 65,000,000 of people that it is trying to put through congress the unconditional repeal of the present law without putting anything in its place. The success of the unconditional repeal bill would be the deathknell of prosperity in this country for long years to come. The claim that the people of the east favor it is false.
Wall street favors it. The wolf is always in favor of prey, and the pirate naturally inclines to plunder.
But the masses of the people, east as well as west, have a common interest to defeat the gold standard scheme which aims at the spoliation of north, south, east and west alike."

What a Republican Says.
In the language of John J.
Ingalls—"Gold is the money of the king and the highwayman, the miser and the money-shark. Gold never fought the battles of freedom and never unshackled the chains of human slavery. Gold is cowardly and tyrannical. During the war of the rebellion it either fled to foreign shores or took refuge in the vaults of the money-lenders of the east; it never was in sympathy with the people, and now it seeks by national legislation to deprive the masses of their money and to establish a monetary standard that in its effect is nothing short of legalized robbery to the debtor class of the nation. Gold is the money of the millionaire, while silver is the poor man's money and any attempt to impair its value is a direct stab at the industrial classes."

The Pennsylvania legislature passed a bill which provides for supplying school children with text books at the expense of the state.

Voices From the Dead.

John A. Logan: The cause of our depression is money-famine and nothing else.
Jas. A. Garfield: Whoever controls the volume of money of any country is absolute master of all industry and commerce.
Daniel Webster: Liberty cannot long endure in any country where the tendency is to concentrate wealth in the hands of the few.
Prof. Walker: That prices will rise or fall as the volume of money may be increased or diminished is a law as unalterable as any law of nature.
Andrew Jackson: If congress has a right under the constitution to issue paper money, it has a right to have it used by themselves, not to be delegated to individuals or corporations.
Abraham Lincoln: Labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, and could never have existed had not labor first existed.
Thomas Jefferson: I believe that the banking institutions are more dangerous than standing armies.
Already they have raised up a money aristocracy that has set the government at defiance. The issuing power should be restored to the government of the people, to whom it belongs. Let the banks exist but let them bank on treasury notes.
Money should be made on material in which there could be no speculation, something the value of which could not be changed to suit the caprice of money gamblers.
The value of the material on which the dollar is stamped should have nothing to do with the value of the dollar.

Fresno Expositor: The righteous indignation that stirred San Francisco from center to circumference over the "Ladies' Entrance" to saloons has fallen into innocuous desuetude. It was too big a task for that city, and besides the saloon men and the politics of San Francisco, and there are too many men want office who fear their power.
Poor old San Francisco.

Exchange: Some years ago the commercial ratio of silver to gold was as 33 to 1, but no one howled about it, although the legal ratio was the same as now, 16 to 1, and everybody took the "depreciated silver dollar" at 100 cents. "Parity" nonsense was unknown in those good old days. Why not return to them?

Alliance News: Col. Hughes has no right to kick against the verdict of the court-martial. He demanded the trial for the notoriety it would give him, and he got it.
He knew the penalty, and he got that too. Then he would better stop whining and take his medicine like a man.

If protective tariff is good, why is not prohibitive tariff still better?

The payroll at the Newport mine last month was over $7000. A considerable sum to be disbursed in hard times.

The Bandon came in on Tuesday with a cargo of freight, principally for the Coquille. She left on Wednesday.

The big raft did not get out and the National City left without it on Monday. It now looks as if they would have to stay inside for a large portion of the winter. The water on the bar is not sufficient to float the mass of timber and there is no immediate prospect of a deeper channel. The delay is unfortunate in a great many respects.

VICTORS OR DEATH.

Democrats Must Vote for Repeal or Get No Reform Tariff.
Washington, Oct. 3.—House—The committee on judiciary reported favorably on the Rawlins bill, providing for the disposition of the property in the hands of the receiver of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, valued at $150,000 and authorizing its application to charitable purposes in said church.
Northway opened the debate in opposition to the election laws repeal bill.
Senate—When the senate met this morning there were only a few Republicans in the chamber and not a Democrat. After delay of three minutes a vote was obtained.

Senator Depue of Alabama offered an amendment to bill No. 1, the Wilson repeal bill, declaring it in force on January 18, 1837, to be in force. The bill to repeal the Sherman law was then laid before the senate.

Senator Dolph took the floor and continued the speech begun yesterday in support of the repeal bill.
He said: When the Democratic party was in a minority, it could afford to favor free coinage, but now that it had a majority, it had necessarily become conservative on this subject.

Washington, Oct. 3.—W. M.
Springer of Illinois, chairman of the house committee on coinage, says there will be no compromise on silver repeal. If the senate does not pass the repeal bill there will be no repeal of the federal election laws and no tariff legislation. The vote on unconditional repeal cannot be delayed and the bill will pass.

Madison of Nebraska on the other hand says there will be a compromise. It may not come for two or three weeks, but it will come.

Leggett Landrich Still Lives.
Two weeks ago we published an account of the mysterious appearance of Leggett Landrich, a well-to-do Coos river farmer, and now it turns out that he has skipped and his putting his gun and hat in the boat was only to decoy the public. His wife, the other day, to the report comes from reliable parties, told of her husband's actions to several friends. Landrich, before his departure shaved off his "whiskers" and took all the money in the house, even his children's pin money, and started for the valley via Lost Lake. The general impression seems to be that the notive that prompted Landrich to leave was the fear of his connection with the burning of his barn. He had been carrying insurance of $1700 on his barn and contents, and on the 26th day of July last, four days after he paid the policy, the structure went up in smoke.
Landrich was in town the day before his disappearance and agreed with the underwriters to accept $513, but his wife was not satisfied with that amount. In the course of the conversation the underwriter told Mr. Landrich that his company would probably inquire a little further into the origin of the fire. The next day Mrs.
Landrich came to town to accept the proposition made by the representative of the insurance company, but before she returned home her husband had skipped out—Sun.

Sun: The Bandon on her last trip from Portland brought down 100,000 shingles for the woolen mill at Bandon. It is singular that shingles should be imported by that company, when nearly every trip the Bandonille makes out of the Coquille river she carries a consignment of shingles to some place or another, and they are of a first-class quality.

GENERAL NEWS.

WALL STREET THREATENS THE SEN-ATE.
Washington, Oct. 1.—The following printed circular was received by every representative senator and public official in Washington today:
"There is a time in the affairs of men when patience ceases to be a virtue. Down with the United States senate, enemies of the people."
Although no skull and cross-bones headed the circular, the words were printed in large, black, ominous-looking type. The letters containing the circulars were postmarked New York.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The repeal of the election laws was discussed in this city. Dispari-tary constables arrested during the ex-saloon keepers of this city and confiscated everything which could by any means be considered contraband.

MR. BOLTER BOLTS.
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 2.—The greatest political sensation of the Iowa campaign this fall was sprung this morning by Senator L. B. Bolter, of Harrison county, who, in a letter to Chairman Scott, of the Populist central committee, announces that he has bolted the Democratic ticket and will support Joseph for governor. Bolter has been a Democratic leader in Iowa several years.

TWO CONFIDENCE MEN.
Denver, Col., Oct. 3.—President Wheatcroft and Secretary Friedlander of the National Benefit Trust association, organized last spring under laws of Colorado, with capital of a million dollars, are under arrest charged with obtaining money by a confidence game. Its prospects connects names of large numbers of prominent people of Denver and elsewhere as being officially connected with it.
KENTUCKY'S NEW LAWS.
Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 2.—All laws passed by the late legislature, 219 in all, went into effect today, and take the place of the entire statutes of Kentucky. Among the most important is the law compelling the railroads to furnish separate coaches for whites and blacks. It is feared that there will be trouble, as many of the negroes are desperately opposed to the measure. The latter class of negroes are, however, willing to submit to the law until the courts shall have decided whether it is constitutional or not.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES' MEETING.
St. Paul, Oct. 2.—The United States court of appeals handed down a decision in the case of the United States against the Trans-Missouri Freight association. The suit was originally brought in Kansas under the Sherman anti-trust law. The lower court decided in favor of the association, holding that it was not a trust, but was organized under the interstate commerce law.
The court of appeals sustained the lower court, Judge Shiras dissenting.

CHOLERA IN WISCONSIN.
Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 2.—The 10-day-old child of Mr. and Mrs.
Monson died Saturday afternoon.
It turned black in a few hours.
Attending physicians say the child died from cholera, and notified the district attorney and sheriff. Before they could hold an inquest, the Monsons buried the child in a cemetery. It is probable that the body will be disinterred. Physicians to whom the body and the symptoms have been described have no hesitation in pronouncing it a case of cholera. Eau Claire is on the path taken by emigrants to the northwest. It is believed that the case came from germs left by these travelers.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances, WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled, if not remarried, whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled if the soldier's death was due to service.

CHILDREN are entitled (if under 16 years) in almost all cases where there was no widow or she has since died or remarried.
PARENTS are entitled if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.
Thousands of soldiers drawing from $2 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.
Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee, and Seminole or Florida Indian wars of 1820 to 1842, are entitled under a recent act.

MEXICAN WAR SOLDIERS and their widows also entitled, if 62 years of age or disabled or dependent.
Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later laws or not.
Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.
Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.
