Prof. Barklow, county superintendent, returned yesterday from the examination held at Marshfield last week.

Jack Wood has the editor's thanks for kind remembrance in the way of pumpkins and other vegetables.

It is hardly likely our people in this upper valley will put up a woolen mill; why not, then, establish a tannery?

We call the attention of our readers to Mr. Romander's able article on co-operative dairying in today's HERALD.

Rev. W. Horsfall passed down to Bandon and the lower coast last Wednesday, where he would conduct services at several points.

It is no easy thing to dress harsh, coarse hair so as to make it look graceful or becoming. By the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor this difficulty is removed and the hair made to assume any style or arrangement that may be desired.

The tug Triumph delivered the schooner Ralph J. Long at our wharf last Thursday. She took a load of lumber from Lyons' mill for San Francisco and left yesterday.

Last Thursday Prof. Kanematz received 40,000 or 50,000 silk worm eggs from Germany, through a silk specialist, Mr. Shoemaker, at Akron, Ohio.

N. Lorenz will now occupy the new store room next door to the post-office, late Harkness & Scott's, where he will open at once a choice stock of general merchandise, specially reasonable fall and winter goods, hats, caps, boots and shoes, rubber goods of all kinds, woollen ready-made clothing, underwear, etc.

A. Buzan put an acre in carrots the past season, the result of which has been 30 tons, all of which he has disposed of readily—for they have always commanded a higher price—at $5 per ton.

We overheard something of a discussion on ensilage the other day. There is no need of the expense, labor and risk of anything of the kind in this country.

A Wesleyan minister is daily expected in Bandon. He will be stationed there and will hold regular services. It is expected a handsome site will be given for the erection of a spacious Methodist church there as Bandon, it is said, abounds with Methodists and that liberal sums for that purpose will be forthcoming when required.

Advertisement for St. Jacobs Oil, claiming it will cure sprains, strains, and bruises.
