The Herald has splendid clubbing facilities with the best newspapers published in the land. We offer The Herald and the New York Times - A WEEK WORLD, both for one year for only $2.25

The annual meeting of the state teachers' association, including the college association of Oregon and county superintendency, will open at Portland tomorrow and continue to and including Friday.

The Herald is in favor of the state publishing its own school-books; and cutting loose from all combines, trusts and monopolies and their evil influences.

Some of our broad-minded and wide-out statesmen, when it comes to appropriating the public's money to establish state institutions, think it would cost $350,000 to establish and equip a school-book publishing house for the state.

Doctors Alex Donald and Chas. Magraw left on Sunday morning to spend Christmas at their homes in St. Paul, Minn. They intend to return here again.

The schooner Eureka made the run up from San Francisco in three days, but was detained outside 13 days, on account of bad weather, before getting into the river.

The woolen mills will close down during the holidays and do some necessary repairing—build a pillar under the boiler, and other work that needs to be done.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator to keep the bowels regular. One dose is worth 100 dollars.

Co-operative Dairying.

The following are the figures given by Superintendent R. D. Sanford in the late dairymen's convention in favor of co-operative dairying:

Table listing expenses for manufacturing 61,000 lbs. butter this year, including expert wages, fuel, and other costs.

Total cost of manufacturing 61,000 lbs. butter to Coquille Creamery Co., $1947 00. Allowing plant to be worth $5000, interest on same at 10 per cent., 500 00.

This is co-operation on a small scale, and shows that the company or individual owning and operating a plant with a 5000 lb average daily milk supply is only making a fair profit when they receive 4 cts per lb for manufacturing.

save and put in our own pockets as dairymen, which would be $5050 00. This would be quite a snug sum for one season, and the pertinent question, if I understand it at this meeting, is, shall we co-operate, or shall we let some little selfish interest in some other direction induce us to yet continue to be "penny wise and pound foolish?"

THE DAIRYMEN'S UNION.

ED. HERALD: All things considered, there is perhaps no locality on the Pacific coast better adapted for the dairy business on an extensive scale than the Coquille valley.

The dairymen of the Coquille valley have become aware of these facts, and wisely concluded to organize themselves into a co-operative Dairymen's Union, for the purpose of uniting their individual efforts together, in order that their combined milk supply might be manufactured into butter or cheese at the very lowest possible cost.

The first and most important question, which the Dairymen's Union will naturally be called upon to determine, will be the selection of the most suitable site for their creamery plant.

There are two creamery plants, which under existing circumstances, will inevitably become rivals for acceptance at the hands of the Dairymen's Union; and it would be perfectly natural for the owners of each of these plants to press their claims with the utmost vigor, and will not hesitate to enlist all of the available outside influence in order to serve individual interests.

There are two creamery plants, which under existing circumstances, will inevitably become rivals for acceptance at the hands of the Dairymen's Union; and it would be perfectly natural for the owners of each of these plants to press their claims with the utmost vigor, and will not hesitate to enlist all of the available outside influence in order to serve individual interests.

A creamery plant having all the necessary facilities for receiving all the milk supply on the Coquille river, as far as it can be navigated with any kind of boats, by simply hoisting it all from the decks of boats to its receiving tanks by steam power; and with a very little additional expense, the same may be done from railroad cars.

A plant that has an abundant supply of good, cool, clear running water from a mountain stream; a plant that is well, and substantially built on a firm and solid foundation (which is an absolute necessity, where a number of separators are to be run at a high rate of speed) and where an abundant supply of wood is near at hand; a plant where all of its freight, either to be received at, or to be shipped away from, can be handled with steam power in hoisting it from the decks of boats or railroad cars or lowering it on to the same without any extra handling.

All of these things are matters of considerable importance to the dairymen who furnish milk, for the selection of a plant having all of these necessary conveniences and facilities would save them a large amount of money each year, and avoid all of the unnecessary expenses of so much handling and rehandling freight and milk, which would increase each year as their business would naturally increase.

would not only entail an unnecessary loss to the whole, but would in all probability place an inconvenience upon a still greater number.

It has been said, that, back in the eastern states, cream has been shipped by rail for over a hundred miles to a creamery and paid well. If this be true, it is possible that such a thing may be accomplished here in the Coquille valley in the near future.

The Arago creamery, situated as it is, having a large extent of milk-producing territory around and back of it, is suitably located for a separating station; so is Myrtle Point; and the same may be said of Gravel Ford, as well as many other points which might be mentioned. And when our railroad is completed, if it ever is, the same may be said of the Middle Fork country, and even as far out as the Umpqua valley.

ALTYELD SCORES JUDGE WOODS. Chicago, Dec. 19.—A Hot Springs special says: Governor Altyeld, in an interview on Debs' sentence, bitterly attacks the integrity of Judge Woods, and says the corporations wanted Debs sentenced to jail, and it made no difference what the facts were.

TOWN SEIZED BY A SHERIFF. Millville, N. J., Dec. 19.—The settlement of Halberton, in the lower part of Cumberland county, was seized by Sheriff Shinn yesterday, when he made a levy in foreclosure proceedings upon a large part of the property. The town is nearly deserted, only a few families living there. The clock factory, which has been the chief support of the town, has been closed. Nearly all the inhabitants have moved to New York. About two years ago the place was started by a Hebrew syndicate and about 50 houses were erected. The failure is attributed to the hard times.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshon, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by S. L. Lenoir, druggist.

Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, and George Partington, an artist of note, have engaged passage on the next steamer to sail for Honolulu. They have been engaged by eastern publishers to prepare a history of Hawaii, to be written by Joaquin Miller and illustrated by Mr. Partington, and it is their intention to remain in the islands several months.

Send two 2-cent postage stamps to "The Road Publishing Company," Denver, Colorado, and get a sample copy of that great cartoon Populist weekly, "The Road," also a copy of their famous English Octopus (devil fish) map, free. This map and "The Road" with the Herald for one year for only $2.10.

It is reported from Yaquina that the schooner Mary Gilbert, Captain Dodge, from San Francisco, for Alsea bay, for lumber, in attempting to sail in over the bar the other day went ashore and is a total wreck. No lives lost.

Baltimore's New Monument. Baltimore is about to put up another monument. The young Irish are at the head of the movement, and they have not yet decided on the hero to honor. So far the vote favors, in the order named, Emmet, O'Connell, Gratton, Tone, Burke and Parnell, and the choice will be made from this half dozen. Contrary to the order of such things, the money is already provided.—Baltimore Letter.

MURDER AND JURY-BRIDING.

Conspiracy By Prominent Lawyers and Hanged Men in Portland.

Portland, Dec. 17.—The jury which will try X. N. Steeves, a prominent attorney of this city, for complicity in the murder of George W. Sayras last September, was completed at the evening session of the state circuit court to-night.

A Chee Foo dispatch says great uneasiness continues among the residents of that place, who fear outrages at the hands of the Chinese soldiers. Four foreign warships are now at Chee Foo. A nephew of Colonel Von Hannecken has left Shanghai to take command of the Chinese troops at Tien-Tsin. A French engineer is constructing forts at Peking.

An evening paper says: "If it is possible, as asserted by certain persons in a position to know, that there is an organized moneyed conspiracy in this city for the purpose of defeating the ends of justice, then it is certain there are going to be some sensational developments before its purposes are accomplished. Further rumors reached the ears of Prosecuting Attorney Hume to-day regarding jurors who are already accepted in the case of Steeves. The result of this is that Mr. Hume is proceeding more cautiously than before in the examination of men who profess to be willing and honestly able to try the case now awaiting a jury."

London, Dec. 18.—It is understood that the agreement between England and Russia in regard to the war in the east does not permit any warlike operations in the vicinity of Shanghai. This includes the prohibition of a hostile fleet passing through the entrance of the Yang-Tse-Kiang river.

A Tokio dispatch says Japanese Lieutenant-General Katsira captured Hai Cheng, December 13. The Chinese garrison numbered 5000, while the Japanese numbered only 1500. The Chinese retreated toward Liao Vang. The losses were trifling.
