"Fair exchange is no robbery," but there can be no fair exchange as long as there is ten dollars' worth of produce against every dollar of the circulating medium.

The main question now is will the bankers rule this country by controlling the currency or shall the government protect the people by issuing all money itself?

For one day—Jan. 22d—the ladies of Salem will edit and manage the Salem Statesman, for the benefit of charity.

EXHIBITS OF THE RESULTS ARRIVED AT BY THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The state board of education, consisting of Governor Penoyer, Secretary of State McBride and State School Superintendent E. B. McElroy, yesterday finished the tedious work of canvassing the votes of the thirty-two county school superintendents and nine state examiners for a series of text-books to be used in the public schools of Oregon for a period of six years from October next.

The all-important questions to be answered at present, more especially for the benefit of the general public, is "what book company is benefited thereby?" and the answer is "the American Book company."

1. No text-book has received a majority of the votes cast under the following topics: Orthography, spelling blanks, drawing, physical geography, rhetoric and composition and English literature.

2. There has been no change in the following text-books that are now in use, and they have been re-adopted for use in all of the public schools of this state, to-wit: Swinton's New Word Analysis. Barnes' New National Reader. Spencerian System and Copy Books.

3. Fish's Arithmetic, Nos. 1 and 2. Brooks' Mental Arithmetic. Montith's Elementary and Comprehensive Geographies.

4. Smith's series of Primary Text-books in Physiology and Hygiene. Steele's Physiology and Hygiene for high schools and advanced schools.

5. Barnes' Primary and Brief History of the United States. Loomis' series of Vocal Music. Barnes' General History. Montith's Popular Science. Robinson's Algebra and Geometry.

6. Bryant and Stratton's System of Bookkeeping. Steele's Chemistry, Botany, Physics, Astronomy and Geology.

7. Maxwell's first book in Language, Introduction to English Grammar and Advanced English Grammar have been adopted instead of Barnes' Language Lessons, Sill's English Grammar and Clark's Normal Grammar. Peterman's Civil Government, Oregon edition, has been adopted instead of Young's Class Book.

8. The additional books adopted that may be used in all grades in the public schools are as follows: National Number Tablets. Song Wars. Gow's Morals and Manners. Kid's Elementary and Vocal Culture.

9. Johnson's National History and Historical series of text-books for supplementary reading for primary and intermediate schools.

10. For advanced schools and high schools the following: Geographical Reader. Irving's Sketch Book. Irving's Tales of a Traveler. Scott's Ivanhoe. Scott's Lady of the Lake. Scott's Abbott. Scott's Marmion. Scott's Woodstock. McCantley's Essay on Chatham. Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. Twelfth Night, Merchant of Venice, and Midsummer's Night Dream.

11. Webster's Banker Bill Orations. DeCoverly Papers. Arnold's Sobab and Rustum.—Salem Statesman.

12. The Legislature. Now that the Oregon legislature is in session everybody will want to read a newspaper printed at Salem, the capital.

13. Reports the proceedings in detail every day, not overlooking a single item in either house. Your senators and representatives were elected on a stated platform, pledged to carry out certain policies of reform. You will want to watch their course in the legislature and see whether or not they remained true to their pledges. The Statesman will give you all of this and more, too, for it is a newspaper in every sense of the word and every day of the week. The daily is 50c a month. The big 12-page Weekly is $2 a year—three months, 50c.

Still the cold weather continues. We need a little cold to brighten us up, so let her come and we will meet her half way.

Our community is saddened by the death of Mrs. D. W. Baker, which occurred on the 2d inst. She was a native of Tennessee, came to this county about 10 years ago and settled near Lee, where she died after two weeks' illness.

Christmas and New Years passed quietly in this vicinity. "Good will to men" seemed to be the motto of one and all.

We are authentically informed that the owners of the steamer Augusta would like to place their steamer on the Portland-Coos bay route. The Augusta will leave Portland on or about the 10th inst. for Yaquina, and if a sufficient quantity of freight is offered she will make this port. Her rates will be the same as charged by the steamer Bandorille.

The Steamer Bandorille.

A telegram from Newport, on Yaquina bay, of the 8th inst., and a personal notice of the arrival of J. A. Rupert, who was a passenger on her, at Portland, from the Oregonian, give us the whereabouts and conditions of the steamer Bandorille since she left this port. Here are the items:

Newport, Or., Jan. 8.—The steamer Bandorille put in here in distress yesterday, having lost her rudder in a heavy gale off Cape Blanco. She sailed from Coquille for San Francisco. She was towed in here by tug.

The Oregonian says: Mr. J. A. Rupert, a former resident of Portland, but now engaged in the merchandising business at Bandon, Coos county, is a guest at the Hotel. Mr. Rupert started for San Francisco January 1st, from home, on the steamer Bandorille, being the only passenger on the vessel. During the trip the steamer lost its rudder, and for six days drifted helplessly on the ocean, but finally was able to make Newport, Yaquina bay. Mr. Rupert had a rough experience, but is glad enough to be alive and again on dry land.

HEAVY DEFALCATION.

The Treasurer of South Dakota a Defaulter in $300,000. Minneapolis, Jan. 9.—A special to the Journal from Aberdeen, S. D., says: From absolutely reliable sources it is learned the defalcation of State Treasurer W. W. Taylor will reach $300,000. Practically all the state moneys were in his own hands, except some $25,000 or $50,000, which was on deposit in various banks. The wreck is complete. It has been known for a year that Taylor was personally in bad straits, but not one of his most intimate friends thought his situation hopeless or even desperate.

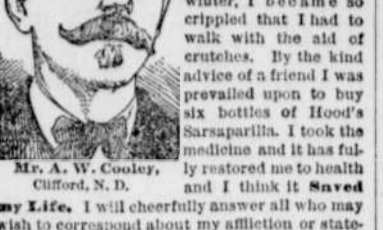

Seattle, Jan. 9.—E. C. Raymond, of the Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern Railway & Navigation Company, of Marshfield, Or., is in the city on a search for coal miners for his company's mines, and is meeting with considerable success. He says he met with a little opposition from several, who claimed that the negroes taken in by the company were on a strike, and they therefore refused to accept places.

"Our readers will find Simmons Liver Regulator advertised in these columns. We advertise it, use it, and we commend it as a safe and excellent medicine. We became acquainted with it in Georgia where it is a standard family medicine. We do not deny the merits of other preparations, but simply state that this one commands confidence."—From the "Journal" Lanesboro, Minn.

Hood's Is Wonderful

"At harvesting time I took a severe cold which settled in my limbs, and in a short time developed into inflammatory Rheumatism. After spending a good sum of money for different remedies and suffering all winter, I became so crippled that I had to walk with the aid of crutches. By the kind advice of a friend I was prevailed upon to buy a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took the medicine and it has fully restored me to health and I can now walk with ease. I have to thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for my life. I will cheerfully answer all who may wish to correspond about my affliction or statement." A. W. COOLEY, Clifford, North Dakota.

A Legislative Session

Provokes more newspaper comment than almost any other subject of public interest. The last two Oregon law making bodies afforded much material for interesting discussion, and the next general assembly will be no exception of the rule. Whatever occurs the public knows that the DAILY and WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL of Salem will give correct reports of its work as well as intelligent discussion of the same. If you want to know what is done, how it is done, and why, you should read the CAPITAL JOURNAL. It is the first ONE CENT DAILY published on the Pacific coast, and is conducted in the interest of the people. The DAILY will be sent you a year for $3, four months for $1, or one month for 25 cents. The Weekly has been reduced to $1 per year. Like the Daily it is payable cash in advance, and no paper will be sent after your time expires. Positively "no-pay-no-paper." The Journal is a modern newspaper run on modern methods. It is conducted in the interest of the people editorially as well as in a business sense. Its editor being a member of the lower house, his editorial work will be doubly interesting this winter. Order it at once.

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps a Fortune. We secure patents and to induce people to get track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of $100 to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interest of inventors. NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult, this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the inventor.

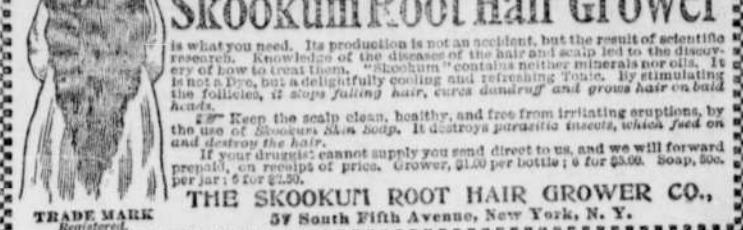

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the patent office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not, the inventor will have a valid patent.

THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY. JOHN WOODMAN, Gen'l Manager, 618 F. St. N. W., Washington, D. C. P. S.—The responsibility of this company may be judged from the fact that its stock is held by about seventeen hundred of the leading newspapers of the United States. (Dec. 1894.)

THE EXAMINER'S BIG PREMIUMS The San Francisco Examiner will give away at its next annual drawing 9000 premiums, aggregating in value $145,000. Each subscriber, also, receives a fine picture worth in the market more than the price of the paper. These are splendid inducements, because the Examiner is the best newspaper on the coast and is well worth alone the $1.50 a year that it costs. If you subscribe now you can get the HERALD and the Weekly Examiner both one year for only $2.75. This clubbing rate entitles the subscriber to a ticket in the drawing and all other to special privileges. Don't fail to take advantage of this offer.
