St. Valentine's ball, at Masonic hall, for one and all.

Will Cox was in Brewster valley several days last week.

John Jenkins came over from the bay yesterday to be present at the funeral of his father.

Mrs. Ada Egenhoff commenced a term of private school, on the 4th inst., at her residence at Empire.

J. L. Bowman, representing the Salem Woolen Mills score at Roseburg, reached this place yesterday via the bay.

Mrs. Dr. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Lee and families of Rhyerlon have been in town for several days.

John Youkam passed through to his new logging camp, at the Gilman place, yesterday with twelve head of fine oxen.

J. C. Whittington, a good citizen of the North Carolina neighborhood, was down on business Saturday and included a call on the HERALD.

Miss Ella Buck joined Judge Dyer and Mrs. Clarence Lowe from Bandon at Empire last Thursday and will visit in California for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lamb of Fishtrap spent Sunday in town, and attended the quarterly and attendant religious meetings at the Methodist church.

We learn of several new converts to Populism on the bay. Recent events, general and local, have made some people see matters as others have seen them for some time.

With pure, vigorous blood coursing through the veins and animating every fibre of the body, cold weather is not only endurable but pleasant and agreeable. No other blood medicine is so certain in its results as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. What it does for others it will do for you.

Capt. H. F. Tenneson and John E. Perrott came up from their homes at the black-sand mines at Randolph Saturday. The HERALD was honored with a call and renewals of subscriptions.

If you have any garden seeds to spare, drop them in the box at the postoffice, placed there by the ladies of the W. C. T. U., to be forwarded to the drought-stricken people of Nebraska.

Mrs. R. E. Buck and Miss Lizzie Winchester went to Bandon last Saturday, the former to visit at Judge Dyer's a few days and the latter to her home after a visit to Mrs. Buck at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were called by telephone yesterday from the bedside of their daughter, Miss Susie, here, to that of their sister-in-law, Mrs. John Gammill, at Newport, on the bay, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. D. P. Strang, sr., and Mrs. Wes Nosler were both at the entertainment given by the Parsonage Aid society last Friday night. Both had been ill for some time but have recovered sufficiently to be about again.

A Demorest medal contest will take place at the Methodist church on Saturday night, 23d instant. There are ten contestants, and the occasion will furnish pleasing and edifying entertainment. Admission, free, and a general invitation is extended to all.

Information reached us yesterday that Johnny Manning, charged with arson and theft at Sumner some months since, and escaped from jail during last term of court, had been arrested in San Francisco.

If so, it is quite likely he will soon occupy safer quarters at our jail than formerly.

The W. P. & H. M. S. held an annual election of officers last Thursday at the Methodist church. The following resulted: Mrs. Lyons, president; Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Tuttle, vice-presidents; Mrs. Lawrence, recording and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Messer, treasurer. The following were appointed as the visiting committee for the quarter: Mrs. Lorenz, Mrs. Way and Miss Lilly Lyons.

I. O. G. T. Installation.

This society of good workers in a grand cause held a public installation last Tuesday night. The attendance was large, the hall being crowded. The installation was conducted by Lodge Deputy C. Wilkins, and embraced the following newly-elected officers: Bird Nosler, C. T.; Miss Nellie Sackett, V. T.; T. M. Willard, P.C.T.; Miss Pearl Baxter, marshal; Al Wilson, deputy marshal; J. H. James, secretary; Miss Lucy Nichols, assistant secretary; C. Baxter, financial secretary; Miss Nellie Figg, treasurer; Miles Lammy, sentinel; R. J. Robinson, guard; R. E. Buck, chaplain. M. O. Buzan and Miss Ora Woodruff were special marshal and deputy for the installation exercises.

An interesting and entertaining program followed, as follows: Instrumental quartette, by members of the band—George Leach and George Robinson, cornets; Al Wilson, alto; Bird Nosler, baritone; Jim Whitestone, tuba. Recitation by Melville Stine—The Yankee Still Ahead; cornet solo by George Leach—encored—Miss Daisy Wickham at the organ; violin selection by the Misses Pearl and Ora Woodruff, Miss Lucy Nichols at the organ—encored; recitation by Eddie Robinson—John Hardback; duet by Misses Daisy and Ella Wickham—"Homeless, Tonight," concluding with the farce—"The Bogus Injun; characters were ably and comically portrayed by W. Sugg, J. M. Lasswell, Mrs. Lora Harrington, Brette Clark, Miss Maud Drew and Geo. Leach.

After the program the floor was cleared for games and a social time, and later on in the night a number indulged in the quadrille and waltz, though all had departed at a seasonable hour.

More Goodness.
Last Wednesday morning William Brisbin, driver of the mail from here to Marshfield, arose from his gentle slumbers and found some one had gone through his pockets and relieved him of the sum of $4.50 in money. He rooms at Mrs. Sheppard's, and during the lady's absence at the Good Templars' public installation and entertainment, a stranger presented himself and asked for lodging, and some one present showed him to the room. This party—for we have not been able to learn his name—left early in the morning without his breakfast and without settling his bill, and was suspected as being the party who tampered with his room-mate's clothes. He secured a job at unloading of the steamer Bendorille, and departed on her for Portland that afternoon. While this work was going on, Mr. Brisbin and the officers were looking up the law on the subject, but only a strong suspicion attached, and besides there was no way of identifying the money, hence no case was made and the man was left to depart in peace. The loss falls heavily on the stage-driver, however, for it was money he had carried for another party and he has to make it good.

The teachers' examination will begin tomorrow.

The steamer Bendorille took on 40,000 broomhandles for Portland from Lyons' mill last week.

Will Price came up from River-ton last Friday. The Price Bros. shipped a special order of about 12,000 feet of white (or Port Orford) cedar to Portland per steamer Bendorille last week.

Capt. Fred Webber of Astoria, father of our Mrs. Capt. Lockwood, came in yesterday, and we learn will bid on the government work at the mouth of the river, which, it is said, will be let out on contract.

A new machine has been introduced at the black-sand mines at Randolph, and the best results are promised. The first test was a guarantee of successful operation, not only in securing the precious metals, but in handling a large quantity of the sand. As this was a new invention, and more especially only for a test, suitable machinery will soon be at hand to operate the mines as the interested parties had hoped to do.

Miss Effie Collier is reported quite sick.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. have placed a box at the postoffice for friends who may have garden seeds to divide with the poor in Nebraska, whose crops have failed the past two years. They earnestly solicit the same at as early a day as possible, so that they may forward them promptly and seasonably.

Brewster Valley School.

A grand exhibition was given by the Brewster Valley school last Friday night, which was well attended and immensely successful. The program lasted full 4 hours, but interest was kept up to the highest pitch throughout. After the program, the dance progressed till broad daylight. A delightful supper was prepared by the ladies of the neighborhood. Arthur Brown was the teacher of the school and has made many friends among the patrons. The program consisted of songs, recitations, dialogues, tableaux, etc., and suited all tastes from sedate to comical. The pupils are few in number and generally quite young, but performed splendidly. Those participating were: Edna, Roy, Myrtle, Marshal and Rolla Alford; Ethel, Eva, Joe, Binger, Walter and Haley Laird; Ona and Stella Harry. The following older persons participated and added much to the entertainment: Mrs. Belle Laird, Mrs. E. N. Harry, E. D. Harry, Judd Gibson, Miss Effie Loomis, Retta Miller, Frank Loomis, Mrs. Alford, and the teacher, Arthur Brown.

The Entertainment.
Furnished last Friday night at Masonic hall by the ladies of the Parsonage society was a pleasing affair and varied much from the usual programs. There was a large and appreciative audience and the parsonage fund received a boom from the door receipts.

The order of program was as follows: Solo by J. S. McEwen—"The Old and New Home;" dialogue—Women's Rights, participated in by Misses Nellie Figg, Lilly Lyons, Lilly Wagner and Marvin Lamb, and J. M. Lasswell; comic solo—Behind McCarty's Mare, by W. S. Perry (with Miss Irma Lukens at the organ); encore, Spendin' All My Money; recitation—Pyramids Not All Egyptian, by Mrs. McDonald; comic solo—Now He's Sorry that He Spoke, by Aaron Wilson (Miss Daisy Wickham, organist); solo—Beautiful Love, by Miss Irma Lukens (Miss Marvin Lamb, organist); dialogue—Marrying Poetess, by W. S. Perry, Mrs. Boutell (Widow Washington with seven children), Miss Nellie Figg (Bridget) and Miss Maud Drew (poetess). Concluding the entertainment was Prof. Lightning Haskins' Great Mechanical Agglomeration of Wax Figures—with Lee Curry as master of ceremonies, assisted by M. O. Buzan and Brette Clark (John Henry colored). The figures were rolled into the presence of the audience on a small truck, introduced by Prof. Lightning Haskins and oiled and wound up by the helpers. The first was Li-Hung-Chang, the late deposed prime minister, in boyhood as working in a laundry, represented by Dave Collier; a Blind Beggar—Miss Lilly Wagner; American Ole Bull—Geo. Leach; the Old-man-who-talked-her-husband-to-death, Mrs. Boutell, and the Old-man-who-was-talked-to-death, Stewart Lyons; a Mother Goose character, Simple Simon—Will Lyons; Cleopatra the Beautiful Queen, and the Adder—Miss Marvin Lamb; Powhattan, the last of his race, in a scolding scene—Bird Nosler; Mrs. Winslow, of Soothing Syrup fame—Maud Drew; Jenny Lind, the famous Swedish Nightingale and prima donna, with an Edison Phonograph attachment; Miss Nellie Figg; George Washington, as a boy—Arthur White; Prof. Rubenstein, a friend of the poet Edgar A. Poe, in an instrumental selection—J. M. Lasswell; Sir Thomas Teelche, the jester at the court of Henry VIII—W. S. Perry.

Much merriment was created as each character was introduced and performed his or her part, and the processes of oiling and winding up the figures were very comical. All were wound up at the last and gave a grand medley of their specialty, making a most ridiculous "agglomeration" of music and titter and vocalization and action at one time. This was received with great applause and concluded a very pleasing entertainment. The ladies made a very successful program.

The Gravel Ford creamery will be moved to a new site close to the river.

Al Balch and Noah Leneve have finished the cabin on the hull of the old steamer Restless.

Wilbur Harrington and family left today for Walla Walla, Wash. He is such a citizen as we regret to lose.

"Skip-to-My-Lou's" communication was written with pencil and could not be fully deciphered. Write with ink and be brief as possible—make short paragraphs.

St. Valentine's ball Thursday night.

Rev. S. S. Barklow passed up home yesterday from his visit at Bandon.

The Sons of Veterans seem to hock back for some cause, and do not organize.

Elder Barklow performed a marriage ceremony at Bandon while visiting at that place.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN—Several good dairy cows.

K. H. HANSEN, Gravel Ford, Oregon.

Several bales of goods from the Bandon woollen mills passed through yesterday for San Francisco.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the scalp free from dandruff, prevents the hair from becoming dry and harsh, and makes it flexible and glossy. All the elements that nature requires to make the hair abundant and beautiful are supplied by this admirable preparation.

After three weeks of the finest weather vouchsafed to man, a gentle rain set in last Sunday morning and continues today in spring-like showers.

An important and largely attended Masonic meeting was held last Saturday night. The steamer Dispatch came up, bringing members from Bandon and all points on the lower river.

William Seymour Jenkins, father of John and Will Jenkins, and an old citizen of this county, died in this place last Sunday, about noon, after a lingering illness from cancer in the face. He was being nursed and cared for by Asaph Alexson for a few months past, was 82 years old at time of his demise.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Dr. S. L. Leneve, druggist.

In Memory of Luca Morris.
The brightest jewel of our hearts,
The treasure of her home,
When eye was drawing near,
Then forth from us she'd depart.

The sweetest blossom in our midst,
Who dropped her fading head,
We could not lay her in the flowers,
For all the flowers were dead.

The youngest birdling in the nest,
Her song from us has fled;
It mingled with a purer strain
That floats above our head.

We gaze—her wings we may not see;
We listen, all in vain;
But when this wintry life is o'er
We'll hear her voice again.

Our sympathies are with you all
Bereaved ones; yet we know
That she is happier than we

SUNSTRUCK IN BATTLE!

DR. MILES' NERVE TONIC. The starting point of the disease was a sunstroke received in battle before Fort Hudson, Louisiana, June 11th, 1862. Up to the time of leaving the army, Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic had cured me of the disease. I had also, weak spells, and the past four years I have had to give up everything but an active career in the house for CURED months at a time. I could not walk across the street. I KNOW YOUR REMEDIES HAVE CURED ME, and that the cure will be permanent. I have tried many of your remedies, and all speak well of them. Yours truly, COL. C. W. DEAN.

WHAT YOUR THUMB TELLS.

The thumb is an unfailing index of character. The Square Type indicates a strong, great energy and frankness. Clearly allied to the Square Type is the Round Type, which denotes advanced ideas and business ability. Both of these types belong to the busy men or women; and Demorest's Family Magazine presents a whole volume of new ideas, condensed in a small space, so that the record of the whole year's work for a month may be read in half an hour. The Content Type indicates refinement, culture, and a love of music, poetry, and fiction. A person with this type of thumb will find more pleasure in the literary attractions of Demorest's Magazine. The Artistic Type indicates a love of beauty and art, which will find more pleasure in the artistic paintings by the old masters, reproduced in Demorest's Magazine. The Long Type, the most celebrated of living humorists, which will be given to every subscriber to Demorest's Magazine for 1895. The cost of this superb work of art was $300.00; and the reproduction cannot be distinguished from the original. Besides this, an exquisite oil or water-color picture is produced in each number of the Magazine, and the articles are so profusely and superbly illustrated that the Magazine is, in reality, a portfolio of art work of the highest order. The Full-thumbed Type is the thumb of the thinker and inventor of ideas, who will be deeply interested in those devoted monthly in Demorest's Magazine, in every copy of its numerous departments, which cover the entire artistic and scientific field, embracing every fact, fancy, and feat of the day. Demorest's is simply a perfect Family Magazine, and was long ago crowned Queen of the Monthlies. Send in your subscription; it will cost only $3.00, and you will have a dozen Magazines in one. Address W. J. ROWAN, Editor, Publishers, 15 East 14th Street, New York.

Though not a fashion magazine, it presents the latest news and articles on family and domestic matters, will be of superlative interest to those possessing the Full-thumbed Type of Thumb, which indicates in its small size, slenderness, soft touch, and smooth, rounded tip, those traits which being combined, denote a person who is not only a thinker and inventor, but also a person who is deeply interested in those devoted monthly in Demorest's Magazine, in every copy of its numerous departments, which cover the entire artistic and scientific field, embracing every fact, fancy, and feat of the day.
