TORY COWARDS.

A nation, no more than a person, never does anything by saying it can't be done.

This country would have been English colonies still if its people had said all along: "We can't cope with so great a power."

The colonists in 1776 did not say: "We can't," but "We can," and they did.

In 1812, when Great Britain again became intolerant and overbearing, the United States, though then comparatively weak, didn't say: "We can't protect and defend our seamen and our rights and liberties."

Years later, when the government was called upon to defend the territory of Oregon, against the aggression of the British lion, statesmen did not say: "We might as well give it up."

Yet now, with a nation of 70,000,000 people and an unimaginable wealth of resources, there are people who say we can't regulate our finances and set up our own standards of money without consulting Great Britain, and even yielding to her on all points.

The money contest is really in effect, a contest between the people of this country and England. The "tories" in our midst say: "We can't."

The senate bill fixing the age of consent passed by the legislature takes effect May 24th and is as follows: If any person shall carnally know any female child under 18 years, or shall forcibly ravish any woman of the age of 16 years or upwards, such person shall be deemed guilty of rape and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than twenty years.

The Salem Statesman intimates that Secretary of State Kincaid contemplates refusing to draw warrants for the holdover railroad commissioners. This would make these officials plaintiffs in an action to test their right to hold over, and would in a measure throw the burden of proof upon them.

Robert Lincoln, plutocratic son of a plebeian sire, receives the blood-money fee from Duke Pullman and appeared as the latter's attorney recently before Judge Grosscup and purged him of the charge of contempt.

The American Patriot, A. P. A. organ: The man who is a coward and a traitor now, would have been a coward and a traitor in the army of George Washington.

Publication of the Alliance Herald was resumed, last week, at Pendleton, under the management of Colonel William Parsons.

FIFTY DOLLARS A DAY.

That is what it is costing to revise the journals of the house. Three members and two clerks are employed at $10 a day under each resolution offered by Moorhead of Lane.

Heretofore this work has been done in a time limit of ten days and cost a great deal less. In the senate no promise was made for any pay of the senators who merely sign the final report on the revision. -Capital Journal (Rep.)

A Republican correspondent of the Capital Journal, a Republican journal, writes from Aumsville and rejoices among other things that the g. o. p. has actually swallowed the crank, anarchistic doctrines of the Populist party and the latter will have to seek new principles. He says:

"The Populists are in a bad way. They have been robbed on all sides. The Republicans now preach free silver 16 to 1, plenty of greenbacks, no interest paying bonds, and the payment of the government obligations in silver. This has been Populist doctrine, but is now captured by the Republicans, and the Populists will be compelled to take another step in advance."

In accordance with resolution adopted by the Colorado legislature, Senators Fulton, Armstrong and Kennedy were appointed a committee to investigate the blacklisting, by railroads, of strikers.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York come from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you, how to cure a cold, but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 50 cent bottles for sale by S. L. Leneve, druggist.

An Epidemic of Fires.

Fires are pretty frequent, two having taken place in this city last week, resulting, however, in small loss so far. Last Thursday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, a house next to our public school building, occupied by Mr. Peterson's family and belonging to Duncan Urquhart of Riverton, took fire on the roof from a protruding stovepipe. The alarm brought a prompt response from John Fouts, Zenie Straug, Tom Walker, D. P. Strang, sr., and a few others, and a good work was done. The fire was subdued with but little damage resulting. Miss Peterson, who has been so ill lately, was affected with a nervous attack, but soon recovered.

EARLY FRIDAY MORNING The residence of Prof. Frank Bauch, near R. D. Sanford's, sent up a great column of smoke, but in a brief spell the fire was extinguished. This also caught on the roof from a defective pipe, and owing to its isolation in the extreme northern suburbs, the scarcity of help and water, the house was threatened with destruction. The nearest neighbors, however, and citizens who observed the probable danger, reached the spot and worked heroically, thus saving from much damage. Water in barrels, caught by Mr. Bauch from the last rain, was convenient and the means of saving the home. The damage was hardly over $10.

SERIOUS FIRE AT RIVERTON. About 5 p. m. Friday the comfortable home of Stacy Lee, at Riverton, caught fire and was wholly consumed, together with its contents of furniture, clothing, etc., except a trunk and two chairs. We learn that the fire occurred while Mrs. Lee had run a moment to a neighbor's, after building a fire to get supper. Mr. Lee was working at Price Bro's mill. Mr. Lee's loss is heavy—all he had—about $1500, and without insurance. It was a comfortable home, recently finished and well furnished.

S. A. Ward, formerly a resident here, lately moved to Port Kenyon, Humboldt county, California, and writes us of date March 8th: "We had a pleasant trip on the steamer Dandorille. * * * We landed at Trinidad about 11 a. m. Saturday, took the stage to Arcata, where we arrived at 5 p. m., took the cars and reached home Sunday. I found all well, but times are dull. The creameries are most all started, but are running light, as milk is short as yet. The steamer Wecott has been taking on lumber to make out a load. * * * I never saw so many butter boxes as there are piled up here. I saw some of the Arago boxes. I hardly think they came here filled. I saw Fred Chlemons. He is on the Wecott; he seems to be giving satisfaction. W. W. Goble and family are well and increasing, a baby girl having arrived. I understand Katie is to be married soon. Robert Pridden, formerly of Coquille, is here. He met with an accident a few months ago. He had his knee-cap broke, and will be always a little crippled. I don't know just how soon I will be up. Our public school begins a 9-months' term next Monday, 11th. I have seen several parties here that talk of coming up to see the Coquille this spring, as soon as the roads get dry."

The ministerial representation at the convention last week was very light, from some cause, only Rev. Mr. Stewart, Rev. Mr. Black and Rev. J. S. McCain being present from other portions of the county. A goodly number of citizens attended the conference, held for devising ways and means for religious effort and including the enforcement of the Sunday laws.

Mr. Sanford's team took a mad race to itself yesterday morning. Distributing cans of milk, empty cans, messures and several rolls of butter at various points on the road home. They reached home in quick time, but the damage to the wagon was exceedingly light, two spokes broken and the seat shattered some. The team seems to have been frightened by a kite.

Just as we went to press last week we received a sample of two large, fine and well-kept Yellow Danvers onions from Mrs. Harman, of the North Fork. That section is famous for growing fine onions, having been ruled out of competition among eastern seed growers, but they can also be perfectly kept almost the year round in this climate.

At Whose Door Does the Blame Lie?

The following letter, giving the "whereabouts" of the recent Coquille charter amendment bill, which passed the senate without opposition, is interesting reading to the 92 legal voters of the town who petitioned for it. This letter is from Senator Vanderburg, and while not written for publication, we are permitted to give it for the information which it contains:

MARSHFIELD, March 9, 1905. J. S. McEWEN—Dear Friend: I am disappointed in the amendment to your charter having failed to get through the house. It seems to me that some influence must have been used to keep it back. It got lost in being transmitted from the senate to the house, and was thus detained for several days before anything was suspended, and then Walter Sinclair (being chief clerk) dug up a duplicate copy and immediately sent it into the house, after which time Mr. Buckman and Mr. Stewart tried to follow it up, but failed to get it through, for which there can be no blame resting on them. However, I would not say that there was any undue delay intentionally resorted to in the house, for, judging it by the senate, I would put nothing save honesty and ability past it. You know the incentives that may have actuated our "chief" in relation to women voting in your town. Hoping you are well, and to hear from you soon, I must close. Fraternally, W. S. VANDERBURG.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in the market. After the fire at Mr. Peterson's last Thursday, Mrs. John Simmons stepped on the end of a piece of plank, the other end flew up and struck her in the face and near the eye, causing an ugly wound. A nail that was nearly embedded in the wood slightly cut the flesh near the eye.

GENERAL NEWS.

NEW TRIAL DENIED. San Jose, Cal., March 11.—H. M. Leonard, the Santa Clara bank-wrecker, who, together with Cashier C. C. Hayward, now deceased, precipitated the failure of the bank by their "loans" to themselves, bids fair to go to jail for at least three years, as the supreme court has sustained Judge Reynolds in denying a new trial. Leonard's counsel, H. V. Moorhouse, says he will move for rehearing. Besides this case, there are seven other indictments for embezzlement and one for falsifying the records that are yet untried. The aggregate of his and Hayward's pecuniations was about $240,000. Leonard is out on bail of $11,000.

There was a total of 692 votes cast in Eugene Monday for school director, of which 150 were cast by women, who were more earnest for the person of their choice than were the men.

A Handbook of Information concerning the patent laws, and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and electrical patents.

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps a Fortune. We secure patents and to induce people to get their inventions patented, we offer a prize of $100 to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interest of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.

The idea of being able to invent some thing strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the inventor. The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the applicant has been acted upon by the patent office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not, the inventor will have a valuable patent. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, Joseph W. Wainwright, Gen'l Manager, 515 F St. N. W., Washington, D. C. P. S.—The responsibility of this company may be judged from the fact that it is in possession of over one hundred of the leading newspapers of the United States. [Dec. 1879 of 47 1/2]
