Salem Statesman: It makes people smile nowadays to learn that in the '50s the motto of the Oregonian was: "Equal rights, equal laws, and equal justice to all men."

Del Norte (Cal.) Record: It costs $50,000 a year to keep seven wicked boys in the Preston School of Industry at Ione. There are nineteen officials to take care of the said seven boys. Of course the taxpayers are proud of this institution.

Exchange: The following, as near as we can learn, represents Senator McBride's views on the

 "The tail goes with the hide, e pluri-

Under the law passed by the last with the new rules and regulations, as well as the necessary blanks.

Salem Statesman: Chadron, a little town of 5000 people in suffering Nebraska, sets Salem an example worthy of imitation. She has beet sugar factories, and factories for the manufacture of glucose, chicory, starch, etc. These were all secured by concerted action on the part of the citizens and business men.

Roseburg Review: Senator Alley, as chairman of the soldiers' home investigating committee, criticised Mr. Baldwin's management quite severely. Last week, however, at Mr. Alley's suggestion, resolutions were passed by the new board of trustees strongly endorsing Commandant Baldwin's course. We only call attention to this as an incident illustrating the vicissitudes of a political career.

The value of newspaper advertising is a difficult estimate and is often problematical, says the San Francisco Examiner, but it was demonstrated the other day in Judge Coffey's court in a remarkable manner. Property belonging to the Johnson estate was recently sold.
 Mr. Fred H. Deakin, attorney for the infant heirs, was not satisfied with the result of the sale, and having obtained permission from the court to secure a better bid if he could, adopted the unusual course of advertising for higher bids. His advertisement in the Examiner cost him $51.50. At the appointed time bidders assembled in Judge Coffey's court and raised the price of one piece of property $12,500. Three other pieces of property received increased bids of 10 per cent. Judge Coffey intimated that this was an occasion when advertising paid so well that they could keep it up another week.

"BRAVE BOYS WERE THEY"

In a recent issue of one of our old Pennsylvania home papers, The Free Press, of Lewistown, Pa., we find that the "Fourth Annual Reunion of the First Defenders" in the late war will be held there on the 18th day of April, inst., being the 34th anniversary of the day they entered Washington. There were five companies—a roster of which can be found in Lossing's Pictorial History, Vol. 1—the Allen Infantry, of Allentown, Washington Artillery of Pottsville, Ringgold Light Artillery of Reading, National Light Infantry of Pottsville, and the Logan Guards (infantry) of Lewistown. The surviving comrades of these first defenders wear badges specially provided for them by congress for their ready response to the president's call on April 16, 1861. The Logan Guards from Lewistown were the first and passed through Baltimore on the 17th, the day before the 6th Massachusetts, which was attacked on the streets of that city by a mob. We speak of this circumstance from some personal pride, for of their number we had a brother and cousin, both of whom re-enlisted for three years and rose to honorable official positions and won good records. The Logan Guards re-enlisted as an organization, also, and were company C, Capt. W. B. Weber, in the gallant 46th Pennsylvania, Col. J. F.
 Knipe. It will be a grand occasion, for we know what the reputation of the place is for hospitality generally, and for patriotic fervor and pride of history in particular. The names of the heroes greet us very familiarly, for most of them were schoolmates of our youth, though we have not seen them for more than 26 years. We send greetings to the comrades from this far-away home.
 God bless you.

Baseball Games.

Last Sunday was made a gala day to the baseball talent, being the occasion of steamer excursions and the congregation of a large crowd of people from all points on the upper and lower river and country neighborhoods at this place.
 Three games were booked, the first between the Bandon Juniors and Coquille Juniors on the arrival of the steamers, before noon; the Beaver Hill colored nine and Coquille Star Flats after lunch, and the Bandon and Coquille regular nines immediately thereafter. The steamer Dispatch brought a large crowd from Bandon and other lower river points.

The first game was called about 10:30 o'clock, and was played by Felter, Littlefield, Swift, Gus and Fred Gross, Stitt, Davidson, Walker and Mansett of Bandon, and Ed Lorenz, Hank Benham, Mac Anderson, Frank Boyrie, Ned Lawrence, Joe Hudson, John Johnson, Oliver Sanford and Aaron Wilson of Coquille. The game resulted as follows, in seven innings for the Bandon boys: Bandon Juniors, 5; Coquille Juniors, 7.

BEAVER HILL—COQUILLE.
 The Beaver Hill nine comprised Williams, White, Ward, Rucker, Berry, Adams, Kelly, Griffin and Price; the Coquillers were Gillham, Hudson, K. Drew, Baxter, J. Drew, Lorenz, Willard, Colvin, Johnson, and the game was called after lunch, but only three innings on each side.
 The result was, Beaver Hill, 9; Coquille, 20.

BANDON—COQUILLE.
 About 1:30 p. m. the regular nines appeared for a friendly "bout." George Leach was chosen umpire.
 Emmett, G. Lester, F. Burkhardt, J.
 Lester, F. Mehl, R. Beddilion, A.
 Erickson, T. Holman and E. Erickson composed the Bandon nine, and C. Baxter, B. Buzan, T. Gillham, H. Baxter, S. Norton, C. Lorenz, E.
 Norton, G. Baxter and B. Nosler the Coquille nine. The contest was much enjoyed, and resulted thus:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Bandon.....	0	1	2	0	6	1	0	4	3-17
Coquille.....	2	4	2	2	1	6	7	4	-28

The Coquille nine yielded its 9th inning.
 Another attraction, somewhat interfering with this game, was sprung by one of the Beaver Hill miners Clint, challenging for a foot-race. This was accepted by George Colvin and each put up $7.50 on the result. The race took place on the long bridge and was won by the colored miner.

A few articles of household goods still for sale by Mr. Lukens.

The Colored Jubilee Singers

From Beaver Hill gave a minstrel entertainment in this place last Saturday night. The turnout was good, while the performance was at least equal to the average traveling troupe. The songs were pleasing, and the plantation scenes, dances, plays, jokes and antics showed talent and were entertaining. The quartet, composed of W. Adams, L. White, R. Clint and W. Griffin was very good, and gave some of their character songs in good style. The troupe is "homa talent" and will visit other portions of the county.

A little yellow dog, "O. B. Server" by name, has snapped and snarled at us from Myrtle Point through the Coast Mail. We don't know why, unless to hear himself bark; or he may have snuffed "Crucible's" putrid remains or stuck his impudent nose into some of the drippings from that Marshfield sewer pipe, and doesn't know what ails him. Come out, doggy, and let your real name be known—let the people judge of your merits to live or not.

The Best for the Family.

Macon, Ga.—"I have found Simily medicine. I have used it in indigestion and Biliousness and found it to relieve immediately.

 supper."—Ovid G. Sparks, Ex-Mayor.

J. B. Marshall, esq., a prominent citizen and business man of Ban-don, honored the HERALD sanctum by a visit last Thursday. It was the editor's first personal acquaintance with Mr. Marshall, whom we found to be an intelligent and pleasant person, and a most worthy citizen.

Little Bird Nosler, son of Wes Nosler of this place, recently fell have escaped special injury, at the sick spells as if he had received internal injury. He is quite ill just now.

Frank Shephard, an engineer on the Southern Pacific railway who medicine in the world for rheumamanager of the creamery at Langlois, Curry county, and took charge of the same last week.

Occasional's Bandon Letter.

House property in Bandon is in good demand. A man lately left his house in order to remove to another part of the town, and before he could remove his furniture it was let at an advance of more than 40 per cent.

An adventurous young fellow who lives on the upper river, thinking southern Coos was too slow a place for him, and besides being anxious to see the outside world, took a fair supply of cash with him and by means of this, and working occasionally, hoped to be able to accomplish his wishes. He went straight to Canada, and on to the Atlantic coast. He didn't like Canada, and soon left for Boston. He soon got tired of it, and went to New York; didn't like that big city, either nor what he saw there, and made his way down to old Virginia. He worked there for some time, but was obliged to give it up as the heat was intolerable, it being no less than 120 in the shade, whilst he was working in the sun, and he was afraid he would get sunstruck; accordingly he packed up and came straight home, as quick as he could. When asked when he was going back again—Never! said he; the fair Coquille country and its healthy, invigorating climate is good enough for me for the rest of my days.

Some weeks since two men camped out in the brush near a farmer's house not far from our river. When asked next morning how they got on—"O! splendid," said they. "We slept very comfortably, and are after eating a big breakfast. Say, young man," said they to their interrogator, "we tramped down here from Washington, and if the people in that state knew you had such a climate at this time of year, we believe the entire population would come down here, and stay here whether you liked it or not."

A brickyard is about being opened at the old race-course in Bandon. It is said to contain a very valuable clay for that purpose, and plenty of it also. It is expected that some of the brick made there will be used in the construction of the lighthouse on the opposite side of the river, as well as buildings in the town.

Mrs. Hoffman's new house, on Prospect Hill, Bandon, will soon be completed. She intended living in it herself, but being pressed by parties anxious to rent it, she has resolved to let it to two families—to the upper-story, which consists of five rooms, and the other the lower-story, also consisting of five rooms, and immediately adjacent to the construction of another house for herself on one of her building lots adjoining. She says she must live in Bandon as she cannot get her health as well anywhere else.

An instrumental band on a grand scale has been organized in Ban-don. It is the largest in the county, and many of the members have been musicians in other bands in various places, as Portland, Albany, Salem, etc. They have been practicing already and by the time their uniforms are completed we expect they will be able to make a stunning sensation, and enchant as well as delight their audience.

The Bandon postoffice has been removed back to its old site, but into a new and handsome edifice that has lately been built there and with ample accommodations for all classes. Adjoining is a spacious fruit and candy store, presided over by Mrs. F. B. Tupper, the popular postmistress, and her assistants.

 estate of his mother. P. A.
 Decker has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Eliza Decker. A large and enthusiastic creamery meeting was held last Saturday. There were no plug-hats or toothpicks present. James Bryan, the logger, was in town on his way to Coquille City last week. He has banked a fine lot of logs this winter.

Rev. Thornton held Divine ser-

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to get track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of $100 to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interest of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.
 The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the patent office or not.
 Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not, the inventor will have a valuable patent.
