Before the law was written down with pen and ink, the law was the moral law made men.
Law stands for human rights, but when it fails those rights to give, Then let law die, my brother, but let human beings live.
—Rev. Miller, Hageman.

How to Get Protection.

But there is one aspect of the silver question which the advocates of a silver or bi-metallic currency have overlooked. Protectionists have never asked for duties, as a rule, averaging over 60 per cent, yet free silver coinage in Mexico amounts, Mr. Mills says, to a tariff on foreign goods equal to the difference between the commercial value of the metals, nearly one hundred per cent. Now if the Republican party wants a protective tariff, free silver would give it to them with a whoop. Why, then, if they really believe in a protective tariff, do they oppose free silver, which would give them more of it than they ever dreamed of asking? Put that under the nose of every Republican protectionist "gold bug," and he would faint on the spot from inability to give even an apology for an answer.—S. F. Star.

S. F. Star: The supreme court has sensibly decided, in a San Jose case, that a kindergarten (literally a "children's garden") is a school, the designation being allegorical, and Froebel, the apostle of the system, had called teachers "gardeners of children." This system of object teaching should be extended to schools of all grades; in fact, as to nearly all the more important school studies, there cannot be much substantial education without it. With "the landlord gone," it would be as financially practicable as it is educationally advantageous, to have all schools surrounded by gardens and groves kept in order by the pupils.

"Labor builds all, yet is without a home."
Labor runs the bakery, but monopoly takes the cake.
Women are laboring in Chicago brickyards to avoid starvation.

For every man who gets something for nothing, some other man gets nothing for something.

S. F. Star: Mayor Sutro is fulfilling every pledge he made to the people. He is a model public servant.

Discontent is the first promise of reform. Contentment marks the end of progress. China has been contented for 3000 years.

When a man sees that it is monopoly and not capital that is oppres-sing labor, he is on the straight road to a solution of the labor question.

The world owes no man a living.
Every man must earn that for himself. But the world does owe him an opportunity of making a living.

Labor, the creator of all values, is impoverished and dependent.
These abnormal conditions result chiefly from restriction and usurpa-tions.

Labor and capital are allies, not enemies. Special privileges to capital and a denial of natural rights to labor are the great causes of industrial antagonism.

If combinations of laborers to keep up wages are praiseworthy, why are combinations of capital to keep up profits indefensible? They both originate from the same source.

Aggregations of capital into trusts and aggregation of labor into organizations are efforts toward self-preservation. They are rendered necessary by unnatural competition.

Conductors and gripmen on the several systems of city roads owned and operated by the S. P. Co., are alive to the fact that the "Newspaper Union" prevented a 20 per cent cut which the company had decided to make.

H. O. Havemeyer's salary as president of the sugar trust is $100,000 a year, and his employes who labor in a temperature of 120 degrees Fahrenheit get eighty cents a day.

Mr. Havemeyer's salary is $333.33 a day for 300 days in the year, or over $93 more for one day than his employes receive in a year at eighty cents a day.—Trades Unionist.

In reference to work of the Half-Million Club in increasing the population of California by hunting up "tenderfeet" from the east, the S. F.
Star says: "By the way, is it forgotten that only a year ago we were sending men out of the state, and that many of those who could not 'get away' are in jail, under the law which makes it a crime to be unable to obtain employment?"

Farmers' Tribune: Rockefeller, the Standard Oil Trust millionaire, now rated at $120,000,000, says his ambition is to make $500,000-000 before he dies. How, did you ask? By extortion from the public in prices through monopoly, of course, aided by the power of usury.
But he will have to hurry up or the oppressed people may abolish both monopoly and usury.

Journal of Industry: Some people, all old-party voters, treat government ownership of railroads as a novel or untried thing in the world, when the fact is that there are only nineteen out of seventy-three governments that do not own either in part or in whole their railroad systems. These include, England, France, Germany, Russia and Italy. All but six of the governments own the telegraphs, and several own the telephone systems. All own their postal systems, which in their early stages were in the hands of private carriers.

Don't Treat Guests
Exactly as if all their time belonged to you, or yours to them. They may want to rest; let them. They may want to go about; go or send some one with them. This subject is most ably discussed in the bright story "Two Visits," published in Every Where for May.
Christ's appearance by night to St.
Paul in the desert is graphically depicted in the continuation of Will Carleton's New Testament Poem "A Saint's Love," and grandly illustrated in a drawing by the celebrated artist, Mora. All the other departments of this unique journal are at their best. Send fifty cents in postoffice order or Business is Business.

"You are the man!" he said, as he leaned forward in the streetcar and pointed his finger to the complacent and self-satisfied-looking passenger opposite, "you are the man who predicted last October that we would have a mild winter."
"Yes, I did," replied the man.
"But we had a terrible winter instead!"
"Yes."
"And you are no prophet."
"No."
"Then why, sir—why did you make such a prediction?"
"As a matter of business. I am in the coal trade, and it was my duty to keep people from running off to Florida to escape a hard winter."
"Oh, we shall have a long, hot summer, and if you want fly screens please call around. I'm going into that line for the season!"

The Fletcher sawmill, in Umatilla county, is beginning the manufacture of fruit boxes. This county the imported.

A. J. Blackwell, a rich and eratic Indian, who owns the cities way to perpetuate the Indian religion.

Joseph Roberts, who died last week at Santa Cruz, Cal., was for eight months about 1850, a veritable king of the Cannibal islands. He was shipwrecked on one of the South Sea islands, was almost worshiped by the aborigines, who held a white man in superstitious awe, and he managed his escape with difficulty.

GENERAL NEWS.

WILL BE FOOLED WITH IN JUNE.
San Francisco, May 20.—The government's $15,000,000 suit against the estate of the late Leland Stanford will be tried in the United States circuit court early in June, though it was at one time set for argument on demurrer late in that month. An agreement to this effect has been reached between Russell Wilson, who represents Mrs. Stanford, and L. D. Mc-Kissick, special counsel for the government. The agreement was made because of Mrs. Stanford's anxiety to have the case out of the way, for it stands over her as a perpetual menace, and hampers the fulfillment of the purposes specified in her husband's will.

IT IS A MYTH—NOW.
New York, May 20.—A special to the Herald from Managua says: It is learned that Admiral Stephenson and other officers of the British squadron which invested Corinto, both before and after the occupation of the town, publicly declared to a party of Americans that the Monroe doctrine was a myth which the United States would not and could not enforce, and that the British occupation of Corinto was simply intended as a test to definitely dispose of that question.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.
The Income Tax is Knocked Out in the Second Round.

Washington, May 20.—The income tax is declared unconstitutional in toto by the supreme court of the United States at its session today.

THE OPINION.
The conclusions of the court were as follows:
First—We adhere to the opinion already announced, that taxes on real estate, being indisputably direct taxes, therefore a tax on rents is a tax on the income of real estate, and is equally direct taxes.

Second—We are equally of the opinion that all taxes on personal property, or on incomes from personal property, are likewise direct taxes.

Third—The tax imposed by sections 27 to 37, inclusive, of the act of 1894, so far as it falls on incomes from real estate and on personal property, being a direct tax within the meaning of the constitution, is therefore unconstitutional and void, because it is not proptioned according to representation.

All these sections, constituting this entire scheme of taxation, are necessarily invalid. The decrees below will be reversed and the cases remanded with instructions to grant the relief prayed. Sections 27 to 37 of the tariff act of 1894, referred to in the conclusions of the court in its opinions, are sections of the act relating to the income tax law and are declared void specially.

HOW THEY STOOD.
The justices against the law were Chief Justice Fuller, Justices Grey, Brewer and Shiras. For the law: Justices Harlan, White, Brown, and Jackson. Justices Harlan and Jackson read dissenting opinions.

But What if the Other Fellow?
It is reported that Secretary Carlisle recently said that if the Democratic national convention should declare for free silver and nominate a free-silver presidential candidate, he could see no course open to him but to vote the Republican ticket.
There are probably 1,000,000 Democrats in the country who feel the same way.—Minneapolis Journal.

BACK AGAINST THEM! The law enforced by Dr. Miller's Nerve Plasters.

Sun: Levi Smith's home on South Coos river was burned to the ground Monday morning while himself and family were visiting friends on Daniels creek. The fire is thought to have originated in the blacksmithshop, an addition to the main building. The flames were first discovered issuing from the roof and windows by Bud and Jesse Smith, who arrived on the scene in time to save only a few of the household effects. The building was uninsured and the loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

Roseburg Review: Rev. T. L.
Jones, P. E., was quite badly hurt in a runaway accident at Grants Pass, Thursday. He had accompanied his family, who are moving to their new home in this county, one day's drive and had reached the east and door factory in town on his return when his team became frightened, and a bridle broke, leaving nothing with which to control them. Finally the horses were brought up suddenly in a clump of oak trees, and Mr. Jones was thrown violently forward about 25 feet. Dr. Van Dyke attended Mr. Jones who complains of pains in his chest and back as a result of the accident.

FOR THE BLOOD

taking something for the blood.
A Spring medicine as we speak of it. And it's a good thing to do, but you want to get the proper medicine. If you consult your physician he will tell you to Take a GOOD LIVER and that, because the liver has everything to do with the blood. If the liver is sluggish the system is clogged, the blood becomes impure, and the whole body suffers. Every medicine recommended for the blood is supposed to work on the liver. Then get at once the

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The conveniences of mankind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the apparatus and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of the government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent.
Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially in this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at immense risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade-marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives special attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances, WIDOWS of such soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldier's death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled if the soldier's death was due to service.

CHILDREN are entitled (if under 16 years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or she has since died or remarried.
PARENTS are entitled if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.
Thousands of soldiers drawing from $2 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.
Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee, and Seminole or Florida Indian wars of 1832 to 1842, are entitled under a recent act.
MEXICAN WAR SOLDIERS and their widows also entitled, if 62 years of age or disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later laws or not.
Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.
Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.
Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful.
