The Herald has splendid clubbing facilities with the best newspapers published in the land.

Do It. THE GOLDBUG MICROBE is instantly killed by sending a 2-cent stamp to the American Sanitary League, Washington, D. C., and asking for free literature.

A GREAT OFFER.

The "Twice-a-Week" edition of the New York World (formerly the Weekly) has proved a phenomenal success.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper (the Herald) and the Twice-a-Week New York World all for $2.25 a year.

Baseball—Empire vs. Coquille. The league contest between the Coos Bay and Coquille teams, set for Sunday, May 26, having failed on account of the weather, the Empire boys sought an engagement to fill the schedule at this place on Memorial Day—May 30th—and were accepted.

Parkersburg Pickings. May 31.—We learn that the Parkersburg mill will start with a full force of men in the near future.

Our school is progressing very nicely under the management of Mrs. Mansfield of Bandon. The average attendance is 34.

Rev. McCain preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday, but owing to inclement weather the congregation was not large.

The agents for the Home Comfort Ranges gave this vicinity a call this week, and succeeded in disposing of some of their ranges.

Some of our estimable young men decided to have a beer social last Sunday. Prize-fights, etc., were on the program for the day.

The merry chime of wedding bells startled this usually quiet place last Wednesday. The contracting parties were Mr. Knight, of Riverton, and Miss Amanda Prewett of this place.

Several camps have started up for the summer and several more will start as soon as the weather will permit.

Roads are quite good for this time of the year, considering the amount of work that has been put on them.

John and George Lester of this place, took in the base ball game at Coquille last Thursday.

With well wishes to the Herald, we will close.

TWO LITTLE GIRLS IN BLUE.

Lee Items.

May 30.—Prospects are fine for a good crop.

Myrtle Point offers a purse of $50 to the winning baseball team on the 4th of July.

The stock ordinance will be strictly enforced by Marshal Johnson. Look out, now.

The G. A. R. post is contemplating meeting at 4 p. m. instead of at night hereafter.

Uncle Bird Vowell is in town on business and pleasure. He honored the Herald with a call.

Wheat, peas, barley and in fact any kind of grain that will do for chicken feed, taken on subscription.

Mrs. Myron Wickham returned from Josephine county this morning. Her brother, Charlie, died May 20.

R. E. Back left for Riverside, Cal., yesterday. He will stay through the summer at least, and may locate permanently.

Prof. J. W. Vogel, eye specialist, is now in the city and will remain a few days. Don't fail to have his services. He has an office at Tuttle's.

The W. R. C. will hold their regular meeting tomorrow, and the ladies of the Bandon post and those of Myrtle Point will be present as guests and also at a social at night.

The ordinance forbidding youth being upon the streets after 9 o'clock at this season of the year, usually known as the "curfew" law, will hereafter be enforced. The law is now in full force.

Messrs. Lewis & Houser of Myrtle Point, proprietors of Lewis' celebrated Rhenmatie and Neuralgic Liniment, were in town Friday and Saturday last week. Mr. Lewis is still in town and is treating Mrs. J. W. Nosler. Look out for several new and strong testimonials in next issue.

Word from the Sixes country is to the effect that such a rush of gold hunters as is there never before existed. Every foot of territory seems to be occupied, and those who left here lately for this section have retired to the Johnson and Salmon mountain sections, the former of which is swarming with mining operations and prospectors.

The strawberry social to be given at the Christian church next Saturday evening is for the purpose of securing a fund for the purchase of music books for the Sunday-school and Endeavor. No charge for admission. Delicious refreshments will be served at a nominal cost. Strawberries and cream will be 15c per plate, or two plates for a quarter.

The steamer Bandorille came to this place, returning from the Siuslaw, last Friday morning. She had aboard from Florence to San Francisco 50 tons of chittim bark and some other freight; she received a deck-load of lumber at Lons' mill and sailed for San Francisco Saturday evening. A full cargo already awaits her for this valley.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brown leave for the beach today and will remain for some while. Both are in poor health, and they will camp out and enjoy themselves free from house-keeping and business. Their house is for rent.

Postmaster A. G. Aiken made a visit to his family at Marshfield yesterday, to return tomorrow. Ex-Postmaster Harlocker officiated in his stead.

Mrs. Beatty of Minnerpolis, Minn., now visiting at Riverton, has been spending several days in town.

The Coquille Dairymen's Union held its regular monthly meeting yesterday.

In Memory of Myrtle White. Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe where storms are o'er; On the border-land we left them, Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of danger, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one In our Father's mansion fair.

Summer's Third Medal Contest.

May 31.—Summer's third medal contest was held by the workers of the W. C. T. U. May 27th, Miss Alice Beyers presiding. The following program was observed:

Singing. Scripture reading by Mrs. Sherwood. Prayer by Mrs. Inman. Singing.

Recitation No. 1, Leonard Masters—World on Fire. No. 2, Fred Wilson—Picture from Life.

Song by the school. No. 3, Miss Carrie Hard—A Vision of Prohibition.

No. 4, Miss Vienna Masters—Reinforcements. Solo by Miss Lennie Masters.

No. 5, Miss Maudie Dully—The Voice from the Poorhouse. No. 6, Miss Lula Boon—Prohibition the True Anti-Poverty Party.

At this point the judges retired, while a song was rendered by the school, a solo by Mrs. Inman and a recitation by Miss Ethel Boon.

The judges were Mrs. Byron, Mr. Boon and Mr. Batter, who deemed Miss Hard the most proficient elocutionist and awarded to her the medal. Books were awarded to Nos. 1 and 4.

The selections were most excellent and all were rendered with credit to the contestants. There was a fairly good audience in attendance, but a storm was prevailing at the time and hindered the attendance of many people who are deeply interested in these contests. We hope the young people will become more interested, and that this educational work will accomplish much good. COLEUS.

Summer Ciders.

May 31.—Lively times. Farmers have their crops all in for this season.

Summer is in the prime of life. J. H. Barklow, county superintendent, visited our school last week.

Lyman Noble and wife were up looking after their place last week. There was a little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Colver's May 17th.

There is quite a number in this vicinity sick with the gripple. Ed Stock is visiting his sister, Mrs. Thomas Cole.

Mrs. John Colver of Daniels creek visited relatives in this place last week.

E. J. Masters has opened a boarding house. Mis L. L. Boon and Geo. Jackson are going to sell their poultry and buy a bible; they think they will have more comfort.

The third Democrat medal contest of this place was held in the church last Saturday evening before a large audience, considering the stormy night. There is quite an interest in the work; our young people are waking up.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Black left for Douglas county last Tuesday, where they go to attend the Baptist association of Riddle. Their daughter, Mary, will accompany them home.

There is an I. O. G. T. lodge in this place, and from what we can hear there is quite an interest taken in that line of work.

Russ Johnson has put his gasoline launch on the sloop between here and Marshfield. One can now go the round trip for 50 cents. Success, Russ.

Memorial Day was observed by the school here. Quite a nice program was rendered at the schoolhouse; then all formed in procession and marched to the graveyard and strewed flowers on the graves of those who have gone before us. UNCLE NED.

Death of Sec. of State Gresham. Washington, May 28.—Walter Q. Gresham, secretary of state, died at 1:45 o'clock this morning at his rooms at the Arlington. At his bedside were his wife and his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Andrews, of Chicago. Mrs. Gresham is broken in spirits and body by her affliction and constant vigils up to the moment of her husband's death. Her daughter, Mrs. Andrews, and another relative, Mrs. Captain Fuller, were with her constantly last night.

GENERAL NEWS.

STOLEN KISSES—$5000 DAMAGES. Oakland, Cal., May 28.—The trial of the suit brought by Mrs. Stephen Barron to recover $5000 damages from Patrick O'Connor, whom she accuses of having stolen kisses from her, has begun. On August 11, 1894, according to Mrs. Barron's story, she was lying on a sofa, when Mr. O'Connor came up stealthily and kissed her. On another occasion, the 3d of September, while she was arranging clothes in the backyard, O'Connor, unobserved by her, she says, came behind her, put his arms about her and kissed her. For these two kisses she asks $5000 each. O'Connor and wife say that the suit is brought for the purpose of extorting money from them.

LARGE ATTORNEY'S FEES. San Francisco, May 28.—Mrs. Florence Blythe-Hinckley has placed a lien upon the Blythe estate to secure the payment of fees of some of her attorneys. Six years ago Florence's grandfather agreed to pay 8 per cent of the whole estate recovered to Garber, Bolt & Bishop, this firm to pay W. W. Foote 2 1/2 per cent. Florence ratified this agreement when she attained her majority. Garber, Bolt & Bishop advanced her $14,000, and Foote lent her $3000, while the case was pending. Garber, Bolt & Bishop will now receive $320,000 and Foote $100,000 as attorney's fees.

DURANT IS ARRANGED. San Francisco, May 29.—Theodore Durant was arraigned this morning in the superior court for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams, pleading not guilty in each case. The defense was given five days to demur to the information. Both cases are set for trial July 23d, the Blanche Lamont case to be tried first. The attorney for the defense gave notice that they would move for a change of venue, but said that they were anxious for a speedy trial.

TROUBLES BROUGHT SUICIDE. San Francisco, May 29.—John H. Crocker, a well-known stock broker, committed suicide today at his residence by shooting himself through the right ear. Financial troubles aggravated by neuralgia, are believed to be the cause.

OHIO NOMINATES. Zanesville, Ohio, May 28.—General Bushnell was nominated for governor by the Republican state convention tonight on the sixth ballot. Senator Sherman was chairman of the convention and made a lengthy speech mainly devoted to tariff and finance.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

How to Cure Yourself While Using Tobacco.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want, while taking Baco-Curo; it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guaranty to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our ironclad guaranty, at $1 per box; three boxes (thirty days' treatment), $2.50; or sent direct on receipt of price. Write for booklet and proofs. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., Mfg. Chemists, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

[West Oregonian.] The people about Eckley are determined to have a wagon road to Myrtle Point early in the summer.

Parties traveling on the road between Myrtle Point and Coquille complain very much about the roads not being properly repaired, especially this side of the Gilman place.

Orvil Dodge has been elected delegate to the G. A. R. encampment to be held at Oregon City, May 17th and 18th, and will start about the tenth of this month for that place. His children will accompany him and visit their mother who is in an insane asylum. His daughter, Mrs. O. R. Willard of Coquille City, will also accompany the party.

[Bandon Recorder.] Mrs. Emmett has rented the Ocean House and will open up a hotel there.

The cannery is an assured fact and will be built just above the present wharf where Judge Dyer has donated a couple of valuable lots for its reception. He also gave a lot below the boathouse for a mess house. Other parties also contributed to the enterprise until it has become a certainty.
