BOYCOTT NATIONAL BANK NOTES.

Knights of Labor, Farmers' Alliance, Reform Clubs
And All Lovers of Liberty—Strike for Justice! Expunge the Unsound Money of the "Sound" Money Advocates.

Behind the proposition to perpetuate a monetary system in this country based on a single gold standard is a proposition to perpetuate the national banks. In fact, the national banks, in their individual capacity and through the American Bankers' Association, are the bulwarks of a single gold standard money. They realize that gold alone will not be accepted by the American people as the only circulating medium, and therefore they demand that the monetary prerogatives of government be farmed out to them, making private interests and not the public welfare the only motive for furnishing a paper circulation to meet the requirements of business.

The national banks are responsible for the destruction of the greenbacks, the payment of the bonds in coin, the funding acts, the demonetiza-tion of silver, and all the corrupt financial legislation in this country for the past thirty years.
They have boycotted and discriminated against every kind of money that promised relief to the debtor class and prosperity to the industrial masses. They are boycotters of the most cruel and merciless kind.

Now we propose, through the Knights of Labor, Farmers' Alliance, People's party, and all reform organizations, that a boycott be placed on the notes of national banks, and that on and after September 1, 1895, our people be requested and urged to accept no national bank bills in any of the ordinary transactions of business.

National bank notes are legal tender between the national government and the people and between the banks and the government, but not legal tender between individuals.
They are not legal tender for all debts, wages or merchandise, nor any of the multifarious transactions that enters into business intercourse between individuals, and it is generally agreed that if only one person in a hundred boycotts these notes it will make the work effective and depreciate them, and force the banks into a humiliating defense of their "fiat" money.

A boycott of this kind will agitate the money question, test the sincerity of some doubtful free silver advocates, and stick a dagger into the heart of the money power, in turn for the dagger it has stuck into the hearts of the people. I am not entirely cold-blooded, but believe in meeting the enemy on its own field. It may be argued that the boycott herein proposed will disturb business and make money scarcer than it already is, and that during the hard times people out to accept any kind of money. But let it be remembered that this boycott is against a soulless combine that is responsible for the scarcity of money, low wages, and business depression.

This boycott will precipitate the great conflict, with the people on one side and the banks on the other, and the issues will be as sharply drawn as in the struggle of Andrew Jackson with the old United States bank, sixty years ago. It will force the corporations and every form of private monopoly to take sides in the contest. It will force a plutocratic press and a foreign money power to reveal the hidden hand of American politics, and establish an impassable barrier between the toiling masses of America and the shylocks and pensioned lords of the world. And if an attempt is made to force national bank notes upon the public, through such channels as they are by law made a legal tender, we will establish a redemption bureau and through existing laws force the secretary of the treasury to unload the locked-up greenbacks for the benefit of the people.

The struggle of 1896 must result in victory for the common people, or the hope of American liberty is lost and recovery impossible through methods now sanctioned by law.

The campaign must be waged against the combined foe of two continents, against the allied forces of the plutocracy and tyranny throughout the world, and in the light of recent events it must be the most aggressive and offensive campaign ever waged in this country. We can expect no permanent relief without a struggle, and therefore let us precipitate the conflict in time and on lines that will expose the unsound money of the sound money advocates. This can be effectively done by a national boycott on the unsound, un-American, unconstitutional notes of the national bank.

On and after September 1, 1895, let every Knight of Labor and every person whose love of justice is above the sordid interests of the tyrants refuse to accept national bank notes in payment for wages, produce, or in payment of any debt or obligation not made necessary by the limited legal-tender qualities of the notes.

Boycott the notes of national banks!
J. R. SOVEREIGN,
General Master Workman.

STOCKWELL'S BAD BOY.

And its All on Account of the Tariff, You Know.

[Enter boy with badly bruised face and eye swollen shut.] My son, what on earth does this mean?

It means that Tom Jones lied to me.

But you should never fight. I must punish you severely.

He hit me first and called you an old turncoat and—

Called me an old turncoat?
Yes; it was this way, pa. He told me he would give me $1 to saw a cord of wood, then when I got it done he would only pay me 64 cents!

Only 64 cents?
That is all he would pay me.

Perhaps you misunderstood him, my son.

No I didn't; I guess I know 64 cents when I see it.

I mean about the price.

No, sir; he said he would give me $1.

Well, put your coat on, my son; I'll go over and see that he pays you $1 according to contract.

Going they meet boy [badly battered] accompanied by his father.

There's Tom, pa.

Jones—How's this? Your boy assaulted mine, and I've come to demand satisfaction.

Smith—Yes, and so have I. Your lazy runt of a boy can't hire my boy and agree to pay him $1 a day and then only pay him 64 cents.

Besides, he assaulted my boy first.

Jones—You're a liar, you son of a—

[They both clinch and so do the boys.] For a few minutes the air is blue with profanity and hair.

Then the crowd which has assembled, separates them. [Bystander picks up silver dollar and hands it to Smith's son.] Here's a dollar dropped out of your pocket during the scuffle.

[Boy takes it.] That's the same dollar I paid him for sawing wood; boo-hoo!

Smith boy—Tain't a dollar; it's only 64 cents.

Smith—Is that what the Jones boy paid you, my son?
Yes, pa; it is.
Smith—Mr. Jones, I beg your pardon. I see through it all now.

My son, that is a dollar. How ridiculous you have made me appear.

Pa, it was only last week I heard you argue for an hour that silver dollars are only worth 64 cents, and that it is a disgrace to coin them and—

Oh, ah; well, you see, a—No, I don't see, ah, with both eyes about swelled shut now. I'll lick h—l out—

Sh? my boy; a—you must beg his pardon.

What! Be swindled out of 36 cents, then be pulverized, then ask pardon; I'll be ramshackled if I'll do it. I—

My son, it is all a mistake. That is a dollar, and will buy as much as any other dollar, and it is just as good as any other dollar.

Then why did you say last week it is a dishonest dollar?

Oh, I; ah, well, I've been taught by the politicians and subsidized newspapers and office-seekers to say so, and—

Is that all the reason you have for saying so?

My son, you are a fright.
Pa, you look as though you had been through a threshing machine.

Jones—And it's all on account of the tariff.

Smith to Jones—Don't you think it's time to stop this rot about a silver dollar not being worth as much as a gold one?

You're right, I do. Let's give the boys a dollar apiece and go an join the Populists.

Agreed.

Reader, did you ever take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "KING OF LIVER MEDICINES"? Every body needs take a liver remedy. It is a sluggish or diseased liver that impairs digestion and causes constipation, when the waste that should be carried off remains in the body and poisons the whole system.
That dull, heavy feeling is due to a torpid liver. Biliousness, Headache, Malaria and Indigestion are all liver diseases. Keep the liver active by an occasional dose of Simmons Liver Regulator and you'll get rid of these troubles, and give tone to the whole system. For a laxative Simmons Liver Regulator is BETTER THAN PILLS. It does not gripe, nor weaken, but greatly refreshes and strengthens.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now. The convenience of mankind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, require continual accessions to the apparatus and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who being on the alert and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of the government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing discrepancies. Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent.
Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially in this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who entrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at immense risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade-marks, labels, copy-

IF YOU WANT INFORMATION ABOUT PENSIONERS

ADDRESS A LETTER OR POSTAL CARD TO THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY

PHILIP W. AVIRETT, General Manager.
P. O. Box 463, Washington, D. C.

Honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served ninety days, or over, in the late war are entitled, if now partially or wholly disabled for ordinary manual labor, whether disability was caused by service or not, and regardless of their pecuniary circumstances, to a pension. Soldiers and sailors are entitled (if not remarried) whether soldiers' death was due to army service or not, if now dependent upon their own labor for support. Widows not dependent upon their own labor are entitled if the soldier's death was due to service.

CHILDREN are entitled (if under 16 years) in almost all cases where there was no widow, or she has since died or remarried.

PARENTS are entitled if soldier left neither widow nor child, provided soldier died in service, or from effects of service, and they are now dependent upon their own labor for support. It makes no difference whether soldier served or died in late war or in regular army or navy.

Soldiers of the late war, pensioned under one law, may apply for higher rates under other laws, without losing any rights.

Thousands of soldiers drawing from $2 to $10 per month under the old law are entitled to higher rates under new law, not only on account of disabilities for which now pensioned, but also for others, whether due to service or not.

Soldiers and sailors disabled in line of duty in regular army or navy since the war are also entitled, whether discharged for disability or not.

Survivors, and their widows, of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee, and Seminole or Florida Indian wars of 1812 to 1814, are entitled under a recent act.

MEXICAN WAR SOLDIERS and their widows also entitled, if 62 years of age or disabled or dependent.

Old claims completed and settlement obtained, whether pension has been granted under later laws or not.

Rejected claims reopened and settlement secured, if rejection improper or illegal.

Certificates of service and discharge obtained for soldiers and sailors of the late war who have lost their original papers.

Send for laws and information. No charge for advice. No fee unless successful.

easy terms that parties wishing to purchase property in the beautiful town of Myrtle Point should take a look at this addition before purchasing elsewhere. We only a k one-fourth down, balance from one to two years' time. Fine acreage property adjoining this addition for sale cheap.
