Do It. THE GOLDBUG MICROBE is instantly killed by sending a 2-cent stamp to the American Hygienic League, Washington, D. C., and asking for free literature. Do it.

Roseburg Review: The Coquille City Herald, one of the brightest local papers in the state, is thirteen years old.

Roseburg Review: Those two ruffians, Corbett and Fitzsimmons, are now engaging in barroom brawls, pulling noses and spitting in each others faces. Yet, in a couple of months the press of the country, in reporting their coming encounter at Dallas, will make them heroes, and the public will encourage the newspapers by buying millions of extra copies containing the report of the brutal affair.

A Mrs. Leake, who lives in San Francisco and just across the street from the Emanuel church, has reported to the police that she saw Durrant and Blanch Lamont enter the church at 4:10 April 3d, the day of Miss Lamont's disappearance. She watched a long time, but they did not come out. She knew both parties personally and intimately well, and states that she identified both thoroughly at the time.

At the Cook county, Ill., insane asylum a few days ago, Attendants Anderson and Gough beat an inmate, George Puick, to death in a brutal manner. The attendants have been arrested for murder. Dr. McGrew, the hospital physician, says that this is not the first time they have been guilty of gross cruelty to patients. He says that he has reported to the officials, but that political influence has always prevented their discharge.

Additional Locals.

D. G. Beale of this county, lately residing at Roseburg, has returned and will reside at Marshfield.

FOR SALE—ONE THREE-QUARTER bred red Durham Bull, 3 years old. Also about 25 Mutton Sheep.

E. CORMAN,
Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Johnson Bro's want 1000 dozen chickens and all the hides you can furnish. Highest market price in cash or trade. Bring them along.

Prof. A. N. Knight has moved to Gardiner and will conduct the school at that place. This is another loss to Myrtle Point's good citizenship.

The board of directors of the new hotel company have ordered the 1st installment of subscriptions of stock to be paid up at once—one third of each share.

Dr. Strange, dentist, passed down to Bandon last Friday. Mrs. S. accompanies to visit on our beach. He will be at this place, professionally, August 26th till September 21.

The fires raging in and near the Yoakam and Morris, Bro's logging camps above this place, we are assured, have done little damage. They have been wild and very threatening, but precautions have been used to good effect.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Coos County Mercantile and Shipping Association will be held at Herald Hall (over the Herald office) in Coquille City, Oregon, on Friday, September 6, 1895, at 2 o'clock p. m.

J. H. JAMES, Sec.

Oregonian, Aug. 12: Frank Lind, of Marshfield, aged 18, lies in the hospital with a badly crushed foot. He was stealing a ride on the brakebeam of a southbound freight train last night, and when near Milwaukie his foot caught in the air-brake apparatus and was badly crushed. He was brought to this city and turned over to the county authorities. He has no money and claims his partner robbed him while he was asleep. His parents reside at Marshfield, Coos county.

Our friend W. P. Boyce visited us last week and left a basket of Gravensteins. Thanks.

Mrs. C. D. Elliott last Friday sent the editor 8 Hungarian prunes, which weighed 1 1/2 lbs. They were fine specimens and luscious.

Dr. Rickenbach, the eye, ear and throat specialist, is at Bandon on an outing and will practice in his profession during his stay.

Mrs. Stone, who has been spending several weeks in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Simmons, left yesterday for Mrs. D. F. Dean's, at Empire.

The Hayes building has been moved to the front on Mr. Gray's business lot and put in position, and lumber was delivered last evening for the new structure.

C. L. Gray looms up on our streets now as one of our own citizens. His improvements have been hindered somewhat, but will move along henceforth with a new impulse.

Forest Grove Times: Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy, wealthy residents of Dora, Coos county, are looking toward this place with a view to removing here to educate a large family.

Mrs. McDonald and daughter Flora, of Myrtle Point, and Mrs. Dunsmore and two daughters, Misses Effie and Lulu, also of Myrtle Point, visited Mr. and Mrs. Thornton last week, before the latter's departure for California.

Beyers & Hunt say they will only remain here until September 1st, so if you desire any first-class photographs you will do well to give them a call before that date. They guarantee all their work to be first-class. At the "Picture" Tent.

T. J. Baxter, brother of our townsman F. M. Baxter, has been working at Smith's camp for some time, and met with an accident last Saturday a week ago. He cut his left hand with a saw, and the wound does not heal well. It has been very painful, too.

The board of directors of the new hotel company met last Friday evening and organized by the election of Judge J. H. Nosler as president; J. W. Leneve, secretary, and J. J. Lamb, treasurer. The Olive lot being secured, work on the new hotel will begin at once.

J. L. Weatherbee of Astoria spent a day or two in this place last week, and also visited Empire on business. He will conduct a salmon cannery on the lower river this season for Elijah Smith, and has been receiving fishing and canning apparatus for that purpose.

The first lumber for the new hotel was delivered yesterday. Here is another "misfortune" against Coquille for the chronicler of the Saturday Blade to make a note of. And another is the bright prospects for a new schoolhouse—and well, we don't want to knock the wind out of the fellow all at once.

Mr. Jones introduced a neat blackboard last week at the Christian church, designed by himself, for keeping the records of the Christian Sunday-school each day, month, quarter and year in public view. It is a very complete invention, and at a glance exhibits the progress or decline of the school in all essential points.

G. T. Robinson of near Arago called last Friday and contributed a nice lot of Bradshaw plums, a choice variety of fruit and very large and sound, for the editor's and devil's delectation. Mr. R. has a great deal of fine fruit, having thrifty orchards of apples, plums, prunes and pears, as well as several varieties of cherries.

May-be "O.B. Server" will father the Chicago Saturday Blade's write-up of "An Unlucky Oregon town," etc., as it sounds like the love-spurts he and his master of the Mail bear toward Coquille City; or it sounds like the incoherent water-front vernacular, "bet-chor-life," wherein the correspondent gets all of his big experiences mixed and credited to one locality and clinches it with an oath.

Dr. J. P. Easter of Yoncolla, formerly of our upper-river section, passed through this place yesterday for the beach. The doctor met up with many old acquaintances and friends on our streets. Accompanying the doctor was a nephew, Prof. J. B. Easter, a leading educator of Idaho and principal of the city schools of Moscow, in that state. The editor acknowledges a pleasant call from both gentlemen.

The School Meeting and What Was Done.

At 1:30 p. m. Saturday last the legal voters of school district No. 8 met at the schoolhouse, as per call issued by the board of directors on August 5, to consider and take action on the question of securing certain properties for school purposes.

Chairman D. P. Strang presided and Secretary Rich read the call. Reading of minutes of last meeting was dispensed with.

The secretary read the proposition from the academy company, to sell building, grounds, furniture, etc., for $3000, for which they would accept the present school-building and lots at the value of $1000 and take the district's bonds for $2000.

S. W. Harrington moved that the board be authorized to purchase the academy property, which was seconded.

The question was earnestly discussed—for, by J. S. McEwen, and against, by Mr. Harrington, J. W. Leneve and others. On a vote being taken, only one voted aye; the balance, no.

The question of purchasing four lots adjacent to the present school-building was then proposed. It was said they could be bought for $100 each, and the present eligible site enlarged.

But before action was taken thereon, Mr. Harrington proposed the purchase of the Masonic block, which he argued for. J. W. Leneve and others also favored this purchase. It was placed at $1000 valuation. On motion of H. H. Nichols, duly seconded, and amended that the board be authorized to purchase the same provided it can be had for not exceeding $1000, the motion prevailed—ayes, 32; noes, 6.

A motion by J. S. McEwen, that the board be also authorized to buy four lots on the present school block, south side, at not exceeding $100 each, was voted down. Then he moved to purchase the two lots immediately south of the school building. This was carried.

J. J. Lamb then moved, that in case the board should fail to purchase the Masonic block, that they be authorized to purchase the four lots on south side present school grounds at not exceeding $100 each. Carried—32 for; noes, 1. On motion adjourned.

Noble-Lammy Wedding.

Last Sunday, at 4 p. m., Uncle Sol Spurgeon's hospitable home, on the west side, was the scene of nuptial festivities of a pleasing character. Rev. C. P. Cone married Charles A. Noble, son of Wm. Noble, the Coos river logger, and Miss Emma Lammy, grand niece of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon. There were present, besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spurgeon, the bridal couple, Charles A. Noble and Miss Emma Lammy, the officiating minister, Rev. C. P. Cone, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. McGaffey and daughter Nina, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. W. Hite, Nelsa Lammy (uncle of the bride), Prof. J. S. Kenematz, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sugg, Mrs. E. Fouts and J. S. McEwen.

Several handsome presents were made, including a handsome case of feather flowers by Mrs. McDonald, a table scarf by Prof. Kenematz, sauce dish by Mrs. Fouts, fruit bowls by Mrs. Hite, and others. A table was spread and a delicious supper served, a host of little folks also faring sumptuously. The youthful bride and groom start out together with many good wishes for useful and happy lives.

We have the rarest offer yet of a dairy farm for sale. It has 2944 acres—80 acres hill land cleared; 50 acres of bottom land, mostly cleared; 230 first-class fruit trees, all bearing; 1/4 mile from Coquille river, 1/4 mile from school, 11 miles from Coquille City, 9 miles from Bandon and 11 from Myrtle Point. Crop and farming utensils go with the place; some hogs, cattle and sheep also—if sold soon.

Board of Equalization.

Notice is hereby given that the County Board of Equalization for Coos county, State of Oregon, will meet at the office of the County Clerk of said county on the 16th day of September, A. D. 1895, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., and publicly examine the assessment roll, and correct all errors in valuation, description, or qualities of lands, lots or other property.

Fire Near Norway.

Last Saturday evening the nice residence property of August Schroeder, near Norway, was destroyed by fire. The family was absent except Grandma Schroeder and one son, the latter being out from the house a short distance and first to discover the fire issuing from the upper story. The origin of the fire is not known and is somewhat of a mystery. The property was entirely destroyed, except a new range, a sewing-machine and valuable papers. Grandma Schroeder is very old and of course could render no help. We understand, too, that she lost a featherbed which was given to her by her mother when she was married. The loss is very heavy to Mr. Schroeder, as he only carried an insurance of $600.

Mrs. J. W. Nosler took another sudden sick spell last Sunday evening.

Charles Wilkins has recovered from his late sickness and is out exercising.

The photographers, Messrs. Beyers & Hunt, expect to leave in a few days. See notice.

Now the dairymen have the laugh. Butter is now 26 cents per pound and on the rise.

Senator Vanderburg has vastly improved the Sun since taking it in charge. It is now all home print.

Dr. J. C. Bogue desires his former patients to call on Dr. Strange, who will complete any work commenced by him.

L. Harlocker played postmaster during the outing of Postmaster Aiken and family at the beach. The latter have all returned.

Uncle Jack Wood has been down from Lee two or three days on business. He turned over some nice Gravensteins at the office.

Dr. Strange, the dentist, will be in Coquille City from August 26th until Sept. 2d, and in Myrtle Point from Sept. 4th until Sept. 10th.

W. W. Shields, a good mechanic, advertises in today's Herald of all kinds, on quick notice and on best terms. See ad.

John Nasburg has moved the Bon-Ton saloon into the Odd Fellows' building, while he puts in a new foundation and makes other repairs to his own building.

Mr. Colvin was in town this morning, and two or three days before, after so long a time that we failed to recognize him and greeted him as a new-comer to the section.

The Methodist Sunday-school chose the following as delegates to the Y. P. S. C. W. to meet at Fish-trap on the 28th inst.: Miss Ella Buck and Miss Marvin Lamb.

The steamer Bandorille will be at this place this evening, from Portland. She entered the river yesterday and is discharging for Bandon and lower river points.

We learn that the company's saloon at Beaver Hill opened yesterday. We never heard of a license being granted by the court—but, then, that does not matter.

Mrs. Matheson and daughter and son, and Jimmy Childs, of Grants Pass, came in Tuesday last and have been visiting Mrs. M's sisters, Mrs. Messer and Mrs. A. L. Nosler.

We would be glad to receive some good apples, plums, pears, berries, or lard, bacon, chickens or eggs on subscriptions. Remember your editor. N. B.—Or money will be accepted.

Our upper-river correspondent has wholly failed this week. Being one of the pioneers, and holding important official position in the Pioneers' association, he was absent from home and very busy. We hope to renew the same at an early date.

Coos county has been invited to participate in a baseball tournament or "field day" at Grants Pass on the 27th inst., and we shall surely be represented. Nine of the boys will leave today, as follows: Fred Clark, Jim Hutchinson, Charley Smith, Frank Burgess, Ed Reckner, C. Paustian, Charley Baxter and Dave Johnson. C. M. Byler will join the boys about the 1st of next month.

One truck on the logging train, Tuesday night of last week, became derailed below town about two miles and traveled on the ties, cutting the same badly at places, and cutting off taps and bolt-heads and fishplates at many points till it reached a mile or more above town. No other damage seems to have been done, though the wonder is the train was not derailed and some employes hurt or killed.

I Am Glad

To tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I had the grip and its ill effects settled all over me. I had cramps in my legs and frequently I had to get up at night and walk to relax the muscles. I also had stomach troubles. I then took Hood's Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured the cramps, and another has helped my stomach greatly. I have taken 8 bottles and use Hood's Pills which are the best I ever took." H. A. MELVIN, Sisters, Oregon.

OUTGOING STAGE ROBBERD.

The Second Time in One Week. Passengers Contribute This Time to the Road Account.

The following dispatch to the daily papers gives the straightest account of the stage robbery at hand:

Roseburg, August 13.—The Coos Bay-Roseburg stage was held up by a lone highwayman this afternoon only a short distance from where it was stopped last Tuesday. The robber only secured about $10, although the four passengers on board had over $500 in money, which they concealed.

As the stage was coming up Camas mountain, en route from Myrtle Point to Roseburg, between 2 and 2:30 this afternoon, Dan Cardwell and Barney Matthews of Roseburg were riding on the box seat with Driver George Laingor. The driver remarked: "Here is the place we were held up last Tuesday." After having driven nearly a quarter of a mile to a point where the grade was heavier and where two large fir trees stood on either side of the road, Cardwell remarked: "Would it not be a joke if a robber should appear from behind that tree on this side of the road?"

Almost before he had finished speaking a slight sound, as of twigs breaking, was heard from the upper side of the road. Laingor said: "My God, here he comes." At the same instant a man sprang from behind the tree with a pistol in each hand, and the driver claims he recognized the weapons as the ones carried in the hold-up a week ago. The bandit wore a mask made from the leg of an old pair of knit drawers, a yellow gum coat reaching to his ankles, and his hands were blackened, as if with burnt wood. He cried out: "Hold up! Hold up!" The driver put on his brake and stopped. The robber next commanded all hands up and said: "Put them up high and stand up." He repeated "Stand up" several times. No one made a move, and Cardwell asked: "Whom are you speaking to?" He replied: "To you, and throw out your money."

Cardwell stood up and threw two dollars to the ground, but was told to dig up the rest and not give him all small stuff. He then gave up $2 more.

On the first alarm Cardwell had thrown a purse containing $198 on the seat behind him, which he saved. Matthews was the next commanded to stand up and deliver. He stood up and threw out $2.50, saying: "I can't help you much, partner; times are too hard." "Yes, I know," replied the robber; "that's why I'm in this business." Matthews carried several hundred dollars in gold and greenbacks, which he threw on the back seat and in the boot.

Major Pond, lighthouse inspector, and Miss Myrtle Ban were inside, and the robber addressed the major, saying: "Dig up, old man." The major took $1.50 from his vest pocket. Miss Ban carried about $134, but was not disturbed. The driver was then told to stand up, but replied that the road was so steep it was a difficult matter to stand erect, and he was allowed to remain seated. Had he gotten up, the money thrown on the seat by the passengers would have been in plain view of the robber.

The robber asked if he had any mail, and Laingor said: "I've only a way sack, and anybody who would take that would rob his grandmother." The robber did not want that. The driver bade him good-by and he replied: "Good-by; but you will see me again in a day or two."

Laingor is confident it is the same fellow who held up the stage last week. This is his third experience on the same road within a short time. He is confident he would recognize the robber by his voice, which was rather feminine.

Charley—What makes the old cat howl so? Walter—I guess you'd make a noise if you were full of fiddle strings inside.

"What in the world shall I do with baby, John? She's crying for the moon." "That's nothing. Wait till she's 18, and then she'll want the earth."

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

How to Cure Yourself While Using Tobacco.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want, while taking Baco-Curo; it will notify you when to stop. We give a written guaranty to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our ironclad guaranty, at $1 per box; three boxes (thirty days' treatment), $2.50; or sent direct on receipt of price. Write for booklet and proofs. A controversy is raging in the valley papers as to the champion hiccougher. George W. Harris, of Albany, appears to be entitled to the belt, with a record of nine days and nights.

A Western Alabama editor was writing up a local theatrical entertainment recently, and he wanted to be particularly nice about it, so he mentioned the names of several young ladies of the town, and wrote, "They all filled their parts to perfection." Then he went home. When the paper appeared it was found that the printer had an "n" in the place of an "r" in the word "parts."

The Atlanta Constitution says that at a recent rural prayer meeting the minister said: "Will Brother Smith please lead in prayer?" Seven men arose and began praying at once. This embarrassed the preacher, and he said hurriedly: "I mean Brother John Smith." At this announcement one of the seven sat down and five more got up and began praying. The preacher saw his mistake, said nothing, and let the eleven pray it out among themselves.

Times: A number of blacksmiths of Rogue river valley have formed a union, with Hugh Elliott of Jacksonville as president and Geo. F. Merriman of Medford as secretary. The main object of the organization is to maintain a reasonable price for blacksmithing. It is proposed to put horsehoesing at $2, with a 10 per cent discount for cash. Another meeting will be held soon, when nearly all the blacksmiths in Jackson county are expected to become members.
