WHAT COQUILLE CITY NEEDS.

Every man, woman and child in Coquille is, or ought to be, intensely interested in the progress and growth of our town. If there is a man, or woman either, existing in this place, and breathing our free air, who is so destitute of public spirit or town pride; so narrow-minded and selfish as not to care for the public weal, or who takes no interest in the advancement of Coquille, it is to be hoped that they will find it agreeable to themselves to emigrate to some land of fossils, where everything and everybody are fixed in statu quo, and where the word "progress" is not found in the vocabulary. But we prefer to think that there are no such people in our midst; but that we are all alike interested in pushing ahead. If so, what do we need?

First, we need population. Not a dependent population; not a lot of people to come to this country without means, expecting to find profitable employment at the hands of those who are here already. An increase of population in this direction would be a public calamity. But, for the development of the town and country we need a large addition to our numbers. We need every acre of the rich bottom lands lying along the Coquille valley adjacent to our town put into cultivation. Therefore we need men with families who have means to buy up these uncleared and uncultivated bottom lands, and make this wonderfully rich valley blossom as the rose. Few people have any conception of the possibilities of these lands when once redeemed and placed under the plow. All this can be done, and the best interests of Coquille demand it. It can only be done by inducing thrifty people to come and purchase and redeem these lands that now lie in a wilderness at our very doors. What are the enterprising business men of our town doing to bring about these results? The move made by our Bandon neighbors, if seconded by our people, would assist in bringing about the desired end. Then it does seem that we ought to be equal to the task ourselves of devising a plan, or plans, for encouraging such immigration. Will not the people put their heads together and make some sensible move in this direction? We will have more to say under this head next week. We think of many things that our town and country need, and which are available if a proper effort is made.

If Mr. Horr so used up the little "unknown," "ignorant," W. H. Harvey ("Coin") in the great debate at Chicago, as the g. o. p.'s claim he did, why don't they push the sale of the published debate so that the people may be educated aright on the financial question? The debate was gotten up by them and for their benefit against the wishes of the Populists and most free-silver friends, because, first, Mr. Harvey was not a debater, but a writer; and second because Horr, the great platform mogul of the "American protection idea" party, who, if he could not beat his opponent in debate, would bulldoze, ridicule and down by foul means—he would triumph, because he was the Hessian tool of plutocracy and well paid for it. But, alas, his shrewdness and courage both failed him, and he has been in the hands of his party physicians ever since, with chances against his recovery. The Populists, Bimetallic League and other free-silver agencies are publishing the debate in cheap form and pushing its sale, but plutocracy hides its head, and says nothing.

The Herald thanks Comrade W. P. Skelly, of the Veterans' Home at Yountville, Cal., for a copy of the "Reports of the President and Other Officers of the Veterans' Home Association of California, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895." It is a very complete record of the association and what it is doing for the old soldiers, and gives a full list of the names, branch and term of service of each, etc., of those at the home, and the receipts and expenditures of same.

Coast Mail: Hark Dunham is announced by the Herald as a Populist. "Hark! from the tombs a doleful sound." Just so—it's a doleful sound to you when one from the tombs of the old parties is resurrected to a new life. You remember, the scriptures speak of you where they say there are some "who would not believe, though one rose from the dead," and they are "given over to hardness of heart and reprobacy of mind."

The great murder trial case of Theodore Durrant, at San Francisco, terminated suddenly last Friday. Prosecuting Attorney Barnes concluded his address Friday morning. Judge Murphy followed soon with his charge and the jury retired, and in about 20 minutes, after one ballot, returned and announced a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The courtroom was a bedlam for some minutes, when a lull was obtained and the date of next Friday set for passing sentence. Notice of an appeal was given.

The Coast Mail and the County Court.

Last week's Coast Mail says: The Eugene Guard published an article two weeks ago in regard to the doings of the county court here, which contains serious charges. The Mail has been asked to publish the article but withholds it for the present so that the authorities can explain. It is very harmful to publish a false charge and scatter it all over the county before the explanation is furnished. The members of the county court and others know what these charges are and it would seem the best plan to let them move first in the matter and explain, as the affair is awakening a good deal of interest and will doubtless be investigated.

The Oregonian says: "The management of Oregon counties for the past year or two offers many pleasant surprises. Warrants are at par that once were 90, and those are 90 that once were 80, or perhaps 50. Salaries are being cut down, fees have been cut off, savings are effected in countless ways. All this is a testimony of the spirit of the pioneer. We are better off than California. Our counties are in no where near in bad shape as are those of Washington. The difference runs back to the pioneers. The qualities of saving and denial, of fortitude and never-give-up reappear in their children, charged with the emergencies of these mountains of debt and deserts of extravagant officialism."

The Eugene Guard man will hardly think this applies to Coos county, as that paper scores the management of Coos unmercifully.

The above is from the Coast Mail, which, in its usual insinuating manner, would have its very limited number of readers (thanks to the intelligence of the people of Coos county) infer that our most efficient and economical county court has been guilty of gross carelessness in disbursements of the county funds. It attempts to hide, however, behind the Eugene Guard. The "serious charges" to which the Mail refers are the ratings of a Republican rascal at our county officials because they have demanded that Lane county pay for keeping their own paupers. And the Guard refers to the manner in which our county is and has been, for some time past, providing for the paupers who are not able to be removed to the county poor farm, or if moved there, could not possibly receive the attention that their conditions require. For this purpose our county court has established what is known as the "county hospital," and as this institution has been an eye-sore to some of the "kickers" in all parties, we will state the facts concerning it.

It is true that this hospital was first established at the special instance and request of one of the Coast Mail's main pillars, a Republican county judge, and for this reason, perhaps, should be immediately discarded as disreputable and full of boodle. But (giving the devil his dues) this was found to be so great a saving to the county (however strange it might seem considering its origin) that the present court has thought best to continue it thus far.

It often happens that a poor man, most frequently a logger, meets with an accident and is without a dollar to pay for board and necessary medical attendance. It then becomes the duty of the county court to provide him with what is necessary for his care and comfort. Suppose he is sent to the poor farm as suggested by some. There are no nurses, which are absolutely necessary in all of these serious cases which are sent to the hospital. It is three miles from the nearest physician, and a visit once a day, as is often required, would cost $5 per visit. In most instances where patients are sent to the hospital, they are not in condition to be moved to the poor farm. Would you have the man left to perish where he falls? In law and in the name of humanity, it could not be done. But of course this would be in accordance with the views of the Mail man and his ilk, for a penniless man is only a chattel and when it becomes worthless or burdensome it is to be discarded.

Bertus Roskamp was stricken with paralysis in Empire, and was cared for there for one day, or until he could be removed. This cost $5 for attendants, day and night, and the bedding he damaged cost $6; had a physician been summoned from the nearest place, Marshfield, this would have cost $5 more. How is that for expenses outside of the hospital? In the hospital everything is furnished and only costs $3.25 per day. The following is a partial list of the items of expense charged to and paid by Coos county when Hermann Peterson was unfortunate enough to have his leg broken while working on Coos river. Physicians and assistant for 29 days..... $70.00 Nurse, 29 days..... 72.50 Medicines..... 37.05 Board for 29 days..... 22.60

Total for 29 days.... $202.15 The above is not a complete list for the same time and person, but we have enough to show what the advantages of the present system are over the old way.

Under the present contract this man would have been furnished with board, good nurses, skillful medical attendance and all medicines necessary, all for $3.25 per day, which for the above 29 days would have amounted to $94.25 as against $202.15 the old way. This is only one instance where dozens could be cited. A man has recently been in the hospital and undergone surgical operations necessary to preserve his life which would, at the usual rate, have cost probably $100, whereas it now costs only $3.25 per day for all necessary attendance, board, etc.

These are facts taken from our county records. Examine for yourself and be not deceived.

Say, Mr. Mail man, go and soak your head. In regard to the Lane county affair. Some time since a man was taken seriously ill in Marshfield and was sent to the county hospital. Our ever watchful county judge soon discovered that he had a family in and was a resident of Lane county. The bill for his keeping was sent to Lane county. No reply was received. A letter was written demanding payment. In reply there came an impertinent letter insinuating that Lane county did not have to pay for the keeping of her paupers. However, they requested an itemized statement of the account. The itemized account was sent, and our officers will see to it that the claim will be paid.

Now, because Lane county acts "naughty" because asked to pay her just debts, will the Mail man take it up and attempt to show that Coos county is being ruined? This might do for a campaign lie, but election is too far off and the people of Coos county are too well acquainted with the Mail and its editor, and its readers are too few for this item from the Mail to have any weight.

Remember—the county court has entire control of this county hospital and only such persons as are too infirm or in too critical a condition to be sent to the poor farm are ever sent to the hospital. Before the Populists obtained entire control of our county, Coos county warrants were selling at 80 and 85 cents on the dollar. We know of about $4000 of county warrants sold within the past two months for 95 cents on the dollar. If the corporations, whose henchman is the editor of the Mail, would pay their delinquent taxes, Coos county warrants would be at par. Pie on this infidelity.

We would suggest that the Guard have some regard for the truth and that the Coast Mail substitute the word Black for Coast, and we might then expect a truer "reflection" and less ill "moulding" of the public opinion. Yours for truth and justice. SUBSCRIBER.

The Third Annual Convention

Of the W. C. T. U. orders of Coos county was held in the Methodist church, Coquille City, October 28th and 29th.

The convention was called to order at 2 p. m. by the president, Mrs. Laura Bottell, devotional exercises being conducted by Mrs. Helen D. Harford. The regular routine work was commenced by the president appointing Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Jones and Miss Jennie Moomaw a committee on credentials, who reported the following officers and members present: President, Mrs. Bottell, Coquille; vice-presidents, Mrs. Scott, Bandon, Mrs. Wilson, Sumner, Mrs. Byers, Willowdale; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ora Maury, Coquille; superintendent Demorest contest work, Mrs. Scott, Bandon; superintendent press work and literature, Mrs. Annie Lawrence, Coquille; superintendent narcotics, Miss Alice Beyers, Sumner; superintendent mothers' meetings, Mrs. Messer, Coquille; delegates—Mrs. Jones, of Bandon, Mrs. Paull, Mrs. Edmunds, and Mrs. Byers, of Willowdale, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Inman, of Sumner, Miss Jennie Moomaw, of Norway, Mrs. Rich, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Barrows and Mrs. Morgan, of Coquille.

The president then appointed the following committees: Finance—Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Byers; carteries—Mrs. Morgan and Miss Beyers; resolutions—Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Jennie Moomaw and Mrs. Edmunds.

Meeting then adjourned till evening session, to be held at 7 o'clock. EVENING SESSION Was called to order by Mrs. A. R. Scott, who acted as presiding officer. On behalf of the citizens of Coquille, Rev. J. S. McCann delivered a very eloquent address of welcome, which was heartily responded to by the different unions by their several representatives. After the singing of several beautiful hymns by our excellent choir, Mrs. Harford, the speaker of the evening, was introduced. Her address was quite well received, notwithstanding the subject discussed was along a different line than expected by quite a number present. Meeting was dismissed by doxology until 9 a. m. next day.

TUESDAY. Convention was called to order by Mrs. A. R. Scott, vice-president, who also conducted the devotional exercises. Reports from committees were submitted.

Paper on "The Struggles of Summer Union," written by Mrs. Masters and read by Mrs. Wilson, a member of that union. The morning exercises concluded with a discussion, led by Mrs. Scott, on "How to Awake an Interest in Temperance Work."

Afternoon devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Inman, of Sumner. Reports from superintendents and local presidents made.

A paper on "Narcotics," written by Miss Minnie McCloskey and read by Miss Jennie Moomaw, of Norway, was next on program, and was a very able and instructive piece of manuscript. Mrs. Harford made a short address in explaining the school of methods and answering questions in the question box. The further reports from all committees were then reported, committees on resolutions reporting as follows: "Thankful to our Heavenly Father who has been an ever present help through the year, the convention of W. C. T. U. of Coos county gratefully supplicates His continued blessing."

"Whereas, Gigantic evils have fastened upon our nation, and are absorbing its revenue and using its money and political influence to mazzle good; and

"Whereas, Its trail and path is in every home, menacing its dearest interests; therefore,

"Resolved, That we pledge our prayers and influence to that party which works to abolish the liquor traffic, and that we seek and work for the ballot because it is right and to make our work more effective.

"Resolved, That we use every effort to secure the observance of the Sabbath day, and that we recommend holding the gospel meetings.

"Resolved, That we most heartily thank the people of Coquille for their welcome and gracious hospitality; those who so tastefully arranged the floral decorations; the choir for their music; to the people of the M. E. church for the use of their building.

"Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the several boats for their reductions of fare in carrying the delegates to the county convention, and to Mrs. Harford for her very helpful and interesting lectures during the convention, and to all who in any way have contributed to the success of this convention.

"Mrs. A. R. Scott, "Mrs. Julia Barrows, "Mrs. M. A. Wilson, "Jennie Moomaw, "Mrs. Edmunds."

The election of officers was next declared in order, and on ballot the following well-qualified officials were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. B. A. McCann; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Melva Phillips; recording secretary, Miss Minnie McCloskey; treasurer, Mrs. Byers; superintendent Demorest contest work, Mrs. Inman; press, Mrs. Lawrence; literature, Mrs. Rich; mothers' meetings, Mrs. Messer; franchise, Mrs. Phillips; Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. Bottell; narcotics, Miss Alice Beyers; scientific instruction, Mrs. Paull.

The matter of selecting place of holding next convention was now introduced. Willowdale, Bandon and Sumner unions all extended a welcome and invitation for same. Willowdale secured the choice and was selected as the next place of meeting. Adjourned till evening.

EVENING DEVOTIONS Were led by Rev. W. B. Smith. The choir again favored the audience with delightful vocal music, which was well appreciated. Alice Beyers of Sumner declaimed a very pathetic selection, which not only did credit to the young lady, but to the convention, also.

Mrs. Harford delivered an interesting lecture on the subject, "Should Women Have the Franchise Right," which closed the evening's exercises.

With the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the convention closed, the delegates having faithfully performed their duties and greatly benefited each other by social intercourse and introducing and discussing their several methods of labor in this great work of temperance. REPORTER.

It seems that there were several airtight rooms, and that the goods in those rooms was not hurt much. It looks to a person this far off that things were carried on a little queer down there, and to cap it all, Coos and Curry counties are classed as a set of pirates.
